

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12 1887 NO 44

THIS PAPER
Published every evening, Sundays excepted.
By JOS. T. JAMES, Editor and Prop.
SUBSCRIPTIONS, POSTAGE PAID:
Year, $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents.
The paper will be delivered by carriers, free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week.
Advertising rates low and liberal.
Subscribers will please report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Racket Store!

TOYS!

WE HAVE JUST BOUGHT AN IMMENSE LOT OF TOYS.
We bought them cheap, and in so doing we made the same mistake a great many others make.

BECAUSE THEY WERE CHEAP.
In fact we bought enough to stock a town twice the size of this.

Only a few handle these goods and there is no demand for them except during the holidays.

Consequently the PROFIT ON THEM IS ENORMOUS
Well we are going to put our REGULAR PROFIT ON THEM and see if we can't sell Toys about 100 Per Cent Cheaper than they were ever sold before in Wilmington.

Another lot of
CARPETS, RUGS AND OIL CLOTHS

Received to-day. We are selling these goods as fast as they come in.

E. H. FREEMAN.
Opposite New Market.
N. Y. House, 466 Broadway.

W. H. Yopp,
SHIPPER AND DEALER IN
Fish AND Oysters.

106 South Front Street, Wilmington, N. C.
Lock Box 415.
New River Oysters a specialty.

A NEW BOOK
BY AUGUSTA EVANS.
"AT THE MERCY OF TIBERUS"
—ALSO—
A complete line of Books by popular authors, in sets and in single volumes, bound in cloth and paper.

ARTIST MATERIAL.
Remember, we keep in stock Tubes, Brushes,
Palettes, Pallets, Knives, Academy Board,
Drawing Paper, Tracing Paper, etc., etc.

Coke for Sale.
SINGLE LOAD, 25 bushels, delivered... $2 25
TWO LOADS, 50 bushels, delivered... 4 25
FOUR LOADS, 100 bushels, delivered... 8 00

New York & Wilmington Steamship Co.

Dr. Schliemann has made a will giving all his archaeological collections to the Berlin Ethnological Museum.

The New York Tribune says: Ex-Senator J. J. Patterson, of South Carolina, now an eminent citizen of Bloomfield, Ill., was recently married to a young lady of that place.

Now that Sir Charles Dilke has returned to London a strong effort is being made to restore him to his former prominent position in politics. He may run as a Home Rule candidate at the next general elections.

Silk culture is now being promoted in California by two organizations, the Silk Culture Society, with a fund of $5,000 appropriated by the United States Government, and the State Board of Silk Culture, with an appropriation from the State of California.

The Chicago Herald pays its respects to a prominent manufacturer as follows: "Andrew Carnegie is a pap-fed monopolist, who has made $15,000,000 since the war out of nothing and a partnership under the tariff with the United States Government."

The rival Stock Exchange in New York is erecting a $1,000,000 building at the corner of Broadway and Exchange place, just across the way from the old board. The price of seats in the latter has tumbled to $19,000 from $32,000. This is attributed largely to the diversion of business to the New Exchange, where the commissions are lower and the regulations less onerous. It looks as if the old board would be driven into reduction of its charges.

A correspondent of the Atlanta Constitution, who is touring through Alabama, furnishes some suggestive figures. In ten years Alabama has increased her taxable property from $125,000,000 to $215,000,000. In the past year Jefferson County alone—of which Birmingham is the county seat—increased $30,000,000 in tax values, a larger increase than was made by the entire State of Georgia for the same year. The total increase in the State for the year was $41,691,703.

For years Indian arrowheads have been found in such numbers on the shores of Bantam Lake, in Connecticut, that antiquarians thought that a battle must have been fought there once. Recently workers digging there found corroboration of the battle theory in the form of bones of men mingled with rare Indian weapons. Apparently the men had been buried in a sitting posture, and one grave, by its unusually large collection of weapons, indicated that its occupant had been a chief or mighty warrior.

The proposed colonization of all the Dunksards of the United States in the "Panhandle" section of Texas is a very large undertaking. The Dunksards are a peculiar religious sect, whose chief tenets are a literal belief in the teachings of the Gospel, and an abhorrence of war. During the civil war both sides respected their scruples against fighting, and exempted them from service in the army. A misprint in the Confederate statute on the subject made it appear that "drunksards" were exempted. This was good news to the red nose men of the South, but their satisfaction was short-lived, as the mistake was soon corrected. Texas is to be congratulated upon securing these honest, industrious people.

