The latest thing in charities in New York is a bureau for furnishing "free legal advice to the poor."

A Wisconsin Judge, in order to accommodate two lawyers who desired to return home as speedily as possible, allowed them to argue their case on a train.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor pays her child cook $7,000 per annum, and then has to content herself with eating the plainest kind of fare.

Henry A. Robinson, a famous dealer in sporting goods, says that Mexico buys more pistols than all the United States put together.

It is computed that the death rate of the world is 67 a minute, and the birth rate 70 a minute, and this seemingly light percentage of gain is sufficient to give a net increase of population each year of almost 1,300,000 souls.

A relic of the ancient time was revived in Virginia last week, when counsel for a man about to be tried for murder asked that the indictment be quashed because the foreman of the grand jury that returned it was the owner of a grist mill.

At the Terre Haute Polytechnic the other day, experiments were made to ascertain just what a snail's pace is. Half a dozen of these slow-groers were permitted to crawl between two points ten feet apart, and the average pace was ascertained.

New Jersey appears to be badly off for educational facilities. Thirty-eight thousand children, between 7 and 12 years of age, do not attend school, chiefly for want of school accommodations, and nearly 35,000 attend less than twenty weeks in the year.

Things seem to be roughly mixed in Brooklyn in regard to registration. A serious blunder has been made and there is no knowing just yet how it can be rectified.

The Brooklyn (N. Y.) Daily Eagle, of this afternoon, foots up the total registration of that city at over 120,000. But it now seems that a very serious error has been made and there is much excitement.

For North Carolina, cooler and fair weather and light to fresh Northwesterly winds.

No Raleigh News and Observer received here this morning.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,767 bales.

Crude turpentine advanced ten cents per barrel to-day for virgin and yellow dip.

The weather has become settled again, and we are now having good clear sunshine, with bracing breezes.

The Fayetteville Observer says: "The railroad connection with Wilmington we regard as an assured fact."

Thanks to our friends of the Chadbourne Times, Wadesboro Messenger and Wilson Advance for their pleasant and kindly words.

Nor. barque Waldemar, Knudsen, cleared to-day for Hamburg with 300 casks spirits turpentine and 3,804 barrels rosin, valued at $8,856, shipped by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co.

Nearly all our citizens who attended the State Fair at Raleigh, have returned, and they are unanimous in saying that they had a muddy, rainy, and disagreeable time generally.

At a special meeting of the Atlantic Coast Line Athletic Club, held yesterday for the purpose of electing a lieutenant and secretary, Mr. W. G. Pulliam was elected to the former and Mr. S. S. Satchwell, Jr., to the latter office.

The next troupe now booked for the Opera House here is the Jessica Thomas Comedy Company, who will appear two nights, commencing on the 31st inst. It is possible that there may be attractions before that time, but there are no others now booked.

According to a correspondent who signs himself "Tar Rat" (does that mean wharf rat?) "palindromes" are common with some of our readers. He says that he can grind them out to order and sends us this specimen: "Able was I ere I saw Elba," which is very good.

It seems that we were mistaken when we said that the Atlantic hose had the first stream of water on the burning steamer yesterday morning. It was first at the scene, as we now understand the matter, but the steamer Adrian was the first to play a stream of water upon the fire.

For North Carolina, cooler and fair weather and light to fresh Northwesterly winds.

The observer at the Signal Office, here, at 10 o'clock this forenoon, received the following dispatch from Washington, D. C.:

Signals down for Wilmington and Wilmington section. Also down at Morehead City.

So the threatened storm has passed without any serious injury to this section, and we may now expect some good autumn weather.

Remember the oyster supper, the excellent refreshments, the sweet music, the pleasant entertainment and the lovely ladies at the residence of Col. Roger Moore to-night. All these good and pleasant features will be there, and all for the benefit of Grace M. E. Church. The price of admission has been fixed at the nominal sum of ten cents, which is within the reach of all. Be sure to go.

It would be of interest to the Careful Buyer to visit A. Shrier's new store at 114 Market street, before purchasing Fall clothing, and see his vast assortment in the latest styles and extraordinary low prices. The public well knows that Mr. Shrier is not a green hand in the business, but an old and thorough clothier, and one that understands the buying of substantial goods, such as cannot fail to give perfect satisfaction. Give him a trial and you will see he does as he represents.

Best $3 shoe for gents in the city at French & Sons.

Fire in the Country.

The storehouse at Mt. Holly, occupied by Mr. M. Sherman, was totally destroyed by fire last night, together with nearly all its contents. It is thought that the store and goods were insured, but our information is meagre on that point. The building was owned by Dr. W. J. Gilbert, of Fremont, N. C.

A Thoughtful Act.

