They had some snow in Maine last Sunday. It would have been pleasant to have some of it here—to cool the water.

The Volunteer beat the Thistle, clearly, easily and decisively, and on a wind that had been said to be the Thistle's own. The everlasting Yankee seems to get away with everything and everybody now-a-days.

The disasters by frost to the tobacco crop are reported as quite severe in some localities. Specials in yesterday's News and Observer indicate that the loss will be quite heavy in the Winston and Oxford sections.

We have all heard of ice palaces, but few have ever heard tell of such a thing as a corn house. Well, they have got at Sioux City a palace built entirely of Indian corn and are going to have a festival therein. They will be glad to Sioux there.

Jenny Lind is getting very old now and it is probable that she will not live much longer. She is reported so seriously ill that it has been found necessary to remove her from London to her residence in the country. It has been some forty years since she delighted this country with the melody of her voice, but none of those who heard her then will ever forget the charm of her singing and manner.

The lawyers of the condemned Chicago Anarchists have about given up hope of securing them a longer lease of life, and the gamblers are betting five to three that the men will hang according to sentence. Since the decision of the Supreme Court it seems that every crank in the country has written to the condemned men. Their mail is immense, and is increasing every day. Miss Nina Van Zandt's devotion to spies continues, and she visits his cell daily. It was said last week that she was at the head of a conspiracy to blow up the jail and rescue the Anarchist prisoners, but this was shown to be without foundation.

Asheville is on a boom and the boomiest boom it has ever yet had. The people of that growing city are not afraid to spend money to help their town along. They know that it takes money to make money and hence they don't seem to mind half million as much as we do half a hundred thousand down here.
They had a big meeting there last Saturday in favor of four different railroad projects. Among them the opening up of the Carolina Central through from Rutherfordton to Asheville. We copy here from the report to the News and Observer:

A big railroad meeting with barbecue trimmings was held here yesterday at Nellie Park, a four acre grove on Patton avenue. Between one and two thousand people assembled on the grounds. The mayor of Asheville was called to preside, secretaries appointed, and the first speaker, Hon. Mr. Crittenden, of Greenville, S. C., was introduced.
He was the accredited representative of the city of Greenville. He said substantially that his people were anxious for the connection with Asheville through the instru-mentality of the Carolina, Knoxville and Western railroad, and that Greenville county would be willing to vote $200,000, in addition to what she has already voted, to secure such connection. He was followed by a number of local speakers, and one or more from other parts of the country, advocating the several propositions asked to be submitted to the vote of the county. A letter was read from Col. Jno. M. Robinson, president of the Carolina Central railway, stating that he would extend his line from Rutherfordton to Asheville if Buncombe county would give one hundred thousand dollars and he could be assured of something beyond.

After the speaking the crowd repaired to the long tables on which a bountiful repast was spread for the hungry.
The people present seemed to be generally in favor of the project; and those who are pushing the matter feel hopeful, if not sanguine, of good results from the agitation of the question.

It is proposed to subscribe $100,- 000 to get the Carolina Central railway to extend its line from Rutherfordton, its present location between Brevard and Waynesville to Asheville.
$100,000 to induce the Carolina Knoxville & Western railroad to divert its proposed line from the present location between Brevard and Waynesville to Asheville, and reach Knoxville, its objective point, by a westerly route through the townships of Leicester and Sandy Marsh, in this county; $100,000 to the Atlanta, Asheville & Baltimore

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XI WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1887. NO 231

Railroad corporation, and $100,000 to the three C's road to build a connection between Asheville and the Cranberry mines. Add this to the $100,000 of bonded indebtedness we carry for the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad and the county would then have only a half million of debt to carry for the advantages of a numerous railway connection to the four quarters of the earth. The temper of the voting masses is yet an unsolved problem, and it is indeed a wise man who to-day could certainly predict the result if the question were submitted to a vote.
The county commissioners, at their next meeting, will submit the question if as many as one-fifth of the voters shall petition for it.

