Opera House.

There was a large attendance a the Opera House last night to wit ness the performance of "A Red Hot Time," by the Jessica Thomas Company. The play itself has no merit further than being irresistibly funny, and the actors certainly made the best of it, for they kept the audience convulsed with laughter.-This afternoon they gave a matinee at which "The Daughter of the Reg-

Both Ex-Governor Hoadly and Roswell P. Flower, of New York, in interviews at Chicago, say that Cleveland will surely be renominated, and as surely carry that State. "New York Democrats think of no one else for President," said Flower, "and if Cook, the candidate for Secretary of State, beats Col. Fred Grant this Fall, Cleveland will have a walk-over in 1888."

Comic Opera.

The MacCollin Opera Company, which will appear next Monday and Tuesdaynights, have won high praise wherever they have appeared. They will give the "Beggar Student," on Monday night, and the "Merry War" on Tuesday night. Of this latter the St. Louis Post-Dispatch savs:

The production of Strauss' bril liant comie opera, "The Merry War," at the Academy, has been a master stroke for that popular theater. The ensemble of the piece is far in advance of any thing yet produced here, and MacCollin's superb stage management is percep tible in all those little details which while they are comparatively nothing in themselves, yet contribute so signally to the success of every play.

To show how the performance is appreciated. we clip the following from the Elmira (N. Y.) Telegram:

> Prof. Lowanda undoubtedly has one of the most successful shows on the road. Within the last two years he has never failed to play to crowd ed houses. He turns more people away nightly than the majority of companies play to. It is estimated that he gives away $30,000 worth of presents yearly; 'The Professor has left many warm friends in our city. and we predict big success for him wherever he goes.
