The Acme

MANUFACTURING CO.

Manufacturers of Fertilizers, Pine Wool and Pine Wool Matting.

WILMINGTON, N.C.

THE REPUTATION OF OUR FERTILIZERS, THE ACME and GEM, is now established, and the results of three years' use in the hands of the best farmers of this and other States fully attest their value as a high grade manure.

The MATTING, made from the leaves of our native pine, has already gained a popularity for comfort and durability equal to any wool carpet, and the demand for it is daily increasing. It has virtues not found in any other fabric.

The FIBRE or WOOL is extensively used for upholstery purposes, and as a filling for mattresses is almost equal to hair, being light, elastic and proof against insects.

Certificates from reliable parties using our goods can be seen at our office, or will be mailed upon application.

The Daily Review.

THE EVE OF ALL SAINTS.

"And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect."—Heb. xi, 39-40.

Refrain, O bleak November, draw not near,
While gleam the late October stars of even;
Ye sunset glories; ere ye disappear,
Incline my heart to reveries of heaven.

Before me marches with a silent tread,
The mighty army of earth's good and true;
Majestic moves the pageant of the dead;
Enthroned, their Captain holds His grand review.

And O, 'tis now while twilight gathers round,
On wings of faith serene, my heart upborne,
E'en loaves to think ye best ones not the sound
Of signs from those on earth, the best who mourn.

And, halting for a space your noiseless tread,
Methinks you turn and smile on us who weep,
For sunset break through our blinding tears
Unshed,
And songs exchanged for sighing, we shall keep.

"God hath some better thing,"—hail griefs
Alloy!
Hail festal morn'g! Hail communion sweet,
With them in Paradise, the saints whose joy
Apart from us who wait, is incomplete!

Hail Saviour blest! all hail, redeeming Lord!
Who soon shall come to judge the quick and dead,
Teach us to know, while gathering round Thy board,
Thy saints are nearest, with their silent tread.

Right dear, O Lord, in Thy perpetual sight,
The death of every faithful saint of Thine,
O make us meet to dwell with them in light,
Where Thine eternal glories cloudless shine.

While years roll on, how swells yon lengthening
How dear the day to tenderest memories
God give us grace, our fond hearts cry again,
And speed our feet along the way to heaven!
—Rev. J. H. Van Buren.

Over-Worked Women.

For "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated school teachers, milliners, seamstresses, housekeepers, and over-worked women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best of all restorative tonics. It is not a "Cure-all," but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most potent specific for all those Chronic Weaknesses and Diseases peculiar to women. It is a powerful, general as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, and imparts vigor and strength to the whole system. It promptly cures weakness of stomach, indigestion, bloating, weak back, nervous prostration, debility and sleeplessness, in either sex. Favorite Prescription is sold by druggists under our positive guarantee. See wrapper around bottle. Price $1.00 a bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

A large treatise on Diseases of Women, profusely illustrated with colored plates and numerous woodcuts, sent for ten cents in stamps.

Harper's Young People.

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE has been called "the most popular of all the young people's magazines," and the justness of this commendation is amply sustained by the large circulation it has attained both at home and abroad. Its contents have been reached by methods that must commend themselves to the judgment of parents, as well as to the taste of children—namely, by an earnest and well-sustained effort to provide the best and most attractive reading for young people at a low price. Its illustrations are original and of a comparatively high standard of excellence.

An epitome of everything that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature.—Boston Courier.

A weekly feast of good things to the young girls in every family will it visit—Brooklyn Union.

It is wonderful in its wealth of picture information, and interest.—a Christian Advocate N. Y.