While we think that Mr. Thurman was too severe on Gen. Jackson, still that does not excuse the fact or palliate the offense. Gen. Jackson's address at Macon was certainly an ill advised affair. It attempted to raise issues which had been set at rest by the results of the war and the settlement of which had been accepted by the people of the South in good faith. The truth is immutable and while those who fought for the maintenance of the principles of the people of the South and for the sovereignty of their States for four long years do not yield one jot or one tittle of the faith that was in them then and their belief in the sincerity and sacredness of the principles for which they contended, they have yet yielded to the logic of events and do not desire the old issues to be revamped and to be made a part of their professions now. The Southern people did not fight to maintain the institution of slavery, as so many have erroneously supposed; they fought for principles held by them as very dear and very sacred and for the rights purchased by them by the blood so freely shed by their sires during the war of the revolution.

Those who fought and suffered during the late terrible war have simply had enough of it. They do not desire anything more of that kind, at least not just yet, and therefore they deplore the folly of those who would raise an old and a dead issue to a place among those of the living, acting present.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
A SHRIER—Local Ad
KING & SIKES—Fine Beef
C W YATES—A New Book
JAS D NUTT—Kaskine Pills
HEINSBERGER—Blank Books
TAYLOR'S BAZAR—Remember
DICK & MEARES—Select Stock
JNO F GARRELL—Another Car Load
ENTERTAINMENT—Choir Grace Church
FENNEL & DANIEL—Robes and Blankets
Change of Schedule W & W R R—2d page
Change of Schedule W, C & A R R—2d page
OPERA HOUSE—Refined Specialty Company

For other locals see fourth page.
Day's length 10 hours and 20 minutes.

Best $2.50 ladies' kid button boot at French & Sons.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 54 minutes past 4 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,502 bales.

There were no interments in Oakdale Cemetery this week.

Br. steamship Benacre, Ogg, hence, arrived at Liverpool Nov. 10th.

Nor. barque Daphne, Hansen, hence, arrived at London Nov. 10th.

There was one interment—an adult—in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

The Register of Deeds issued five marriage licenses this week, all for colored couples.

We hear of several cases of scarlet fever in town, but they appear to be of a light type.

Five interments, two adults and three children, in Pine Forest during the past week.

Nearly all those who left the city to attend Cumberland County Fair, at Fayetteville, have returned.

New River oysters were in good supply yesterday and to-day, and selling at from 80 cents to $1 per gallon.

Services in St. John's Church to-morrow at 7:30 and 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the Rector, Rev. Dr. Carmichael.

There was a slight decline in the price of cotton in this city to-day and also quite a sharp decline in New York.

The bill boards were being covered with grotesque looking pictures to-day, much to the delight of the small boys.

The next entertainment booked for the Opera House will be on the 18th and 19th inst., when the "Two Old Cronies" will appear.

There was a decided change in the weather last night, with a falling temperature, and this morning was really cold and overcoats were in demand.

The time of holding the evening service at the First Baptist Church has been changed from 8 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. The services to-morrow night will commence at the latter hour.

Mr. John F. Garrell received yesterday another car load of that fine mountain beef which he gets regularly now from the mountains. It was on his stalls to-day and sold rapidly.

Messrs. King & Sikes have just received a carload of fine mountain beef. It is from Jackson county and will be on sale every day next week at their stalls, No. 4 Front Street Market and No. 2 Fourth Street Market. They want everybody to call and see it.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.

City Court.

There were three cases of disorderly conduct for the Mayor's consideration this morning, all of which were dismissed and the defendants were discharged. There was also one party who applied for a lodging at the guard house. He made it apparent that he had employment in the city and he was discharged.

A Good Investment.

A gentleman of this city, a day or two since, bought a bunch of fish in the market and sent them to be cooked. While they were being prepared for cooking, the cook dropped them and ran into the house exclaiming, "There's a snake in the fish!" An examination revealed a good sized channel crab in one of the fish and an eel fully ten inches long in the other, which was considerably more than the purchaser bargained for. The fish were ordinary sized blackfish.

The Opera House.

Prof. Lowanda's Star Company gave their last entertainment at the Opera House last night, to a much smaller audience than upon the previous nights, although there was a fair attendance. The horse which was advertised to be given away was won by Ex-Mayor Fishblade. The performance was in many respects totally unlike any of its predecessors, and was very enjoyable. The company went from here to Charleston, S. C., where they will appear to-night.

