Judge Thomas C. Manning, U. S.
Minister to Mexico, died in New York, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, yesterday morning.

Another terrible railroad disaster comes to us from Illinois. A passenger train was telescoped by a heavy freight train and the horror took up some thirty killed and half as many more badly injured.

Those who think that the Carlisle-Thoebe contest is dying out for want of support from Thoebe and his friends are much mistaken.
Carlisle's opponent will make a bitter fight in Congress for the seat from the Sixth Kentucky district.
Thoebe's representatives are in Washington arranging for the contest.

Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier Journal, has written a letter declining to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the office of United States Senator. He says that he is a working journalist, and happy in his associates, and proud of his calling. He says: "The examples of two eminent members of our profession, whose contentions in the field of practical politics embittered their lives and dwarfed their usefulness, and tarnished their fame, and the tragic fate which each in his death encountered, made an early and deep impression upon my mind."

There was an exciting political contest the other day at Lake City, Fla. between the liquor men and the temperance folks, and the former were in a fair way to carry the election, owing largely to the work of a popular young citizen. Four temperance girls determined to capture him, and they did it. One of them asked him to step behind the Courthouse, that she might tell him a secret, and the others followed with four chairs. In these the conspirators seated themselves so closely around the young man that he could not get out without using force, and, being too gallant to do this, he was kept a prisoner until the polls closed, and the temperance people had won the day.

The president of the Tennessee State Temperance Alliance has called a convention of all the temperance organizations of that State, to meet in Nashville on November 10, to map out plans for future temperance work. The large vote in favor of prohibition at the recent election has encouraged the temperance people very much, and they are now planning a more active campaign than ever before. The Prohibitionists are confident that they will elect a majority of the members of the next Legislature. Just now they are working in favor of local option, but they are even yet determined to try another State election on a prohibition amendment.

North Carolina seems to be richer in metals than any other part of the world. I reckon Noah must have had a cabinet and accidentally spilt it out right there.

Such were the remarks made a few days since by Prof. Edison, the electrical wizard, to a newspaper correspondent who called upon him at his laboratory. The interrogatories propounded to the professor were exhaustive and covered nearly every department of science and art, and the above expression was thrown out incidentally in speaking of the vast mineral resources of the country.

This is what the scientific men of North Carolina have known for many years, but it has been only until recently that the scientists of other places have known, or have been willing to acknowledge, the fact. Information regarding the rich mineral resources of the State has been treated distrustfully and doubtfully until a very recent date, but the fact has now become so apparent and so well known that it can no longer be disputed, and as a consequence the "Old North State" is receiving an unusual share of attention. Capitalists are looking through the State for some locality in which to invest their money and they are astonished at the unlimited wealth which only waits development.

The Zeb Vance Stove, like its namesake, is welcome in all North Carolina homes. It is to be found at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

The wind blew a gale at Southport last night.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,095 bales.

Schr. Jennie Hall, sailed from Perth Amboy for this port Oct. 8th.

Schr. Lamoine, Parker, sailed from Portland for this port Oct.
10th.

Ger. barque Trabant, Schul, from London for this port, passed Deal Oct. 10th.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Steamship Benefactor, Chichester, from New York, arrived at her wharf in this city this morning with a full cargo.

Mr. G. H. Smith, of this city, will be Chief Marshal of the Eastern Carolina Fair at Goldsboro, Oct.
26th to 28th.

Spirits turpentine advanced from 31 cents to 31½ cents a gallon this afternoon, and the day's receipts were taken at the advance.

There is a large amount of cotton which changes hands every day in our market, but the sales are effected at such a late hour that we are unable to report them.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of the grain and feed store of Mr. John S. McEachern, on Market, between Second and Third streets. Orders received by telephone No. 92.

We would advise all our readers in need of shirts to stop at the Wilmington Shirt Factory and get the best white shirts in the land at 75 cents. J. Elsbach, Prop., 27 Market street.

There is one word in the telegraphic news to-day which both of our morning cotemporaries have split upon and that is "palatial." One has it "prelatial" and the other "palatial."

