A terrible railroad disaster occurred on the Charlotte & Atlanta Air Line Thursday morning. The latest report is as follows:

A freight train from Spartanburg and a passenger train from Atlanta collided at Greer's, twelve miles east of Greenville, yesterday. Both engines were killed, and the total killed and wounded is variously estimated at from three to ten. The Morgan Rifles, of Spartanburg, were on the passenger train returning from Atlanta. The collision occurred three miles west of Greer's, and was caused by the freight train not side-tracking at Greer's to let the passenger train pass. The passenger train consisted of nine coaches and passed Greenville four hours late. Both engines were wrecked, also the postal, baggage and express cars of the passenger train, and the first three cars of the freight. Engineer Harris and Conductor Beville, of the freight train, disappeared. A negro saw them running through the woods.

The killed are Mrs. Hamp, McDonnell, of Asheville, N. C., and Robert Ward, passenger train engineer. The injured are, J. B. Erwin, of Asheville, N. C., leg broken and other foot badly mashed; Ed. Hanett, fireman of the passenger train, arm amputated and badly scalded—expected to die; J. L. Webster, Columbus, Ga., train man, right arm amputated and otherwise seriously injured; James Kinyon, Greenville, S. C., S. M. Dykman and W. R. Wilson, Atlanta, Ga., painfully bruised; Misses Mary and Mamie Erwin and Willie Erwin, of Asheville, N. C., bruised; and Philip Block, negro brakeman of the freight train, concussion of the brain—very serious.

Ground was broken yesterday at Burgaw for Pender county jail and the work of laying the brick will commence to-day. It will be pushed rapidly forward by Mr. Black, the contractor, and it is expected that Pender's prisoners will not enjoy the hospitality of the Hotel de Manning a great while longer.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ended October 22nd, 1887, foot up 10,754 bales, as against 8,864 bales for the corresponding week last year, an increase of 1,890 bales. The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 69,198 bales, as against 43,073 bales for the corresponding period last year, an increase of 26,125 bales.

City Court.

There were but two cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which were as follows:

Tate Croon, charged with selling fish that were unfit for food. His case was continued until Monday next.

Cain Hines, colored, larceny of a bale of hay from Mr. W. P. Oldham. (Guilty and bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $100, in default of which he was committed.)

Personal.

Col. W. P. Canaday was in the city yesterday.

Lieut. Gov. Stedman returned from Raleigh last night.

Messrs. W. A. Dick and O. Hicks returned to the city last night from Raleigh.

Mr. J. I. Macks, who went to Atlanta to see the President and the Exposition, has returned to the city.

We are glad to hear that Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point, who has been quite sick, is now somewhat better.

Mr. William Glisson, of the Point Caswell section, was in the city today and paid us a pleasant visit this forenoon.

Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., member of the State Democratic Executive Committee from this district, who has been in Raleigh in attendance on a meeting of that Committee, returned to the city last night.

Rev. W. Kimball, an Evangelical Lutheran minister from China Grove, N. C., arrived in our city this morning. He is the guest of Dr. F. C. Miller and will preach at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 8 p. m. to-morrow in English.

A Good Time.

The entertainment last night at the residence of Col. Roger Moore, for the benefit of Grace M. E. Church, was a most pronounced success, both in a social and financial point of view. There was a large gathering of some of our best people, including old and young, male and female, married and single. There was some excellent music furnished for the occasion. Mr. J. E. Willson, the cornetist of the South, gave some very fine exhibitions of his skill as a solo artist of the first rank. Concerted pieces were given by Messrs. J. E. Willson and W. N. Jacobs, with cornets, with Miss Mattie Murray, the accomplished organist of the church, presiding at the piano. The entire entertainment was gotten up and was under the direction and control of the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, and they deserve much praise for their efforts in conducting it to a successful issue.

We learn, unofficially, that more than $100 were realized, which ought to be considered satisfactory so far as finances are concerned.

Memorial Services.

Mr. W. H. Bobbitt, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., of North Carolina, in pursuance of an order from Grand Sir John White, of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, directed that the different Lodges in the States should hold memorial services on the 20th inst., or as near that date as possible, in memory of Past Grand Master Thomas Wilder, the founder of the Order in America, and also in memory of the dead in their Lodges during the year.