Just in Time.

Precisely at the witching hour of 12 o'clock, high noon, to-day, a young man bearing a huge waiter entered the REVIEW office and displayed to our admiring and hungry gaze a dozen beautiful oysters on the half shell, sent in with the compliments of Mr. J. J. Dray, of the Acme Saloon. They were delicious and highly enjoyed. They were decidedly the best New River oysters we have seen this season and taken from a lot which Mr. Dray offers to his patrons.

Personal.

Capt. L. T. Everett, of Laurinburg, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. T. Pleasants, of the Messenger, and Mrs. Pleasants, returned to the city last night.

Col. Thos. S. Kenan, of Raleigh, is in the city, the guest of his brother, Capt. W. R. Kenan.

Capt. F. M. Munger, formerly of the revenue cutter Colfax, but now stationed in Baltimore, arrived in the city last night.

Mr. E. G. Barker and wife returned home last night from an extended visit to friends and relatives at the North.

Mr. H. C. Danforth, representing the "Two Old Cronies" Company, is in the city, arranging for the appearance of his troupe here on the 18th inst.

Battles and Leaders of the Civil War.

The fifth and sixth parts of the "Battles and Leaders of the Civil War" are occupied by accounts of the campaign in the West, in 1862. Part 5 contains the conclusion of Col. Kelley's description of the way in which Kentucky was held for the Union. The Rev. Edw. O. Guerrant sketches the battle of Middle Creek. Gen. Lew Wallace gives a description of the capture of Fort Donelson, and a very striking paper is Admiral Walker's account of the Western flotilla. It is also, undoubtedly true that there was nothing more brilliant in the history of the war than the fighting of the Confederate naval officers in the Western water. Col. Bissell tells the story of sawing out the channel above Island No. 10, and Gen. Grant's account of the battle of Shiloh is begun.

This paper of Gen. Grant is concluded in part 6, which contains also "Shiloh Reviewed," by Gen. Buell. On the Confederate side there is a description of the Shiloh campaign by Col. W. P. Johnston, the son of Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston. This is followed by Gen. Beauregard's account of the campaign, which differs as widely from Col. Johnston's account as Gen. Buell's statement differs from that of General Grant.

The work is sold exclusively by subscription at 50 cents a part, and will be completed in 32 parts. Col. W. F. Morse, 624 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., is general agent for North Carolina. The Wilmington office is 24 South Second Street. Call and see specimens.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

The remains of Dr. J. T. Barnes, who died at Southport on the 10th inst., were brought up to the city this morning by the steamer Louisie, and will leave on to-night's train for Stantonburg, Wilson county, for interment.

Me. John Taylor will occupy the store on the N. W. corner of Market and Second streets during the holiday season as a toy store, and he has been engaged in moving goods to the store to-day preparatory to the rush which will be sure to occur before many weeks.

Indications.

For North Carolina, fair weather, with slight change in temperature and fresh to brisk Northerly winds, diminishing in force.

Midnight Thieves.

The premises of Mrs. C. M. Galloway, on the corner of Ninth and Queen streets, were raided last Thursday night, and every article of her provisions was stolen. Mrs. Galloway had just returned from the country and had brought home several articles of provisions including a quantity of sorghum molasses, but all were taken by the thief or thieves. There is as yet no clue to the robbers.

At Rest.

Mr. Samuel Howland, whose critical sickness we have mentioned on several occasions, died at about 1 o'clock this afternoon. His case has been considered hopeless for several days and his death, although causing a great shock to his people, was not unexpected nor unlooked for. The deceased was a native of Craven county, but came to this city when quite a young man and has resided here ever since. For many years he was in railroad employ and was for some time a conductor on a freight train on the Carolina Central railroad. For several years past he has been on the police force of the city and was a member of the same at the time of his death. He was a kind-hearted man who died without an enemy. His age was about 65 years and he leaves a wife and four children—two sons and two daughters—to mourn his death.

Where New and Fashionable Goods are to be Found.

Mr. A. Shrier's new store on Market street is complete with the latest styles in Fall and Winter clothing. His stock is the best assorted one in Wilmington, as yet it is unbroken, and therefore he has no difficulty in giving a perfect fit. The prices are lower than the lowest and he guarantees to give you more than your money's worth and satisfaction with every purchase.

