Dengue is an affliction from which it is said that we might all pray to be delivered. The word is of Spanish derivation and is pronounced dengay. It is a virulent form of rheumatic fever and grips every joint as in a vise of steel. It first appeared in the West Indies in 1827 and 1828. It is not necessarily fatal.

It is appointed unto all men to die once and Hugh L. Bond will prove no exception to the rule. We hope to live to see that happy day, and to claim the proud privilege of suggesting that the date be made a holiday, a "Day of Deliverance" among all posterities forevermore in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

There is a conflict of opinion as to whether the disease now in Tampa is yellow fever or dengue. The postal authorities seem to think that it is the latter and have instructed mail agents to run into Tampa with their mails. This is, we think, a foolish, unwise and hazardous experiment, and is not justified by the opinions which have been expressed by the medical men in Tampa, who do not seem sure that the disease is not really yellow fever.

Mrs. Eliza S. Nicholson, of the New Orleans Picayune, is the only woman in the country, the only woman living, who is at once the controlling proprietor and the editor-in-chief of a big city daily, and she not only finds her office chair none too large to fill and none too thorny to sit upon, but during her administration of the paper's affairs has seen a debt of $85,000 lifted and its prosperity every year increased.

Miss Middle Morgan, the live stock reporter, has been building a house on Staten Island for the last five years, and it is still unfinished. Nothing could be more eccentric than this brick structure. There are iron bars at all the first story windows, and the largest room in the house is given over to a plunge bath. If the place is ever finished Miss Morgan expects to live there with her sister Jane, who is an artist.

Hon. Rufus S. Ayres, Virginia's Attorney General, and Col. John S. Scott, State Attorney, are now languishing in jail at Richmond, where they were sent recently by that caricature of justice and decency, Hugh Bond, ycleped a judge of the U. S. Circuit Court. The languishment consists in having every comfort that money can procure for them, in entertaining their friends and in living on the best that the splendid Richmond markets can furnish. How judge bond must gnash his teeth in impotent rage at the failure of his scheme to punish these high minded gentlemen for simply doing their duty.

DICK & MEARES—Gentlemen's Furnishings House

The first ten days in October have passed without a drop of rain.

Ger, barque Trabant, Scheel, sailed from Gravesend for this port Oct. 8th.

Br. steamship Hay Green, Blacklaw, hence, arrived at Liverpool Oct. 9th.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

The Zeb Vance Stove, like its namesake, is welcome in all North Carolina homes. It is to be found at Jacob's Hd. Depot.

A few scuppernong grapes yet jinger in the market and occasionally we still see a belated pock-marked watermelon.

There are now in this port seven British steamships, aggregating 7,407 tons, which will load with cotton for European ports.

North Carolina hams are wanted here. There are none in market. A few hundred pounds would bring a good figure.

The oysters we have had this season are of a good size and well-flavored but they are not yet fat. A nice hard rain would do them a world of good.

Street Sprinkling.

The streets from the river to Third street and from Dock to Princess were thoroughly sprinkled this morning, whereby the dust was laid and a feeling of comfort was created for the day. Until we have a good rainfall, this matter should be attended to every morning, so as to prevent the clouds of dust that will otherwise arise with every passing vehicle.

Colored Visitors.

Quite a large number of colored men and women arrived here on this morning's train to attend the annual meeting of Grand Lodge No. 2, Independent Order Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, which convened at the City Hall at 10 o'clock this morning. The Lodge will remain in session until the 13th inst., and it is expected that others will come on the next trains to take part in the deliberations. Those who arrived here to-day are delegates from different Lodges, in several parts of the State.

Personal.

Mr. J. H. Clark, of Clarkton, as on our streets to-day.

Mr. R. E. Vick, of Council's Station, on the Carolina Central Railroad, is in the city to-day.

The venerable Rev. S. Rothrock and wife are expected to arrive here this evening. They will be the guests of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau.

Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, D. C., is expected to arrive here on the local freight train from the North, which is due at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

There is a grand jubilee meeting of the Salvation Army this week in Newbern. Capt. Hunter and Lieut. Dorr, of the branch in this city, are in attendance.

Mr. James G. Hall, son of Col. E. D. Hall, left last night to accept a position with the Rocky Creek Lumber Company, whose mills are at Chapman, Alabama, near Birmingham.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Arthur Kirkland, formerly of Wilmington, but lately with the Rocky Creek Lumber Company, near Birmingham, Ala., has been appointed Secretary and Treasurer as well as Superintendent of the same corporation.

Celestial Glories in October.

October is honored with the advent of two full moons—the one occurring on the 1st at 10h. 47m. p. m.; the other occurring on the 31st at 10h. 31m. p. m. The moon is in conjunction with Saturn on the 11th at 10h. 22m. a. m., being 1° 20' south. She is at her nearest point to Mars on the 13th at 3h. 22m. a. m., being 19° south. This conjunction will be visible if the sky be clear, and the spectacle will be worth seeing, for the waning moon will hang south of the faint ruddy planet, and his near neighborhood. An opera glass will aid in the observation of the phenomenon.

Venus is morning star and wins the first place on the October annals for the transcendent loveliness of her appearance as, rising earlier each morning and increasing in lustre, she outshines every star in the firmament and holds her place in the heavens long after every twinkling star has disappeared, and even after the all-conquering sun has made his appearance above the eastern horizon. On the 28th she reaches her period of greatest brilliancy as morning star. This event occurs about 36 days after her inferior conjunction. One fourth of her enlightening disc is then turned toward the earth and she is about 40 deg. west of the sun. These two conditions explain the culmination of her power. Before this period, though, the disc is larger, the part illumined is smaller, and, after this period, the disc is smaller, though the part illumined is larger. Venus will be clothed in her most glorious apparel on and about the 28th, rising at that time more than three hours before the sun. The queen of the stars will be fair to see on the crisp October mornings as she holds her court, surrounded by hosts of lesser lights, paying homage to the fairest in the train. Those who take the trouble to be present at the exhibition will not regret the effort it requires.

Largest assortment of pocket knives in the city at Jacob's Hd. Depot.

C. F. & Y. V. R. R.

There was an informal meeting of the commissioners appointed by the Board of Aldermen to confer with the directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley rail road, at the office of Messrs. J. H. Chadbourn & Co., yesterday afternoon. The meeting was simply a conference and interchange of opinion among the several members of the committee and with the members of the Board of Audit and Finance who were present, without taking any definite action in the matter.

An Unusual Sight.

There were three British steamships at the dock of the Champion Compress this morning, all being laden with cotton for European ports. It was a sight such as has never been seen in Wilmington before, as the harbor has never before had the conveniences for allowing more than two vessels to load at the same time at the same dock. It has been a formidable undertaking to make the dockage at the compress what it is, but now that it is completed its benefits become at once apparent.

City Court.

A sailor, if he ever goes on a spree, is bound to get drunk on the first day of his arrival in port, or as soon thereafter as possible, and again upon the day of sailing. This, so far as the first count in the indictment is concerned, was the case with — Barnes, a sailor on board one of the steamships that arrived here yesterday, who was arrested and locked up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct last night. When brought before the Mayor this morning to answer to the charge he was not in a strictly sober condition, but he was full of talk—a regular sea-breeze—and seemed entirely willing and rather anxious to fight the entire police force. He was fined $20 with the alternative of the city prison for 30 days, which so roused his ire that it became necessary to take him below, in order that the others cases might be heard.

Alice Jennings, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $20, which was paid and she went her way rejoicing.

Charles Debin, colored, charged with disorderly conduct near Front street market last night, was required to pay a fine of $20.

Bristol Hurs, a witness duly summoned to appear in the case of Debin, failed to answer to his name and judgment nisi, with a fine of $10, was entered against him in consequence.

The Onslow Railroad.

