THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4 1887 NO 236

CONSTIPATION

Called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being excreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons' Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a single dose, and afterwards reduced the dose to a teaspoonful, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued it until I took two bottles. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have so used for it, it having cured me." Geo. W. Sims, Asst. Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

We are glad to notice that the box sheet for to-night's entertainment is nearly all taken. Mr. J. S. Hall has become editor and proprietor of the Fayetteville News. We wish him much success in his journalistic venture.

There is considerable sickness, especially among children, in the city at this time, and the weather is extremely favorable for the propagation of disease.

Mr. W. H. M. Koch is now regularly in receipt of oysters at the National Saloon, corner Market and North Water streets. He serves them up in any style desired.

A large proportion of our moving population have accomplished that fatiguing task and are now settled in their new quarters, glad that the annoying and tiresome job is over.

We sympathize very deeply with our friend, Mr. T. T. Seeders, in the loss of his little daughter, Florence, a bright, promising child of 10 years. She had been sick for but a few days.

Sunday's issue of the Charlotte Observer was a large eight-page paper, filled with advertisements and good reading matter. It was the largest newspaper published in the State on that day.

A colored boy broke into Mr. A. F. Lucas' store, at Lloyd's Landing, on Thursday last, and on Saturday he was caught. He took $2.50 in money from the drawer, a few pocket knives and some snuff.

The angel of death yesterday afternoon visited the household of Mr. John R. Turrentine and took unto itself one of its most cherished members, little Eugene Hayden, not quite six years old, a fine, promising, spirited child.

We would advise all our readers in need of shirts to stop at the Wilmington Shirt Factory and get the best white shirts in the land at 75 cents. J. Elsback, Prop., 37 Market street.

See the Othello Range at Jacob's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood. Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for Winter use.

City Court.

There was a small and unimportant docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which was disposed of in the following order: A party, whose name we suppress by special request, charged with fat-driving, was required to pay a fine of $5.

James F. Williams, colored, for being asleep under a piazza on Market street, was sentenced to 10 days' work on the public streets.

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance met in regular session yesterday. Present: R. J. Jones, Esq., chairman, and Messrs. Wm. Calder, W. I. Gore, Jno. W. Hewitt and F. Maunder.

A communication was read from Mr. J. G. Oldenbittel, Chief of the Fire Department, stating that the Cape Fear F. E. Co. was in need of drop harness, and recommending that it should be purchased immediately.

The Board concurred in the recommendation.

The Board also concurred in the action of the Committee on Markets of the Board of Aldermen in renting market stalls, etc., for the current year.

The recommendation of the Chief of Fire Department, that 1,000 feet of linen hose be purchased, was concurred in.

In the matter of repairing sash, etc., in the Opera House, on motion, the Board concurred in the recommendation of the Public Buildings Committee, to have plans and specifications prepared, and advertisements to be made for separate bills for material and labor.

Two bonds of $1,000 each, redeemed and cancelled, were burned in the presence of the Board.

The following bills were audited and approved: Bills for current expenses, $5,389.88; note, $12,000; interest, $217; bonds, $2,000.

The chair stated that there would probably be matters of importance for consideration shortly, and upon motion, the Board adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met in regular session yesterday afternoon. All the members were present.

The county treasurer submitted his monthly report, showing a balance on hand to the credit of the general fund amounting to $2,026.46, and a balance of $8,413.67 to the credit of the educational fund.

The register's report showed fees received from marriage licenses amounting to $9.98 and paid over to the treasurer.

The chairman reported delinquent taxes collected amounting to $47.94, and exhibited the treasurer's receipt for the same.

In the matter of taxes of Benj. M. Campbell, for 1881 and 1882, H. A. Bagg, referee, reported that he found upon examination that the sheriff sold the property for delinquent taxes for the years mentioned, the county becoming the purchaser; and upon further examination, found that Anthony Campbell listed and paid the taxes for the said years, as evidenced by receipts of the sheriff.

It was therefore ordered by the Board that the tax deeds held by the county be delivered to the said Anthony Campbell or his representatives, and that said deeds be declared null and void, and be cancelled by the register.

Poll taxes were ordered remitted against certain parties who were shown to be non-residents.

Licenses to retail spirituous liquors were granted to A. H. Holmes, Fred B. Rice, Wash Moseley and J. L. Croom.

A communication was received from the President of the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina R. R. Co., and upon motion it was resolved to meet a committee from the company on Monday next at 2:30 p. m. The railroad company ask the release to them of the old plank road, lying in the county and extending from Seventeenth street to the line of Pender county, and request a conference with the Board on the subject.

Mr. A. D. Black, of Kenansville, was on our streets to-day.

Thanks to our good friend, Mr. Frank W. King, of the corner store in Front street market, for a bucket of fine New River oysters, received to-day. Hereafter Mr. King will have them regularly on hand.

