The total daily attendance at the schools of London is reported as 91,561. Of these pupils 33,497 go to the Anglican schools, 24,055 to the board, or public schools, and 22,270 to the Catholic schools.

Portland, Oregon, makes its 160 saloons pay $48,000 into its treasury, and Portland landlords charge the saloon-keepers rent to the amount of $192,000 yearly. This means that a good many men in Oregon support the saloons better than they do their families.

Kansas is trying to encourage silk production, and has, by Act of Legislature, established a station where eggs will be distributed and reeler educated. Ten acres have been set out with mulberry trees, and fifteen reels are now running, producing, it is said, excellent silk.

The annual report of the railroad commission of Alabama shows that in that State for the year ended June 30, 1887, there was an increase of 180.01 miles of railroad, of 251.72 miles of steel rail, of $1,347,523.78 of gross receipts, of $511,102.80 of gross expenditures, and of $760,088 of net receipts.

The election to decide whether Atlanta will remain an alleged dry city will soon be held. Both sides are hard at work. Meetings are held every night and the columns of the newspapers are filled with communications on the all engrossing question. The vote will undoubtedly be very heavy. Both sides are confident of victory.

A London newspaper, speaking of the breaking up of the Wild West show in London, says that Buffalo Bill has gathered in the "dust" beyond the wildest dreams of avarice; that since the Exhibition of 1851 London has never seen a show that so took it by storm, and that the show might have gone on exhibiting in London for the rest of Mr. Cody's natural life.

Mr. Wharton Barker, of Philadelphia, who is much interested in the American-Chinese bank scheme, says that the reports of the cancellation of the concessions given by the Chinese Government are but repetitions of an old story. He insists that everything is prosperous with his company, and that the bank will be established.

Ex-Assemblyman Smith, of New York city, was not the first man to stud the floor of his place of business with silver dollars. A Chicago barber was the pioneer in this sort of decoration, but his dollars soon were so smooth and dull that strangers didn't notice them, and didn't know what they were when they did notice them, and so the barber took them up, and now depends on other novelties to attract customers.

It is really amusing to see how anxious the prominent Democrats are to be interviewed on the effects of the victory in New York. They are endorsing Cleveland at a lively rate, and are unanimous in the opinion that he alone is the man to head the Democratic ticket in 1888. Governor Lee, of Virginia, Speaker Carlisle, Senator Voorhees, Senator Blackburn and Congressman Phelan, have gone on record as supporters of the President.

Recently an unknown man, who had previously taken a dose of poison, jumped from the Arc de Triomphe, in Paris, which is almost two hundred feet in height. When half way down a projecting hook caught his trousers and arrested his fall, so that he hung there for a full hour before it was possible to rescue him. On being taken to the hospital it was found that he had sustained no injury from his fall, and the strong antidotes applied speedily counteracted the effects of the poison.

Congressman Lee, of Virginia, while in Washington the other day, said that the Democratic party in his State have no objection to the Republicans taking whatever comfort they can get from the fact that at the recent election their party secured a trifling majority of the popular vote. The main issue in the campaign was to overthrow Mahone, which, he says, was accomplished in glorious style. He insists that Virginia is a Democratic State, and will show herself to be such at the next national election, when the full strength of the party will be brought out.

A good deal of business has evidently been transacted to-day on the wharves, as the drays have been kept as busy as bees all day.

Parties who were at the Sound yesterday report that a flock of wild geese, estimated at a mile in length, passed high up overhead, bound South.

The weather yesterday was mild and soft, giving every one a chance to enjoy such out-door sports as he pleased for his Thanksgiving enjoyment.

Capt. F. M. James requests us to tender his thanks in behalf of the poor of the city to those who so generously contributed to their enjoyment and comfort Thanksgiving day.

Donald McRae, Esq., of this city has presented the Oxford Orphan Asylum the neat sum of $50 as a Thanksgiving present, and we learn that he annually contributes the same amount to that institution.

We were misinformed in stating in Wednesday's issue that the Atlantic hose reel was the first at the scene of the fire on Third street. The A. Adrian hose reel was there before any of the others of the fire department.

We are requested by Lieut. Gov. Stedman to state that he has received a large number of public documents from Hon. R. T. Bennett, for distribution in this county. Any person desiring any of these documents can have them by calling at the law office of Stedman & Weill.

Good Shooting.
Mayor Fowler passed Thanksgiving with friends in the vicinity of Rocky Point and with two other gentlemen went partridge hunting during the day. They shot 32 birds, 27 of which were partridges.

Indications.
For North Carolina, fair weather, followed by rain in Western portion, light to fresh variable winds, generally shifting South and West, slightly colder in Western portion and stationary temperature in Eastern portion.

See the Othello Range at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood. Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for Winter use.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Our Little Ones.
Our Little Ones for December is at hand, thus bright and early. It is as handsome and attractive as ever, filled with nice matter and pretty pictures, both suited to the juvenile mind. It is cheap enough to be in the reach of all, as it is published at $1.50 a year. Russell Publishing Company, 36 Broomfield st., Boston.

Exports Foreign.
Br. steamship Ferncliffe, Pawley, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 4,004 bales of cotton, valued at $190,440. Nor. barque Olinia, Thorsen, cleared for Hull, England, with 2,403 barrels rosin, valued at $2,568, making a total of $193,008. Both cargoes were shipped by Messrs. Williams & Murehison.