Thanks to Mr. Nathan O'Berry, President, and Mr. J. B. Whitaker, Secretary, for an invitation to the Eastern Carolina Fair which opens at Goldsboro on the 26th inst., continuing until the 28th.

To-morrow will be opening day at Mrs. Jewett's millinery and fancy goods store, corner North Front and Princess streets. Everybody is invited and the ladies especially are expected to be on hand in large numbers.

The residence of the late Levi A.
Hart, on Third street, between Dock and Orange, has been purchased by Mr. James Sprunt, for $7,500. The house is a large and roomy one and the location is one of the most desirable in the city.

Mayor Fowler, in an advertisement in this issue, calls attention to the city ordinance forbidding the smoking of pipes, cigars or cigarettes within one hundred feet of the buildings of either of the cotton compresses within the city limits.

Indications.
For North Carolina, slightly warmer and fair weather and light to fresh Northwesterly winds.

The Sociable.
The Sociable given by the ladies of Fifth Street M. E. Church, at Mr.
C. M. Harriss' last night, for the benefit of the organ fund, was quite a success, both socially and financially. There was a large attendance and the net receipts amounted to about $35, which made quite a satisfactory result.

Colder Weather.
There was a most decided change in the weather last night, and at one time, early in the night, we were threatened with a severe storm.
The wind blew a gale for awhile, but it finally subsided. In the meantime there was a decided fall in the temperature and good fires and thick clothing were comfortable this morning.

Farewell Reception.

A pleasant farewell reception was given last evening at the residence of Mr. Thos. Evans, on Third street, to Rev. W. H. Lewis, by a number of his former parishoners in St.
James' Church. Mr. Lewis leaves here to-morrow to rejoin his family at the North and will carry with him many hearty good wishes from his hosts of friends in this city.

A Railroad Stray.

An election was held yesterday in Grant township, Pender county, to see if the citizens would vote a township subscription of $10,000 to aid in the construction of the Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina Railroad.
There was a large turnout and full vote, and that the people are anxious for the road is shown by the fact that only one man out of a vote of more than 200 voted against the subscription.

Change of Officers.

Last night, at a meeting of the Directors of the Wilmington Homestead & Loan Association, Mr. W.
A. Dick resigned the position of Secretary and Treasurer and Mr. C.
C. Brown, Manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was elected to the vacancy. Mr. Dick was impelled to this step because of the increase pressure of his business.
Mr. Brown will worthily fill the office so acceptably held by his predecessor.

The October Cosmopolitan.

The October number of the Cosmopolitan is the handsomest and most interesting yet issued. It opens with a beautifully-illustrated article entitled "The Passing of the Buffalo." Another timely and profuselyillustrated article is that on "The Pigmy Kingdom of a Debauchee." The author describes the present condition of the Hawaiian Islands, the causes of the recent revolution, and the character of King Kalakaua and his subjects. The third illustrated article is the last of the series by Arnold Burgess Johnson on "Charles Sumner." That which will, perhaps, attract most attention is "The Second Wife of Napoleon I." It is based upon new materials just published in Europe, and shows that she was in every way unworthy of her husband. "The Tours of the Presidents" presents much interesting information a propos of President Cleveland's Western trip. "The First Jenny Lind Ticket," "A Buck board Trip Among the Indians," and "A Remedy for Poverty," can not fail to attract attention. "A Turncoat for Love" is a very witty story. "A Lear of New England" is good. "Mr. and Mrs. Inderwick" is an amusing post-humous story by John Esten Cooke. The poetry of the number is by Walt Whitman, Danske Dandridge, Ella Wheeler
Wilcox, and A. H. Peters.

For Charity's Sake.

Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, D. C., arrived here on the local freight train at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and registered at the Orton House. At 8 o'clock last night he delivered a lecture at Concordia Hall to a large and interested audience. His subject was "Charity," a theme fertile with ideas, and one which he discussed in an exhaustive and eloquent manner. Mr. Wolf is a fine speaker, of commanding presence, and with an expression both pleasing and attractive. He was introduced to the audience by Mr. Sol Bear, in a few chosen remarks. The object of the lecture, as stated by Mr. Wolf, was to raise the funds necessary to the erection of a Jewish Orphan Asylum at Atlanta, Ga. The asylum is to be under the control of the Jewish Order, known as B'nai B'rith, but it could not be begun until $50,000 had been subscribed. Other cities had contributed liberally to the benefaction and the speaker hoped that Wilmington would respond freely.
Contributions being in order, the net sum of $925 was subscribed by those present in a very short time.
The asylum is to be non-sectarian and its doors will be thrown open to suffering humanity. In the donations made last night all sects, creeds and classes contributed. A committee, consisting of Messrs. J.
I. Macks, A. Weill, Geo. Honnet, Isaac Bear and Wm. Goodman, was appointed to call upon our citizens to-day for donations to this really worthy benefaction.

City Court.

There was a small docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, and it was disposed of in the following order:

Mrs. B. Ruby, charged with disorderly conduct. It appeared from the testimony that the defendant was very angry last night, and when cautioned by the officer on that beat to make less noise, as she was disturbng the peace, she paid no heed to his warnings and became so loud mouthed that she was arrested. The judgment of the court was that she pay a fine of $20 or go below for 30 days.

Philander Hill, colored, disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Charles Anderson, colored, charged with fast driving, submitted and was fined $5, which he paid.

Does it Pay?

Does it pay to buy old moth-eaten and shop worn goods? How often is it the case that after wearing (so called) new clothing a short time that the purchaser finds it has not given him the satisfaction as claimed. All should know that Mr. A.
Shrier has opened a new clothing store at 114 Market street, and that his stock is composed of entirely new goods, which he intends selling at lowest possible prices, and we would say to those that are inclined to patronize him that they cannot be deceived in the clothing being old and that they will receive more than their money's worth in every instance. A call will convince you of the fact.

Personal.

Mr. Gibson James, of Maple Hill, Pender county, is in the city to-day.
W. T. Bannerman, Esq., of Burgaw, Pender county, accompanied by his wife, was in the city to-day.

Mrs. Nettie Smith, representing the Sunny South, of Atlanta, Ga., is in the city to-day working in the interest of that publication.

Mr. A. H. Williams, of Pender county, passed through the city today on his return from a visit to Rutherfordton.

Hon. A. M. Waddell returned last night from Chapel Hill, where he has been to lecture on "America Before Columbus."

Mr. Norwood Huske, formerly clerk at the Purell House in this city, but now located near Ocala, Fla., is here on a brief visit to his former friends, by whom he has been most cordially greeted during the day.

Capt. S. W. Noble, has just returned from Clinton where he has been during the session of Sampson Superior Court, canvassing in the interest of his vineyard, in which we are glad to learn he was quite successful.

A Caution.

There is yellow fever at Tampa, Fla., and Asiatic cholera at some of the hospitals of New York. Owing to the lateness of the season there is but little danger of the fever here, but the march of cholera is not retarded by the weather. The disease was brought to New York by passengers from infected ports, several of whom died on the passage, and a number of whom were sick when the vessel arrived at quarantine near New York. The sick passengers were taken at once to an island hospital, where some of them have since died. The steamer has been fumigated and allowed to go up to the city, which may be all right and safe so far as the public health is concerned, but we do not think so.
We think the health of the people of that city, and as a matter of course of the whole country, is jeopardized by the act, and we think it would be well for those who have the health of our city in charge to watch carefully that the disease does not reach here.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye, as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

See the Othello Range at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood.
Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for winter use.

Good Samaritans.

Grand Lodge No. 2, Independent Order Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, met at the City Hall at half-past 9 o'clock this forenoon and opened the proceedings with religious exercises. The morning session was devoted to the consideration of matters pertaining to the welfare of the order, much of which was private and all of which was of importance to the social and moral advancement of the colored race.

knives in the city at Jacobi's Hdw.
Depot.