Reveries Her Youth
Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouchered for by the residents of the town: "I am 75 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my health to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50c. For sale by W. H.
Green & Co.

Worth Knowing.
Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption.
Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at W. H. Green & Co's Drug Store.

The water in Black River is distressingly low now.

The cautionary storm signal was hoisted this forenoon.

Eggs were retailing by the hucksters to-day at 20 cents per dozen.

Swed. barque Heidi, Wulf, hence for Riga, passed Flintrannan Sept.
19th.

There is considerable sickness in the city just now, but we hear of but very few cases of a serious character.

Such weather as this is bad on fish and oysters, and purchasers should be very careful in making their selections.

We learn at the Signal Office that the new flags which it was stated would be in use on the 1st inst., have not yet been received.

Warm weather has returned again and the mosquitoes have also come back to cheer us with their music and to annoy us with their bill.

Messrs. Collier & Co., will sell tomorrow, at auction, at their sales rooms, on Market street, the Purcell House furniture. Bargains may be had there.

Capt. Black will launch the hull of his new steamboat next week.
It is now in process of construction at Sparkberry, four miles above Point Caswell.

A gentleman from the Black River section of Sampson county tells us that Mr. Jeremiah Seavey has found on his farm, near Newkirk's bridge, several valuable specimens of amber.

The publishers of "Southern Society and Drama," 92 and 94 Main street, Norfolk, Va., desire a correspondent in this section to attend theatres and society meetings and forward reports of same. Credentials for admittance furnished. Address with stamped envelope and references.

Everybody on our streets to-day is rejoicing at the success yesterday of the Volunteer over the Scotch Thistle. It was generally thought that the Volunteer would win the race, and bets were made to that effect, but no one imagined that the trial would prove such a walk-over for the Yankee Volunteer.

Indication.
For North Carolina, rainy weather, nearly stationary temperature, fresh to brisk winds, and on the coast brisk to high Easterly winds, followed on Thursday by clearing weather, and Northwesterly winds.

The State Fair.
The State Fair is to be held at Raleigh on October 18th to 21st, and those of our people who desire to attend will secure the advantage of cheap railroad travel. The rate will be one cent per mile. The coming exhibition is to be quite an event, we are told, and large crowds are expected. A Farmers' Institute will be in connection with the Fair.

Not Until October 15th.
Some of our sportsmen are getting their guns ready to begin shooting birds on October 1st, but they will not do it if the law has any effect.
The law says that "no person shall kill or shoot, trap or net any partridges between April 1st and October 15th in each year, and the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not exceeding ten dollars for each offence." Put up that gun, young man, until October 15th. All the county magistrates know what the law is.

The Storm.
A dispatch has been received at the Signal Office here from Washington, D. C., ordering up the storm southeast signal for Wilmington section and stating that the storm centre last night was over Mississippi and moving eastward. Southeasterly winds, shifting Wednesday afternoon to northwesterly, will prevail along the South Atlantic coast, and Wednesday night along the Middle Atlantic coast. Signals are also ordered up at Charleston, S. C.

Go to Work.
There is no denying the fact, Wilmington is in a healthy condition of financial prosperity. This fact is apparent on every hand, and is becoming more prominent every day.
Our merchants are busy, our railroad men are busy, our mechanics and artisans are busy, and our laborers have as much as they can do.
There is no excuse for an idle man, unless a positive disinclination to work may be considered as a sufficient reason for being a loafer. Our streets and wharves bear plenty of evidence of a demand for laborers and working men, and we have no patience with those who claim that they can get nothing to do.

City Court.
There was a slim and unimportant docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which was disposed of as follows:
Anna Smith, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct, but the testimony was not sufficient to warrant a conviction, and she was discharged.
Minerva Williams, colored, charged with allowing her hog to run at large, was found guilty and required to pay a fine of $5 for the offense.
Sam Smith, colored, charged with failure to pay the necessary license tax for a stevedore's business, had the consideration of his case continued until to-morrow.