The Last Chance.

I Shrier, on Front street, next door to McIntire's dry goods store, will have another and only sale of the fine linen bosom shirt for 39c., worth 85c., and a fine silk scarf for 25c., worth 85c., on Saturday, November 12th. Fine clothing, of which he makes a specialty, will be sold from 25 to 33 per cent. cheaper than any other house in Wilmington, and under no circumstances will shoddy or cheap John goods be sold in his house. Remember the name and place, I. Shrier on Front street, sign of the Golden Arm.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Kaskine Pills.
PURE QUININE (at prices that will make other dealers feel "funny.")
DIAMOND DYES (the largest stock in town)
Will open next week the handsomest line of Fancy Novelties, &c., at prices that will make you buy.
JAS. D. NUTT, the Druggist,
218 North Front St.
nov 12

Rob's and Blankets.
HARNESS AND SADDLERY GOODS,
TRUNKS AND BAGS,
CHEAPEST PLACE IN THE CITY.
FENNEL & DANIEL,
The Horse Millers, No. 10, So. Front St.
nov 12

Fine Beef.
JACKSON COUNTY, N. C., CANNOT BE beat for GOOD BEEF. We have received a car load to-day of the finest Beef ever brought from there. Will show the same on our stalls to-day and for the next week.
VEAL, PORK, SAUSAGES, VENISON.
Call and convince yourself.
KING & SIKES,
stall No. 4, Front Street Market and Stall No.
2, Fourth Street Market. nov 12

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

HELP US COMPLETE OUR CHURCH!

ENTERTAINMENT AND FISH SUPPER.
THE CHOIR OF GRACE M. E. CHURCH South will give an entertainment with the usual refreshments together with Pig Fish and Oysters, Music, both instrumental and vocal, at the residence of Capt. J. J. Bowden, No. 214 North Seventh Street.
THURSDAY EVENING, 14th inst.
Every well wisher is invited to be present.
Admission Free 10 cents. CHOIR.
nov 12

Remember!

REMEMBER, BARGAIN DAY
Monday,
—AT—
Taylor's Bazar

We will sell this day Silk Velvet in all shades suitable for Hat and Dress Trimming for 98c pr yd.
Black Silk Velvet, 19 inches wide, 98c per yard, worth $1.50.

WE LEAD BUT NEVER FOLLOW.
AND EVERYTHING SOLD AS ADVERTISED.

Surah Silk in striped, plaids and plain, suitable for Cloaks and Dress Trimmings at 98 cents pr yard.

A few pair more of those Embroidered Back Kid Gloves, at 75c A PAIR, WORTH $1.25.

Silk Girdles for Hats, Dresses and Cloaks, at 23c each.
HATS, RIBBONS, FEATHERS,
&c., &c., equally low at

Taylor's Bazar
118 MARKET ST., WILMINGTON, N. C. nov 12

Select Stock.

GENTLEMEN'S UNDERWEAR AND ALL other FURNISHING GOODS, Also MERCHANT TAILORING.

DICK & MEARES,
nov 10 12 N Front St

Another Car Load!
I HAVE RECEIVED THIS DAY ANOTHER
CAR LOAD OF THAT SPLENDID

Mountain Beef & Mutton
from Western North Carolina, and it will be on sale at my stalls on and after to-morrow.
Also, PORK AND PUDDINGS, SAUSAGES, SAUSAGE MEAT, &c., fresh and sweet.
Goods delivered promptly.

Remember the Stalls, South side of Front Street Market, W. E. Worth & Co's old stand. Respectfully, JNO. F. GARRELL,
nov 11 Successor to W. E. Worth & Co.

BLANK BOOKS!

Blank Books for Everbody.

RECEIVED THIS DAY A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF BLANK BOOKS, which we will sell at bottom prices. Also, CHECK BOOKS.

NOTE, DRAFT, ORDER and RECEIPT BOOKS, CHEAP.
—AT—

HEINSBERGER'S.

Pianos and Organs,
SOLD ON THE POPULAR MONTHLY INSTALLMENT PLAN AT

HEINSBERGER'S.
oct 27 Cash Book and Music Store.

Coal and Wood.
NOW IS THE TIME TO GET COAL AND WOOD before another advance in prices due to next cold wave or for other good reasons.
J. A. SPRINGER