Racket Store!

TOYS!

WE HAVE JUST BOUGHT AN IMMENSE LOT OF TOYS. We bought them cheap, and in so doing we made the same mistake as a great many others make. We bought too many, BECAUSE THEY WERE CHEAP. In fact we bought enough to stock a town twice the size of this. Only a few handle these goods and there is no demand for them except during the holidays. Consequently the PROFIT ON THEM IS ENORMOUS. Well we are going to put our REGULAR PROFIT ON THEM and see if we can't sell Toys about 100 Per Cent Cheaper than they were ever sold before in Wilmington. We can offer liberal inducements to parties buying wholesale bills.

Another lot of CARPETS, RUGS AND OIL CLOTHS Received to-day. We are selling these goods as fast as they come in.

The fact of the presence of a cancer in the throat of the German Crown Prince is confirmed, but it is said that no operation will be attempted for its removal.

Governor Bodwell, of Maine, is also president of the New York and Boston Rapid Transit Company, which proposes to run express trains from the Hub to the Metropolis in less than four hours.

It is announced as sure that Secretary Lamar will be nominated for the vacancy in the Supreme Court during the first days of the new Congress. Newspaper men can now cudgel their brains to find a successor to the Secretary.

Emperor William's health is in a very precarious condition. A cablegram from Paris says that the gloomiest rumors come from Berlin concerning him. It is said he fainted last Tuesday and that all the members of the family were summoned to his bedside.

The New York Sun's Washington correspondent says that Don M. Dickinson, of Detroit, has been offered the Postmaster Generalship to succeed Mr. Vilas, who is to go to the Interior Department after Lamar's elevation to the Supreme bench.

It is said that DeLaney Nicoll, the bolting candidate for District Attorney in New York, and the man who figured as Mr. Pulitzer's stoop-pigeon, voted for himself on Tuesday. He was probably under the impression that votes were needed for Nicoll.

Mr. James G. Blaine is now in Paris and a few days ago expressed himself as ready to accept the nomination of the Republican party for President. In case of defeat Mr. Blaine intimates very plainly that he would like to continue in political life as a U. S. Senator from Maine.

You can whoop 'em up for Cleveland now, boys, sure enough! The roosters which crowed from the REVIEW windows over his election three years ago have crumbled into chicken pie long ago but they have left some worthy descendants who will be on hand next November to pipe their tuneful lays in the grand triumphal march for the great Democratic procession.

General Sir Frederick Middleton, the hero of the Riel rebellion, who was rewarded for his heroism by knighthood and a grant of $20,000, has reached the age of sixty-two and will be retired on a pension of $3,700. It is thought that he will be succeeded by Colonel Cameron, a son-in-law of Sir Charles Tupper, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and chief representative of Canada in the Fisheries Commission.

The New York Star is especially entitled to congratulations on the result of the recent elections there. It has done a tremendous amount of good work during the campaign, laboring untiringly, in season and out of season, and every blow it struck was productive of benefit to the good cause. The Star is beyond question the best metropolitan Democratic newspaper ever published in this country. Long may it wave and may it soon score not less than a million subscribers.

Ger. barque Emilie, Schultz, nence, arrived at Hamburg Nov. 8th.

The Lutheran Publication Company will open their bookstore for business to-morrow.

There were lively times this morning at the wharf of the New York steamers. The Gulf Stream had not completed loading when the Benefactor put in appearance at about half-past 9 o'clock this forenoon.

500 pair heavy Canton flannel drawers, just the thing for cold weather, from 35 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop. Drawers made to order.

The subject of Rev. Dr. Pritchard's discourse next Sunday morning will be "The Bible," and at night he will preach in behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association.

There were very heavy rains yesterday at Burgaw and in the country surrounding that town. The creeks and branches were swollen and some of the lowlands were overflowed.

Prof. Lowanda appeared on the streets this morning with a fine looking horse and buggy which he said were to be given away at the entertainment to-night to the person who should be so fortunate as to hold the lucky number.

The steamer Benefactor, which arrived here this morning from New York, made a remarkably quick passage. Her time from her dock in New York to her dock in Wilmington was 64 hours, which is a record that has seldom been beaten.

Indications.
For North Carolina, fair weather, stationary temperature and light to fresh Northwesterly winds, becoming variable.

Beef Cattle.
A drove of beef cattle, consisting of 25 head, arrived here this morning. They came from Watauga county and were brought here by Messrs. T. J. Coffey & Brother. They came by rail from Charlotte and were bought by Mr. J. R. Melton.