Mr. A. Shrier has occupied the store on the ground floor of this building, vacated yesterday by Mr. I. Shrier, and has removed there his stock of hats, trunks &c., to which will be added in a few days a full line of clothing.

Mr. J. Shrier has completed the removal of his stock of clothing and furnishing goods to the store on Front street, next North of Capt. McIntire's, which will be his business abode until he can get into his new quarters in the Purcell House building.

The well-known and popular barbers and hairdressers, Brown & Pearson, have removed from No. 24 North Front street, the store they have so long occupied, to No. 110 Market street, South side, the store recently occupied by Mr. A. Shrier as a hat store, which they will have fitted up handsomely and comfortably and where they will be pleased to have their patrons call upon them.

Journalistic.

The Cape Fear Advocate, published in this city, will celebrate its first anniversary on the 25th inst., by appearing as an eight-page industrial issue, telling of the negro's progress in North Carolina. This will be the first attempt at showing the advancement of that race in this State, and will contain biographical sketches of some of the most prominent of those people, who have met with success in the struggles of this progressive age.

Railroad Matters.

The latest news regarding the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad is that the people of Newbern are trying to make arrangements with the people of Onslow county and have appointed a meeting of conference to try and see if the two systems may not be consolidated. The Commissioners of Onslow county have postponed action in order to see if the two interests can be combined with advantage to all concerned. They will hold a meeting in November, after action has been taken by the joint meeting of the committee of citizens, and will then determine what action to take in the matter.

Superior Court.

The following were the proceedings before this tribunal to-day, up to the hour of closing our report: Godfrey Hart vs. Julia M. Hart, continued for defendant. Stedman & Weil for plaintiff, J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for defendant.

Gaston C. Hawkins vs. C. Bellois. Continued, J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff, M. Bellamy and Russell & Ricard for defendant.

John D. Southerland vs. Melissa Southerland. Verdict for plaintiff and divorce granted. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff, no counsel for defendant.

Joseph Tucker et al vs. J. D. Bellamy, Jr. On trial, A. M. Waddell for plaintiffs, M. Bellamy and J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for defendant.

Col. Grafflin's Last Days.

Col. Grafflin's death was very sudden, and occurred within about two hours after he was attacked with paralysis. He had been suffering for some years past with rheumatic complaints, which were aggravated by exertions at the big fire here in February of last year. He went to Lincolnton some weeks ago, hoping for improvement. These hopes were realized and he had improved so much that he expected to be at work again to-morrow. On Friday last a lady of this city who boarded at the hotel in Lincoln with the Colonel and Mrs. Grafflin left with her daughter on the return home and Col. Grafflin walked down to the depot that morning, in pleasant humor and apparently almost entirely recovered health. He was a good man and will be greatly missed. At various stations yesterday on the C. E. R. floral tributes were made on the arrival of the train bearing the remains.

The Review Job Office is the place to get good work at moderate prices.

No Damage Done.

The alarm of fire this afternoon was caused by a slight conflagration on the roof of a shed in the rear of this office. The department turned out but there was no need for their services as a stream from the hydrant in the REVIEW office put out the flames. No one knows how it caught but it is probable that a spark from a chimney in the neighborhood fell among the dry boards.

Public Meeting.

Remember the citizen's meeting to be held at the City Hall at 8 o'clock to-morrow night for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee relative to a subscription by the city to the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad. There should be a full attendance, as the object for which the meeting is called is of the greatest importance to our people, involving, as it does, the financial, commercial and material welfare of the city. Be sure and attend.

Opera House.

Mrs. D. P. Bowers, with her company, arrived here from Goldsboro—where they played last night—at 10 o'clock this forenoon. The company will appear at the Opera House here to-night in the exciting and exacting tragedy of Queen Elizabeth, with Mrs. Bowers in the title role. In speaking of her rendition of this part, the New York Herald—which is undoubted authority—said:

"Mrs. Bowers took a step last night which few actresses of the modern school would dare attempt. It was from the charming womanliness of Mary Stuart of the previous evening to the virility and harsh imperiousness and the sterner traits of Queen Elizabeth. The transition was a sudden one, but was a most successful one, showing the star to be the mistress of her art. Her personification of the kindly queen is one of the few artistic performances of our day and time."

Indications.

For North Carolina, fair weather, cooler and fresh Northwesterly winds.

The Zeb Vance Stove, like its namesake, is welcome in all North Carolina homes. It is to be found at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

DIED.

SEEDERS—Oct. 3, 1887, at 7:45 in the evening, FLORENCE S., daughter of T. T. and Hattie Seeders, aged 10 years, 2 months and 18 days.

"I take these little lambs," said He, "And lay them in my breast. Protection they shall find in me. In me be ever blest."

His words the parents hear. And speak with joys divine. O! Saviour, all we have and are. Shall be forever thine.