Criminal Court.
The following were the proceedings before this tribunal to-day, up to the hour of closing our report:
State vs. Stephen Freeman, rape. Continued until 10 a. m. on Monday next.
State vs. John McKoy, cruelty to animals. Defendant and S. Van Amringe called and failed. Judgment nisi.
State vs. Aaron Vann, embezzlement. Nov on trial.

Drunk and Down.
The most completely drunken man that we have seen for many a day we found asleep on the stairs leading to our office this forenoon. He was drunk clear through and was actually more helpless than an infant newly born. There was not the least semblance of vitality in any of his limbs nor in any part of his body, but he was entirely limp and powerless. Quite a number of those who saw his utterly helpless condition thought that he was dead, but he was only dead drunk. A cart was called and he was taken to the guard house. We failed to learn his name or where the drunken man came from.

Joint Services.
Joint Thanksgiving services were held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church yesterday, at which Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Fifth Street M. E. Church, preached a sermon appropriate to the day and the occasion. The house was packed to overflowing and hundreds failed to gain admittance on account of the dense throng who had preceded them. At the close of the service a collection was taken up for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, and $76.14 were realized. This amount was turned over on the spot to Mr. C. H. Robinson, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of F. & A. M. of North Carolina, who will transmit the money to its destination.

City Court.
The following was the docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning:
Gil Edwards, colored, charged with larceny. Continued for the State on account of the absence of important witnesses.
Philip Ebra, colored, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. Fined $20 for the disorderly conduct with the alternative of 30 days in the chain gang. Judgment suspended in the case of resistance to the officer.

Henderson Hayes, colored, drunk and disorderly. In his case $20 or 30 days in the chain gang was the judgment of the court.

George Mullen and John Moran, two tramps without any visible means of support, were ordered to leave the city forthwith and an officer was directed to escort them outside the city limits.

One party, whose name we suppress by request, was arrested as a tramp, but he was discharged.

The Laws of Nature Teach Economy.
Follow them and you will not regret it, and will always have the wherewith to supply your necessities. Commence this week and start an interest saving fund. We will assist you if you'll come to select a suit or an overcoat for yourself or boys. We will save you on a $4, $5, $8 or $10 purchase from $1 to $3, and on a $12, $15, $20 or $25 or overcoat $5 to $10. Try us, then; put your savings in the Saving Bank, and then you lay the foundation stone of your future prosperity. The only sure road to success is by industry and economy. Trade where reliable goods are sold at bottom prices all the year round. I. Shrier, who has been known to you for nearly twenty years, will sell you reliable goods at the very lowest prices, whether you know goods or not, and who has no desire to hold on to a dollar spent in his store for goods you are not satisfied with. Again we would advise you to trade with I. Shrier, the Old Reliable Clothier, on Front street, next door to McIntire's dry goods store. Sign of the golden arm.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

The Review Job Office is the place to get good work at moderate prices.

Br. steamship Ferncliffe, Pawley, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 4,004 bales of cotton, valued at $190,440. Nor. barque Olinia, Thorsen, cleared for Hull, England, with 2,403 barrels rosin, valued at $2,568, making a total of $193,008. Both cargoes were shipped by Messrs. Williams & Murehison.

We failed to learn his name or where the drunken man came from.

To Confederates.
Mr. J. B. Frees, a druggist and botanist of 179 Sixth Avenue, New York, desires to communicate with the relatives or friends of a Capt. T. M. Barrett, or Garrett, who was with Company I, Fifth North Carolina regiment, and who was killed on the battlefield. Mr. Friess has in his possession a watch chain and other articles which were taken from the body of the slain Captain, and is anxious to restore them to the relatives. Charlotte Chronicle.

Thomas M. Garrett was Captain in the Fifth North Carolina regiment in May, 1861, and Colonel in 1863. The name of Barrett cannot be found. The relatives of Col. Garrett are believed to live in the vicinity of Tarboro, N. C.

The Committers.
The following is a list of the several committees recently appointed by the Chamber of Commerce:

Meteorological—F. W. Kerehner, W. L. DeRosset, George Harris.

Bar and River Improvements—George Harris, E. E. Heide, James Sprunt.

Transportation and Navigation—F. W. Kerehner, D. G. Worth, B. F. Hall.

Correspondence and Foreign Trade—G. W. Williams, A. L. DeRosset, G. W. Kidder.

Propositions and Grievances—A. Martin, H. Vollers, B. F. Mitchell.

Insurance and Finance—Isaac Bates, Thos. Evans, Samuel Northrop.

These are all re-appointments, except in the Meteorological Committee, in which F. W. Kerehner is appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. A. H. VanBokkelen; Wm. T. Daggett, on Committee on Propositions and Grievances, in place of Wm. H. McRary, deceased, and Sam'l Bear, Jr., on the Committee on Insurance and Finance, in place of E. E. Buruss, deceased.

Last Night's Fire.
At a few minutes after 10 o'clock last night, fire was discovered in the rear part of the one-story frame dwelling on Gwynne street, between McRae and Anderson, owned by Mrs. Gilbert and occupied by William Davis, colored. There was no one in the house at the time, but the alarm was given at once and the door burst open and an earnest effort was made to save as many of the household effects as possible. The fire seemed to have originated in an ell part in the rear of the building, and this with nearly all of the upper part of the main building was consumed. Some of Davis' furniture was saved, but the most of it was burned. The fire department responded promptly and worked with their accustomed energy to suppress the flames and to keep them from spreading. The A. Adrian was the first engine at the scene. The building was insured to the amount of $450 in the London Assurance