Whistling Buoy.
A part of the cargo of the steamer Benefactor, which arrived here from New York this morning, is a whistling buoy which is addressed to the Lighthouse Board. It is not known where the buoy will be located, but it is presumed that it is intended to be moored off the Southwest point of Frying Pan Shoals, a notice of which we gave a few days since.

The End of the Anarchists.
As was foreshadowed in an article in this paper yesterday, two of the condemned anarchists, Schwab and Fielden, had their sentences commuted by Gov. Oglesby to imprisonment for life, and the others, Spies, Parsons, Engle and Fisher, were hung in Chicago to-day. Lingg, as was told by us yesterday, suicided in his cell, not with a pistol, as was stated at first, but by means of a small dynamite bomb, held in his mouth while he lighted the fuse with a candle.

Fourth Street Bridge.
A letter was received here to-day from the company having the contract for building the iron bridge across the railroad at Fourth street, stating the latter had finally succeeded in obtaining the iron necessary for the structure and that it would be shipped immediately and that the work would be commenced at once. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that those having charge of the matter in this city will see that the structure is now pushed as rapidly as possible to completion.

Cardinal Gibbons.
Cardinal Gibbons passed through Charlotte on the evening of the 9th inst., en route from New Orleans to Baltimore, and quite a number of the citizens of that city took the occasion of the twenty minutes' stoppage of the train at the depot, to pay their respects to the eminent gentleman. It was hoped and somewhat expected that the Cardinal would visit this city before his return to Baltimore, but the time at his command would not permit of his coming here to stop as long as he wished to, so he was constrained to forego that pleasure. He has signified his intention, however, of coming here some time during the next Summer, when he will remain two or three days with our people. The time of his coming is not yet definitely fixed, but he will give information in the matter in due season.

There was an alarm of fire turned in from box 31, corner of Fourth and Brunswick street, at about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The firemen turned out promptly, but there was no need of their services as it was a false alarm.

The new temporary bridge across the railroad at Fourth street has been so far completed that it will be ready for the passage of carriages to-morrow.

Songs of Praise.

The praise meeting at Brooklyn Hall to-night, conducted by Mr. C. H. Lincoln, will be an interesting occasion. Mr. Lincoln will be assisted by his wife, who is a charming vocalist, and possibly by his son.

City Court.
There were but two cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning, and these were charges against one and the same person.

Walter Yates, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, was the first case, and that was dismissed, as the testimony was insufficient to convict.

The same defendant was then arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct, but the hearing in the case was continued until to-morrow morning.

Pay Your Taxes.

The last legislature passed a more stringent law for the collection of taxes than has heretofore existed. Heretofore the sheriffs of the different counties were allowed some discretion as to the time to be allowed delinquents, before property was advertised for sale. The law now is that the sheriff shall advertise the real estate of delinquents for sale on the first Monday in February each year. As the tax lists are not placed in the hands of the sheriffs until September, this law only gives the tax-payers five months, instead of about seven, as the sales have usually taken place in May.

Wilmington and Newbern.

The Board of Commissioners of Onslow county have ordered an election on the question of a subscription by the county to the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina R. R., the said election to take place on Tuesday, December 27th. The Newbern Journal says:

The commissioners were in session on Monday and adjourned to Tuesday in order to hear a petition asking for a vote on the question of subscribing $60,000 to a railroad from Wilmington to Newbern. The prayer of the petition was granted and the election was ordered to be held on Tuesday, the 27th day of December. A new registration was ordered, and with the proposition to build from one city to the other the measure will likely go through. Craven county ought to extend a helping hand in this, as Newbern will have an opportunity of reaching a large trade that goes entirely to Wilmington. The people of Onslow are anxious for a railroad, and said many on the court ground on Tuesday, "we want to go to New Berne but it is too far to haul what we have to sell; help us to build the road and we will come to see you." These people are in earnest about this matter. They would not think of voting a subscription to one end of the road merely, but as soon as the New Berne and Wilmington people have agreed to meet at the same point they are ready to aid. There are thousands of acres of fine farming lands that have grown up since the outbreak of the war that will soon be reclaimed when the iron horse goes ploughing through from Wilmington to New Berne.

The November Cosmopolitan.

