The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,805 bales.
 Seventeen days in October and not enough rain yet to wet a whistle.
 There was a slight fall of rain here yesterday morning, not enough, however, to wet the ground.

All the river steamers are now running off from schedule time, on account of the low stage of the water.

One male adult was baptized at the conclusion of the regular service at the First Baptist Church last night.

Wayne County Agricultural Fair will be held at Goldsboro next week, and quite a number of our citizens will attend.

The weather has grown warm and sultry again, but still there is no rain and the dust is almost suffocating with every puff of air.

The telegraph line between this city and Southport has been repaired, and we are once more in communication with the seacoast.

Steamboatmen report that there is about two feet of water on the shoals in the Cape Fear. This makes navigation very difficult for loaded steamers.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard will preach at the Baptist Chapel, corner of Fifth and Wooster streets, to-morrow (Tuesday) night, and every succeeding Tuesday night during the Winter.

The fare to Raleigh on the Carolina Central Railroad during this (Fair) week has been fixed at $3.30 for the round trip. This also includes admission to the Fair, which opens to-morrow.

Building is still going on, all over town, and the construction of the new bridge on Fourth street, in Brooklyn, seems to have attracted trade to its neighborhood. The Loan Associations have probably been of much use to many people wanting homes.

The work of laying the abutment of the Fourth Street bridge will probably be concluded in a few days by the Railroad authorities, and the bridge builders are expected here daily to put up the superstructure. There is a strong probability that they will arrive here on to-night's train.

Our young friend, Mr. W. L. Jacobs, on Saturday night last received a certificate for five years of faithful service with the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1. His record as a fireman has been without a blot, and he is fairly entitled to the certificate which is an emblem of honor.

The Presbyterian Synod will convene at Fayetteville on the 25th inst. Revs. Peyton H. Hoge, of the First Presbyterian Church, and J. W. Primrose, of the Second Presbyterian Church, will attend. The delegates are Mr. John McLaurin of the former, and Mr. Robert McDougall, of the latter, church.

The sale of 150 bales of damaged cotton, which is to be made to-morrow by Messrs Cronly & Morriss, Auctioneers, on the West side of the river, will undoubtedly draw a large number of the dealers in that staple to the sale. The cotton is damaged—partly by fire and partly by fresh water.

The State Fair at Raleigh will open to-morrow morning and continue during the week. Quite a number from this city will attend, some of whom will leave on to-night's train. Mr. C. B. Southerland has already left with a fine horse for exhibition, and with a possibility that he (the horse) may be entered for the races.

Knights of Honor.
 Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance is desired.

Indications.
 For North Carolina, warmer, fair weather and light to fresh South-easterly winds.

Pleasure Guaranteed.
 Remember the entertainment next Friday night at the residence of Col. Roger Moore, gotten up by the Ladies of Grace M. E. Church, as a means of raising funds to help build their new house of worship. Aside from the noble and worthy cause for which it is gotten up, it will be an attractive entertainment, well worthy the patronage of our people. The work on the new structure is progressing favorably, and when it is completed will be a beautiful and attractive edifice.

Personal.
 We regret to learn that Rev. Dr. Yates yet continues quite sick at his residence in this city.

Mrs. John H. Pugh and daughter were passengers on the steamship Gulf Stream, which sailed to-day for New York.

Mr. C. M. Harriss, of the "News Stand," will leave on to-night's train for the Raleigh Fair, where he will probably remain several days.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard preached an eloquent sermon to the congregation of Grace M. E. Church, at the Temple of Israel, yesterday forenoon.

The Opera House.
 The appearance of Andre's Alpine Choir at the Opera House to-morrow night will undoubtedly cause a large throng to assemble to listen to their music. While the choir have had a very successful tour in Europe, their efforts in this country thus far have won much praise wherever they have been heard. The Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin, of a recent date, in speaking of them, says:
 "The Alpine Chorus, like the Hungarian and Mexican bands and the Spanish Students, is one of the most modern musical novelties which being introduced to American audiences by enterprising managers, set the critics moralizing upon the finish, and indefatigable industry of foreign musical interpretations, as contrasted with native execution, where so much is sacrificed for superficial brilliancy. A salient feature of their work is the really wonderful zither music,—a revelation of the capabilities of that simple instrument which under the skillful manipulations of Herren Pitzinger and Haupt expresses every emotion. The introduction of the quaint and pleasing mandolin was also an appreciative innovation."

Is It Bingham?
 Walter Bingham, or some one who has been taken for him, has been heard from again, as the following from the Asheville Citizen will testify:
 "We learn from a gentleman who reached the city yesterday direct from Yancey that some excitement prevails there over a deaf mute who was seen a few days ago, and who, from all descriptions given, is thought to be Walter Bingham. A few days ago two citizens, while out in the woods hunting, suddenly walked upon a man—a stranger—sitting down on a log, in the wildest section of the country. Upon approaching him he jumped up and showed some excitement, and also that he was deaf mute. They knew nothing about Walter Bingham, but his conduct was strange that they arrested him and started to the house of Mr. Hensley, not very far off. While en route he started to leave them, but a quick movement with one of the guns suggested the propriety of his accompanying them. Upon reaching Mr. Hensley's, after some examination, upon advice of Mr. H. the mute was allowed to depart. He walked off briskly up the road. Soon thereafter, Esq. Griffin came along, and being told the affair, replied, 'Why, there is $600 reward offered for that man—it must be Walter Bingham.' The party at once went in pursuit, and followed him some distance, but finally saw where he had again taken to the woods, and he was lost. Since then he appeared in the Pensacola section, and it is said to have committed a rape upon a young white woman, but succeeded in again making his escape, and has not since been heard of. From the description given to several who knew Walter Bingham they have no doubt it is he. He wrote rapidly in conversing, and intelligently, and showed that he has had much exposure, and had evidently been "out in the cold" a great deal. He was heavily armed. The man told the parties who saw him that he was lately from Haywood, where he lived. The people are excited, and are on the lookout for the man, whoever he may be."

Compare.
 If you will compare the clothing that S. H. Fishplate sells with that sold by other clothiers in this city, you will readily see that his is far superior in style, fit, finish and quality. You will find his prices remarkably low. He cannot be undersold. His sales thus far this year have been much larger than he anticipated. The people all know that he keeps the largest, the best and most stylish stock of clothing to be found in the State, and the prices of the class of clothing he sells are so low as to absolutely demolish competition.

Stock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
 Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eyes in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.