Colored Fair.
John H. Williamson, of Raleigh, Secretary of the State Colored Industrial Fair, addressed a meeting of our colored citizens at the City Hall last night, in the interest of the enterprise, which is to be held in Raleigh, commencing on the 25th of October next. He made a strong appeal, but unfortunately there was not a large number present. He stated that the price of tickets to the fair on the different railroads had been fixed at one cent per mile each way, and hoped to see Wilmington well represented at the exhibition, both by her people and her industries.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye, as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Mr. George S. Willis, a printer in this office, has among his poultry a brown Leghorn pullet that catches mice. She has caught quite a number and seems to go about her work in a business sort of way.

Wood is scarce in this market, and is held at rather high figures in consequence.

Exports Foreign.
Br. Steamship Everest, Douglass, cleared late yesterday evening for Liverpool with 4,700 bales cotton, valued at $200,500, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son. Nor-barque Daphne, Hansen, cleared at the same time, for London, with 1,- 500 casks spirits turpentine and 512 barrels rosin, valued at $22,950, also shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son; making a total of $223,450.

Yom Kippur.
The stores and places of business of our Hebrew fellow-citizens were closed at sunset last night and will remain closed until the corresponding hour to-night, in observance of Yom Kippur, the most solemn day in the Hebrew year. In consequence of closing so many places of business, our streets presented rather a deserted appearance to-day, and the fact caused some annoyance to a few who wanted to do a little shopping and who failed to remember this solemn and ancient Hebrew custom.

Superior Court.
The following were the proceedings before this tribunal to-day, up to the hour of closing our report: Rose Carter vs. W. A. Westerman.
Set for Friday. McRae & Strange for plaintiff, M. Bellamy for defendant.
James Basken vs. Mollie Basken.
Judgment for divorce. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff, no counsel for defendant.
L. A. Capps vs. T. J. Capps, administrator. Nol pros as to Dr. T.
F. Wood. Continued as to the rest until Monday, Oct. 3d. J. T. Elliott for plaintiff, Junius Davis for Dr.
Thomas F. Wood, J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for other defendant.
Sallier, Lewis & Co. vs. C. Rosenthal. Nonsuit. No counsel named.
Ada A. Edens vs. J. T. Edens.
Nonsuit. W. T. Elliot for plaintiff, M. Bellamy for defendant.

Postage Stamps.
The mania for getting up collections of foreign and rare domestic postage stamps, which existed to a marked degree several years back, is again raging; and some of the prominent gentlemen of this city, as well as little boys, are getting the latest book, or stamp-album, as its called, in which to store their treasures. That they are treasures, and valuable ones, can be easily seen from the following, which is taken from the Scientific American: "An international exhibition of postage stamps is now in progress at Anvers, says a foreign exchange.
One exhibitor, a Mr. De Beer, has alone sent thither 1,000,000 stamps.
Among the varieties to be seen at the exhibition is the oldest postage stamp in existence, belonging to the eighteenth century, and a postal card that made the tour of the world in ninety days. The latter belongs to a Harlem schoolmaster, who would not part with it at any price. It seems that there are no less than 600,000 postage stamp collectors in the world, 375,000 of whom are Americans, 200,000 are Europeans, and 25,000 belong to other parts of the world."

Important Announcement.
I SHIRIER will on the 1st of October remove (temporarily, until his store in Parcel building is finished) to the store one door next to McIntire's, on Front street, with an entire new stock of custom made clothing, for men, youths, boys and children, of the latest styles. I Shirier guarantees to sell this Fall and Winter his clothing fully from 25 to 33 per cent. below others. Don't buy one dollar's worth of clothing before you convince yourself of the fact that you will get better goods for less money at the Old Reliabi's, now and always. See his school suits at prices from $2.50, $3, $4, $5 and $6 worth from $2 to $3 more on a suit. Separate knee pants for boys from 4 to 14 years old at 50c, 75c and $1.

See the Othello Range at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; it is reversible grate for either coal or wood.
Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for winter use.