The November number of the Cosmopolitan opens with a beautiful frontispiece of a buffalo bull, engraved by the well-known engraver, Frederick Juengling; it accompanies the second part of Wm. T. Hornaday's important article, "The Passing of the Buffalo." Julian Hawthorne's article on "The Noble Art of Self-Defense," illustrated handsomely by M. J. Burns, is certain to attract attention. "The California Ranch," is an illustrated article, giving in an attractive way a mass of information in regard to the great farms on the Pacific Coast. "A Brighter Outlook for Women" advocates the revival in a modified form of the convent for the benefit of unmarried and widowed women that depend upon themselves for support. Joel Benton explains the "Origin of Love and Beauty," while William H. Rideing describes "The Boyhood of James Russell Lowell," and Joseph T. Alling gives a lively and picturesque description of "The Chief City of a Moorish Despot." Harriet Prescott gives a sequel to "Uncle Mason's Money," under the title of "The Pretty Spendthrifts." F. D. Marfree's story of "The Show that Came to Squatchee Valley," and M. Fulano's "The Story of the Priest," are unusually excellent. The poems of the number are contributed by Louise Chandler Moulton, George Edgar Montgomery, Edith M. Thomas, May Riley Smith, Henry Tyrrell and Frank Dempster Sherman.

Best $3 shoe for gents in the city at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,506 bales.

Where New and Fashionable Goods are to be Found.

Mr. A. Shrier's new store on Market street is complete with the latest styles in Fall and Winter clothing. His stock is the best assorted one in Wilmington, as yet it is unbroken, and therefore he has no difficulty in giving a perfect fit. The prices are lower than the lowest and he guarantees to give you more than your money's worth and satisfaction with every purchase.

Congratulations.

Mr. C. F. Divine and his young bride, nee Miss Hattie Pendleton, accompanied by his sisters, Misses Stella, May and Mannie Divine, arrived on last night's train from Portsmouth, Va., and immediately repaired to the residence of Capt. J. F. Divine, (the groom's father) on Mulberry street, between Third and Fourth. The happy couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for their good health and all the happiness of wedded life.

Personal.

Mr. J. T. Bland, of Burgaw, is in the city to-day on professional business.

We regret to state that there is no change for the better in the condition of Mr. Samuel Howland.

Mr. S. A. Craig was one of the passengers by the steamer Benefactor from New York this morning.

Mr. L. W. Davis and Mr. Ellis were passengers on the steamer Benefactor which arrived here from New York this morning.

Mr. Harry Bacon, son of our fellow citizen, Mr. Henry Bacon, left on the steamer Gulf Stream to-day for Boston, where he will engage with Messrs. Chamberlin & Whidden, prominent architects in that city.

The Race Track.

Parties interested in the formation of a race track association for the city of Wilmington met at the Orton House and discussed the question at considerable length, and at last decided to enlarge the scope of the organization from its original design and take the necessary steps to form a stock association for the annual exhibition of blooded stock. The committee previously appointed were continued and were requested to ascertain as nearly as possible the probable cost of such an organization, and also to see if suitable grounds could be obtained and to solicit subscriptions to the enterprise, all of which would be a matter for report at the next meeting, which is subject to their call.

Gift Festival.

The Opera House was densely packed last night with a throng of ladies and gentlemen anxious to witness the marvellous feats performed by Prof. Lowanda's Star Specialty Company, and also to try their luck for some of the prizes that were presented to those who held the lucky numbers. There was an entire change of programme from that of the previous night, and it was intensely amusing, evoking peals of laughter from the audience. In the distribution of prizes, Mr. E. C. Plunkett drew a set of furniture; Mr. T. S. Williams drew a gold watch; Mr. C. B. Welch drew a silver ice-pitcher and Mr. J. W. Smith drew a silver cake stand. The entertainment will be repeated to-night—which will be the last—with another entire change of programme, and with the distribution of many valuable prizes.

The Last Chance.

I Shrier, on Front street, next door to McIntire's dry goods store, will have another and only sale of the fine linen bosom shirt for 39c., worth 85c., and a fine silk scarf for 21c., worth 85c., on Saturday, November 12th. Fine clothing, of which he makes a specialty, will be sold from 25 to 33 per cent. cheaper than any other house in Wilmington, and under no circumstances will shoddy or cheap John goods be sold in his house. Remember the name and place, I. Shrier on Front street, sign of the Golden Arm.

Coal and Wood.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET COAL AND WOOD before another advance in prices due to next cold wave or for other good reasons.
