

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1887 NO 45

The four dead anarchists were buried yesterday without any fuss or pomp.

Clara Louise Kellogg was married to her Manager, Carl Strakosch, at Elkhart, Ind., at the close of an entertainment on Wednesday night.

Dr. Graetz, the illustrious Jewish historian, has lately celebrated his 70th birthday anniversary at Breslau, Germany. He is still actively engaged writing and lecturing.

Miss Ida L. Griffin, Democratic candidate for school commissioner in the third district of Oswego county, N. Y., was elected by nearly 400 majority, running 600 ahead of her ticket.

A church in a northern city in which there gathers a congregation possessing far more than average wealth was described by a visitor the other day as the "Church of retired Christians."

Three more of the Alesia's passengers have been removed from the ship Washington to the hospital. Two vessels that touched at cholera infected ports in Italy have been detained.

Anthony Comstock has broken out again. On Saturday he seized a number of photographs of pictures in the Paris Salon and caused the arrest of the dealers. The trade in New York is in consequence much exercised thereby.

Jesse Pomeroy, Massachusetts' boy murderer; (now a man) who is now serving a life-sentence in the State's Prison at Charlestown, made a desperate attempt to escape a few days ago by blowing out the walls of his cell, by means of gas intercepted from the pipe. The result was a failure and so seriously was Pomeroy injured that it is thought the sight of both eyes is entirely gone.

The New York Fire Department were presented with a magnificent stand of colors on Saturday. The presentation was made by Mayor Hewitt. The Herald says:

On the very spot where two nights before the ugly black and red flags of anarchy and socialism were waved in the darkness over a savage mob of human wolves, Mayor Hewitt, in the name of the citizens of New York and the Herald, yesterday presented to the Fire Department the most gorgeous stand of colors ever seen on this side of the Atlantic Ocean.

There seems to be no doubt as to the truth of the reports heretofore published in regard to the precarious condition of the German Crown Prince. Yesterday's Herald has the following cablegram from London: Sir Morrell Mackenzie will be back here on Monday, and the Crown Prince will return to Berlin as soon as the inflammation in his throat has subsided. My account to-day, from sure sources, confirms everything sent you in previous despatches. There is, and there can be, no great change for the better in the Prince's condition. All the medical skill under the sun can do little for him at present. It is very doubtful whether he will submit to the one "kill or cure" operation that the doctors are talking of. His cheerfulness is marvellous to those who do not know his immense force of character, his iron will and his complete resignation to a fate which he has long seen to be impending. The world has been taken by surprise by the announcement of cancer, but the sufferer has learned nothing that he did not suspect before.

Johann Most "shot off his mouth" at a meeting of Anarchists in New York on Saturday night at a sort of Anarchist wake. Here are a few specimens of his speech as extracted from a report in the New York Star: "Oh, what a mockery that trial was. The poor men were kept imprisoned for months, until Grianel, the perjurer and thief, secured witnesses who were willing to swear away the lives of the seven innocent men. The jury consisted of hirelings of the capitalists, who had been well paid to send these men to the gallows. Their blood cries to heaven for vengeance, and it shall not cry in vain. "The day of reckoning is approaching. Let those men who are interested in the arrests, in the trial, and in the hanging beware. That debt shall be paid. I point my finger at Grinnell, Gary, Bonfield, some of the Judges of the Court of Appeals, and that coward of a Governor, Oglesby. Anarchists, I say arouse. You know what is expected of you. "During the Commune in France in 1871, 30,000 patriots lost their lives for the cause of helping mankind. People then said the Commune is dead. No, I say it is alive, and they are the Anarchists of to-day.

"I feel that I have already said more than I should. Have you read in the newspaper press to-day that the newspaper spies are watching our rendezvous, and write what they sneakily overhear and see? From to-night our meetings shall be secret ones, and our places of meetings will be changed.

We can't understand why such talk should be allowed in a city like New York. It is simply incendiary. Free speech, a free press and a free ballot are the boast of this country, but liberty and license are not by any means synonymous terms. Most should be sent to Joliet to join Schwab and Fielden.

Dr. James McCosh has resigned the presidency of Princeton College, his resignation to take effect at the present colligate term.

The ladies have been out in large force to-day.

New River oysters were plentiful in market to-day.

Best $2.50 ladies' kid button boot at French & Sons.

Best $3 shoe for gents in the city at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 2,375 bales.

There was an advance of five cents per barrel in the price of tar to-day. Ital. barque Il Vero, Catiero, hence, via Castlemare, arrived at Trieste Nov. 8th.

A colored man, dead drunk, loaded on a dray, was an unpleasant sight on our streets to-day.

We learn that there was a peal of thunder shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon but we did not hear it.

The iron columns to the new front of the Purcell House building were raised and put in position to-day.

A series of revival meetings was begun last night at Fifth Street M. E. Church, which will be continued during the week, and possibly longer.

The rubber overcoats recently ordered for the pipemen of Howard Relief Fire Engine Company arrived here this morning, and were distributed to the men.