On account of the miserable weather which has prevailed this week for the State Fair, the limit of tickets to Raleigh has been extended through the courtesy of the Association of Railroads who have given extension rates until the 24th inst., inclusive. This is a thoughtful consideration on the part of the railroad authorities and one that will be appreciated by the holders of tickets who have not yet returned.

Military Inspection.

The regular monthly inspection of the Wilmington Light Infantry was held at their armory last night, conducted by Capt. John H. Daniel. There were about 40 members, rank and file, in attendance, and they presented, as usual, a good military appearance. By a good rule of the company, every member who is absent from a regular meeting is fined one dollar, unless, he can give a good and sufficient excuse for such absence; which reminds us that excuses will now be in order with quite a number who were absentees last night.

A Prolific Tree.

Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, who is known as one of the most successful fruit growers in this section of the State, sends us some of the fourth blooms this year from an apple tree in his orchard, known as the Queen apple. This tree bore a crop of fine, matured fruit, early in the Spring. It bloomed a second time and the apples grew as large as a man's thumb, when the early frost in September made them drop off; it bloomed a third time, and one of the apples of this fruitage, as large as a marble, is now before us, and the tree, at this time, is in flower for the fourth time this year. With a warm and open Winter it is likely that the tree would bloom and bear continually. Mr. Collins calls on the fruit growers of North Carolina to know if any of them can beat this record.

City Court.

There was a large docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, as the following will show:

J. D. Tucker, colored, disorderly conduct, submitted and was fined $10 for the offense.

Joe Gause, colored, disorderly conduct, was found guilty and was required to pay a fine of $20.

Reuben McDaniel, colored, for disorderly conduct, was required to pay a fine of $20 or be imprisoned 30 days.

Joe Gause, colored, for disorderly conduct (second offense on the same night), was fined $10, from which the defendant appealed. The appeal was granted and a justified bond in the sum of $50 was required.

Tate Croon, charged with disorderly conduct and resisting an officer, submitted. In the judgment of the Court it was an aggravated case and the defendant was fined $20 and costs, which would be about $12 additional.

See the Othello Range at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood. Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for Winter use.

The Zeb Vance Stove, like its namesake, is welcome in all North Carolina homes. It is to be found at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

Orange Blossoms.

Mr. Joseph A. Holmes, Professor of Geology at the State University, and Miss Jennie Sprunt, of this city, were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian Church last evening, Rev. Alexander Sprunt, of Henderson, officiating. Quite a large number of the relatives and friends of the couple were in attendance to witness the impressive ceremony and to offer congratulations and wishes for a long and prosperous life. Prof. E. Van Laer presided at the organ, and at ten minutes past six o'clock, struck up a wedding march of his own composition, as the bridal party entered the church. The procession moved up the aisle, preceded by four flower girls, followed by Prof. Manning, of Cape Fear Academy, and Miss Bessie Willard, Mr. Will Cummings and Miss Hannah Allen, of Newbern, with the bride and groom bringing up the rear. The marriage ceremony being performed the procession left the church, followed by the rich notes of the organ, and by the heartiest wishes of a host of friends that their lives might prove long, prosperous and happy.

Century's War Books—Battles and Leaders of the Civil War.

The first two parts of this valuable work consists almost entirely of matter never before printed. The war series in the magazine begins with Gen. Beauregard's paper on "Bull Run," but the book describes the many interesting events preceding this first great battle, including "With Stemmer in Pensacola Harbor" by Col. J. H. Gilman; "From Moultrie to Sumter," by Gen. Doubleday; "Inside Sumter in '61," by Capt. Jas. Chester; "Notes on the Surrender of Sumter," by Col. A. R. Chisholm; "War Preparations in the North" and "McClellan in West Virginia," by Jacob D. Cox; "The Last Step in the War," by Gen. Stephen D. Lee, C. S. A., etc., etc. The table of "Preliminary Events," in part I is one of the most interesting and valuable records ever printed. Specimens of these valuable papers can be seen at No. 24 South Second st. in this city. W. F. Muse, 624 F. st., N. W., Washington, D. C., General Agent for North Carolina.

Personal.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard returned from Raleigh on last night's train. We are glad to know that that estimable gentleman, Mr. Alfred Martin, who was prostrated nearly two weeks ago with a stroke of paralysis, is now better, and we hope soon to hear of his complete recovery.

Mr. W. T. Bannerman and wife, of Pender county, who have been to the Atlanta Exposition, returned to the city this morning and left for home this afternoon. We were pleased to receive a call from our friend this forenoon.

We are pleased to learn, as we do from a private letter received here, that Miss Fanny Hardin, daughter of Mr. Thos. H. Hardin, formerly of this city, is now happily recovered, both in body and mind, from a severe illness of more than two months, caused by a terrible attack of typhoid fever. Miss Fanny, during her severe sickness, was at the residence of relatives in Morganton and her father and mother were both with her.