The Board of Commissioners for this county met in adjourned session yesterday to consider the request of the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad Company for the release to the company of the old plank road extending from Seventeenth street to the Pender county line. A committee of the board of directors of the railroad company was present. The matter was discussed for some time and finally, on motion of Commissioner B. G. Worth, the consideration of the proposed release of the road was deferred until the company shall have definitely determined upon the line of the railroad.

At the meeting held in Grant township, Pender county, last Saturday, resolutions were adopted endorsing a subscription of $10,000 by the township, to aid in the extension of the road. The question of "subscription" will be submitted to the voters of the township at an election to be held to day. Up to 12 o'clock on Saturday there had been 219 votes registered, out of a voting strength of 365.

Those who contemplate taking a trip to Atlanta with Mr. Heinsberger's excursion party should see to it, at once. It is necessary to know who are going and that, too, before the last day. Only a few days are now left in which to make up the party. The list is in Mr. Heinsberger's hands and he will be pleased to furnish all information desired.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye, as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,889 bales.

Thanksgiving Day this year will fall on the 24th, which is the date of the last Thursday in November.

We would advise all our readers in need of shirts to stop at the Wilmington Shirt Factory and get the best white shirts in the land at 75 cents. J. Elsbach, Prop., 27 Market street.

A cold wave was reported in the New York Herald as being in the Northwest on Sunday last and moving Southeast, but if so, it is yet apparently a long distance off from this latitude.

Dan. barque Rialto, Jorgensen, cleared to-day for Hull, Eng., with 1,650 casks spirits turpentine and 1,280 barrels rosin, valued at $36,247, shipped by Messrs. Williams & Murchison.

New Building.

Laborers have to-day begun breaking ground for the foundation for a warehouse for the storage of lime for Messrs. Worth & Worth. It will be of brick, one story high and about 50 deep by 20 feet wide. It will be on the vacant lot on Nutt street, just North of their storehouse.

Br. steamship Allie, Clausen, from Philadelphia, arrived in below this afternoon. She is consigned to Mr. C. P. Mebane and will load cotton for Liverpool or some other European port.

Indications.

For North Carolina, fair weather, followed by light rains and cooler light to fresh Northerly winds.

Conference at Goldsboro.

Hon. D. L. Russell, President of the W. O. & E. C. R. R., left here this morning for Goldsboro, where he has gone to attend a conference with parties from Newbern relative to the construction of the road through Onslow county. The Newbern Journal says of the conference: The chairman of the board of county commissioners has, in response to a request of a number of citizens, appointed a committee to meet and confer with representatives of the W. O. & E. C. Railroad Co., the citizens of Wilmington and Onslow county, on the question of building a railroad from one city to the other through Onslow county. The committee is composed of the following gentlemen: Wm. G. Brinson, George Allen, W. M. Watson, Thos. H. Mallison, H. S. Nunn, Maj. John Hughes, Clement Manly, Enoch Wadsworth, Dr. Geo. Slower and William Cleve. A committee has also been appointed on the part of the Cotton Exchange for the same purpose.

A Venerable Divine.

Rev. Samuel Rothrock, the Nestor of the Evangelical Lutheran ministry of this State, arrived here this morning, and is the guest of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau. The reverend and venerable gentleman resides near Gold Hill, Rowan county, where he has lived continuously since 1836, and where he is actively engaged in the Christian ministry. He was born in Davidson county, in this State, in 1809, and is consequently now in the 78th year of his age. He has been twice married and his golden wedding with the second wife was celebrated a few weeks since.

In March, 1829, with only a half a dollar in his pocket, he went, on foot, to Gettysburg, Pa., a distance of about 500 miles, to educate himself at the Lutheran College in that town, which was then the only institution of learning of that denomination in the country.

Notwithstanding his great age, Mr. Rothrock has an active mind, a good memory and is blessed with unusually good health for one of his years. He will remain in the city until next week, and will preach in St. Paul's Lutheran Church next Thursday night.