In obedience to this order Cape Fear Lodge No. 2 and Orion Lodge 67 met in joint meeting last night in Odd Fellows' Hall, and with emblems of mourning proceeded to Luther Memorial Building, where they were joined by the Daughters of Rebecca, together with the families and friends of the Order.

The exercises were opened by singing "Nearer My God to Thee," after which Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, delivered the memorial address, which was listened to with profound interest. The following are the heads which he treated: 1st—Memorials, their history and significance. 2nd—Their value and appropriateness. 3d—The aim and object of the present memorial services, under which head he spoke of the growth of the Order and of the advantages to be derived therefrom. He paid a fine tribute to P. G. M. Wilder, and an eloquent eulogy to the late Colonel W. L. Smith, P. G. M. and P. G. R. to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

At the conclusion of the address P. G. M., R. J. Jones announced the Dology, in which the entire assembly joined in singing, after which the two Lodges formed in line and marched to their Lodge room.

Linen Bosom Shirts 39c Worth 85c.

I. Shrier, next door to McIntire's dry goods store, on Front street, will sell fine linen bosom shirts for 39c worth 85 cents. Remember for one day only—Saturday, October 22nd. Please bring the right change along. On Monday, Oct. 24th, he will sell gentlemen's fine Merino undershirts and drawers at 55c, worth $1.15. Fine clothing, for men, boys and children, will be sold from 25 to 33 per cent. cheaper than any other house in Wilmington. Remember the name and place: I. Shrier, the Old Reliable Clothier, on Front st., sign of the Golden Arm.

N. B.—In no way is I. Shrier connected with any other house by the same name in this city.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye, as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

See the Othello Range at Jacob's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood. Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for Winter use.

Indications.

For North Carolina, fair weather and warmer and light to fresh Northwesterly winds, becoming variable.

It would be of interest to the Careful Buyer to visit

A. Shrier's new store at 114 Market street, before purchasing Fall clothing, and see his vast assortment in the latest styles and extraordinary low prices. The public well knows that Mr. Shrier is not a green hand in the business, but an old and thorough clothier, and one that understands the buying of substantial goods, such as cannot fail to give perfect satisfaction. Give him a trial and you will see he does as he represents.

The Rev. C. H. Spurgeon is credited with having declined an offer of $50,000 for 100 lectures to be delivered in this country.

The record for fast travelling across the Pacific Ocean was broken recently by the steamer Oceanic which made the trip from Yokohama to San Francisco in fifteen days and twenty-three hours.

The next State Capitol of Texas will be completed by next June.—The State paid for the building in land valued at three million dollars. The contractors have already made over one million dollars profit on their bargain.

Sir Charles Dilke is in Constantinople hob-nobbing with the Sultan, who, of course, is in no position to object to Sir Charles on moral grounds. The desire of the Sultan's heart is to have England get out of Egypt, to settle the Bulgarian question without getting into a row with Russia, and then to be allowed to enjoy life in his own peculiar Turkish way.

John Stillman, the conductor on the train which went through the burned bridge at Chatsworth, Ill., dreams of the wreck, and he has not had a good sleep since the accident. He has lost 43 pounds of flesh. He is on a leave of absence from the road to stay as long as he wishes, with orders to look to the company for anything he wants, no matter what it is.

The New York Star claims to have unearthed a great political sensation. It claims that the World will use its influence to secure the election of Roscoe Conkling as President at the next election, and that Joseph Pulitzer, George Washington Childs, Ex-Senator T. C. Platt and W. W. Phelps are in the scheme. It is further said that the Herald is not unfavorable to the aspirations of Lord Roscoe.

Edmund Yates writes as follows to the New York Tribune: "Mr. Archibald Forbes sailed for New York on Saturday in the Alaska, in I regret to say, a very poor state of health, which absolutely precludes his lecturing or attempting to work. Mr. Forbes will visit his wife's relations in Washington for a time, and then he and Mrs. Forbes propose to spend the winter in Bermuda."

The Indian prince Maharajah Sir Waghee, who has just sailed from New York for Europe, left orders in this country for railroad supplies and presents amounting to a quarter of a million dollars. He has ordered a duplicate of Mr. Vanderbilt's drawing-room car, the Wanderer. For a present to Queen Victoria, a magnificent riding habit, to cost three thousand dollars, is being made in New York, as are also twenty-six costly ornaments for his English titled friends.
