THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28 1887 NO. 31

twice as many sunburned sons as came to the land of freedom and peanuts in the first months of 1886.

Yesterday was a great day in Richmond, the greatest, perhaps, that has ever been known in that city. It was the occasion of the unveiling of the plaster cast of the monument to ROBERT E. LEE, and it is said that nearly 20,000 persons stood in the rain to witness the proceedings.

The New York World has not been a Democratic newspaper for many long years. It has been such in name, but not in fact. It first showed its true colors years ago when it declared for mixed schools in Richmond.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. A SHIRAZ—Local Ad WANTED—Lady Agent C W YATES—School Books HEINSBERGER—Blank Books OPERA HOUSE—John S. Clarke DICK & MEARES—25 Per Cent Off

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,137 bales. The mayor has not yet returned from the Wayne County Fair at Goldsboro.

There was a slight drop in the price of cotton in the New York market to-day. The rain of the past few days has been bad for the cattle and other stock at the Goldsboro Fair.

There was a slight advance in the price of spirits turpentine in this market to-day. The box sheet for John S. Clarke, the great comedian, will be opened on Saturday morning at Heinsberger's Live Book Store.

There has been quite a rise in the Cape Fear within the last two days, but none of the river steamers had arrived to-day up to the time of closing our report.

The rainfall from 3 p. m. yesterday until 7 a. m. to-day amounted to 1.18, which was not so great as many people imagined, as for a good part of the night it rained heavily.

500 pair heavy Canton flannel drawers, just the thing for cold weather, from 35 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop. Drawers made to order.

Those fine pigs, of which we made mention in yesterday's issue, could find no purchasers in this city, and were shipped to Richmond, Va., this morning. They were without doubt the finest lot of pigs that have been seen in this market in many a day.

It is said that the usual additional Winter train will not be put on the W. & W. R. R. this Fall. The train to Clinton will be retained and a connection made with that train by a local train from Warsaw to Weldon, which will amount to the same thing as the night train, after all, so far as the local travel is concerned.

The Rain. There was a steady down-pour of rain nearly all last night, and at about midnight it rained in torrents. We have seldom heard it rain harder than it did at about that hour.

A Word to the Public. Mr. A. Shrier's new stock of ready made clothing is now complete. It is undoubtedly the largest and best assorted one ever brought to this city, and consists of the latest styles for Fall and Winter use.

School Books and School Stationery can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Damp Pleasurs. Notwithstanding the excessively inclement weather last night, it could not prevent the presence of a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen at the festival at Concordia Hall, gotten up by the Ladies' Concordia Society. It was a happy occasion and there was nothing to regret, except regrets at the wet weather which kept so many from sharing in the enjoyment of the hour.

W. O. & E. C. B. E.—Injunction Refused. A telegram was received in this city to-day from Tarboro which states that the injunction applied for to restrain the city from issuing bonds for the subscription of $100,000 voted to the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina R. R., which was heard yesterday before Judge Phillips, in Chambers, at Tarboro, has been refused.

City Court. Mayor pro tem Fishplate had but a small docket for his consideration this morning. It was as follows:

William Johnson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty of an assault with a deadly weapon and was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed.

A lady in the Southern section of the city, for allowing her cows to run at large, was the next case. Judgment was suspended in her case on condition that she pay one-half of the amount of the regular pound fee.

The Cape Fears in Raleigh. We clip the following, relative to the presence of the Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Co. of this city, in Raleigh, from yesterday's Visitor:

Captain Robert Morrisey, of Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company, is here with seventeen men of his company, and with a handsome engine. At 11 o'clock this morning they gave an exhibition at the corner of Hargett and Fayetteville streets of their proficiency as firemen, and of the power of their engine.

The sun made an ineffectual attempt to get out from behind the clouds to-day, but it was too tired for much of an effort and after a few feeble trials it gave up the job for the day.

Jahrmarkt? The ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will have a "Jahrmarkt"—whatever that is—at City Hall, on the nights of the 7th, 8th and 9th of December next. It will be an entertaining and interesting occasion, at which there will be lots of innocent fun and merriment.

Tin Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. H. Klander celebrated their tin wedding last Monday night. There was quite a large at-tin-dance of friends who came to tin-der their congratulations, and a happier time is not of-tin witnessed. The presents were numerous and of course were all of tin.

Exports Foreign. Br. barque George Davis, Falkner, cleared to-day for Havre with 2,300 bales cotton, valued at $98,600, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son. Schr. M. C. Moseley, Torrey, cleared for Gonaives with 199,718 feet lumber, 25,000 shingles and 3 barrels naval stores, valued at $2,607.88, shipped by Mr. E. Kidder's son, making a total aggregating $101,207.88.

A Great Actor. Without a shadow of doubt Mr. John S. Clarke, who will appear at the Opera House here next Monday night, is the greatest living comedian on the English speaking stage. Although born in this country the most of his professional career has been passed in England, where he has achieved his greatest triumphs. He has, however, appeared many times in the large cities of the North where his reputation as a comedian is unassailable.

See the Othello Range at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood. Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for Winter use.