Fifth Street M. E. Church was crowded to its utmost capacity last night to listen to the singing of Mr. C. H. Lincoln and his wife and son. The service was deeply interesting and the songs of the vocalists were delightfully spiritual and affecting.

Raleigh News and Observer: The Acme Manufacturing Company of Wilmington has presented the office of the Department of Immigration with a pine-wood carpet of its own manufacture. This carpeting is destined to become the most popular hall and office carpet in the world. There is nothing like it for neatness, durability and safety.

Indications.
For North Carolina, slightly warmer and fair weather and light to fresh winds, generally shifting to Southwesterly.

To Good Use.
The temporary bridge across the railroad at Fourth street is now open for travel, and all the available space on the wooden guard at the side of the structure has been utilized for advertisements. Everything seems to be advertised there, from a stolen dog to silks and satins.

Where New and Fashionable Goods are to be Found.

Mr. A. Shrier's new store on Market street is complete with the latest styles in Fall and Winter clothing. His stock is the best assorted one in Wilmington, as yet it is unbroken, and therefore he has no difficulty in giving a perfect fit. The prices are lower than the lowest and he guarantees to give you more than your money's worth and satisfaction with every purchase.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.

The Concordia Society.

The ladies of the Concordia Society of the Temple of Israel have been requested to repeat the festival which they gave some weeks since, at which time, owing to the storm, many were kept from attending.—The Society have consented and the festival will be repeated at Concordia Hall next Wednesday evening. Music by the harpers.

Personal.

Mr. James C. Munds was on our streets to-day.

Mr. Berry Gleaves arrived in the city Saturday night and will remain here until Christmas.

Mr. John H. Alderman, brother of Mr. Archie Alderman and the late Mr. James Alderman, arrived in the city last night on a visit to his relatives, after an absence of 23 years. He lives at War Trace, Tenn., a village about 50 miles from Nashville, where he is engaged in farming and stock-raising.

Benevolence.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society at the session room of the First Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock on Thursday the 17th inst., at which time an address will be delivered. A cordial invitation is extended to young and old to attend. Winter is approaching and it is the desire of the society to raise funds with which to purchase blankets and other necessities for the poor and needy.

Pig Fish and Oysters.

Don't forget the entertainment next Thursday night at the residence of Capt. J. J. Bowden, No. 114 North Seventh street, given by the Choir of Grace M. E. Church. It will be a pleasant occasion, with good vocal and instrumental music and pig fish and oysters in abundance. Remember the number, 114 North Seventh street. The admission is fixed at 10 cents. There ought to be a large crowd, as the object is a worthy one.

A Liberal Donation.

Lieut. Governor Stedman has sent $50 to Judge Schenck, President of the Guilford Battle Ground Company, to assist in forwarding that patriotic enterprise. This is characteristic of Maj. Stedman, who is a large-hearted, generous-souled gentleman, whose purse is ever open for the benefit of any good work or patriotic enterprise, especially when it affects North Carolina. He is a patriot as well as a genial-hearted gentleman, whose friends are from the mountains to the seashore.

City Court.

There was a formidable docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, but it was quickly disposed of in the following order:
Nathan Simpson, colored, disorderly conduct, called and failed. Capias issued.

Spencer Stanford, colored, disorderly conduct. He is an old offender and a bad citizen from wayback, and was guilty of the offense charged. A fine of $20 or 30 days in the chain gang was the judgment of the Court.

Edward H. Pike, John Spear, Edward Dooley, John Riley and John G. Daly, of the genus tramp, were confined to the guidance of policemen to be escorted out of the city.

A New Enterprise.

The erection of a new one story frame building, 40 feet long by 20 feet wide, on Queen street, near the river, has awakened some curiosity and people have manifested some anxiety to know to what purpose it will be devoted. Enquiry developed the fact that the building is being erected on the land of Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop, for Mr. Edward Tennent, and that when it is completed it will be used as a manufactory for knitting all kinds of underwear. The machinery for the purpose was purchased at the North some time since and it is expected here at any time. In fact it is feared that the building will not be in readiness when the machinery arrives. The work, however, will be pushed as rapidly as possible to completion, and we may confidently hope to hear the busy hum of a new and profitable industry before many weeks.

500 pair heavy Canton flannel drawers, just the thing for cold weather, from 35 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop. Drawers made to order.

Capt. F. M. James is now making his rounds for contributions to the poor for Thanksgiving and on the morning of that holiday he will again call and receive the contributions and distribute them. Remember the poor.

For Convention.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard will leave on to-night's train for the Baptist State Convention, which will convene at Durham on Wednesday next. He starts thus early because he has to unite a couple in marriage. The other delegates and visitors from this city and vicinity will not start until to-morrow.

Exports Foreign.

Nor. barque Cato, Andresen, cleared to-day for Bristol, Eng., with 450 casks turpentine and 3,275 barrels rosin, valued at $10,628.06, shipped by Messrs. S. P. Shotton & Co. Nor. brig Taritta, Knutsen, cleared for Hull, Eng., with 2,570 barrels rosin, valued at $2,700, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son; making a total of exports foreign amounting to $13,328.06.
