THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26 1887 NO 280

DYSPEPSIA.

It is a misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a disordered arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspepsias no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsias are of two dominant types and a bilious temperament is subject to Sick Headache; those who are phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to indigestion. Some dyspepsias are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain.

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Alleviate Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. M. KERR, Fort Valley, Ga.

Ex-Senator James R. Doolittle, of New York has, proposed a strange scheme. His idea is that married men should have two votes, while the bachelors should have only one.

Ex-Senator Camden, of West Virginia, says that President Cleveland will be renominated without opposition, and that he does not believe that any Republican can carry New York.

Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, says that all the delegates from that State to the National Republican Convention must be for Blaine. There is said to be a strong probability of a split in the party.

Two months ago N. G. Yocum, a wealthy young man of Pasadena, Cal., suddenly disappeared. It has just been ascertained that he is insane, thinks that he is very poor and is working in a shingle mill in the interior of the State.

Secretary Whitney, although at his post, is not a well man. His physicians have advised him to spend a month or so in the Bermudas this Winter, and it is not improbable that he will act upon that advice after the opening of Congress.

Prof. Drummond, the bright young Scotchman who has been making a visit to some of the leading American colleges, says that to him their most remarkable feature is "their Christian tone." Their general atmosphere, he says, is Christian. "They are religious institutions."

Next year will mark the ter-centenary of the defeat of the Spanish Armada, and the bi-centenary of the establishment of the Protestant succession on the throne of England, and the Church party are preparing for a big celebration of the double event, in which all Protestants the world over will be asked to join.

Great quantities of peanuts are imported at the port of Antwerp, but not because the Dutch are fond of crunching the fragrant nut at the circus and in crowded cars on the elevated railroad. The nut is taken to Holland purely for business purposes, in order to extract the oil. The supply comes wholly from Africa.

Telegraphic communication will shortly begin between Russia and France. All dispatches at present come through Germany, and have recently been tampered with at Berlin. Russia, in the case of a war between Germany and Austria, would be entirely cut off from telegraphic communication with the remainder of Europe.

Mr. A. C. McDowall, our consular agent at the Piræus, Greece, sends the State department a few particulars about the Greek immigrants who are coming here in increased numbers. He says they are, as a rule, absolutely penniless and go to the United States to live by their wits, hoping in time to accumulate a little fortune of $2,000, the interest on which will enable them to live in ease for the rest of their lives.

A special Albany dispatch to the New York Times on Saturday last says: "Michael Rickard closed a 34-year engagement as locomotive engineer on the New York Central Railroad at 2 o'clock this morning when he back his engine into the Albany roundhouse. He was then receiving compensation at the rate of $125 per month. At 10 o'clock he was in the Capitol on the hill. At 11 o'clock he had been sworn into the service of the State of New York and was drawing a salary of $666 66 a month as railroad commissioner."

The New York Tribune prints a special dispatch from New Bedford, saying: "A letter was received in this city from Jefferson Davis, Beauvoir, Miss, in answer to a letter inquiring of him the difference between a Southern and Northern Democrat. He says: 'There should be no difference. There was none between Samuel Adams, of Massachusetts, and Thomas Jefferson, of Virginia, or between Senator Franklin Pierce, of New Hampshire, and John C. Calhoun, of South Carolina. Each of these, as types of Democracy of their day, regarded States as sovereign members of the Union and the Constitution as the compact by which they were voluntarily united.'"

The Russian Government now proposes to build a Trans-Siberian railway, to commence at the eastern terminus of the present Russian system and extend to the Pacific Ocean, a distance of 600 versts, or 3,959 miles. The cost is to be 380,000,000 roubles, or $615,000,000, of which sum $2,000,000 will be used on ten bridges.

The vapors of a so-called Democratic newspaper on the self-elected subject of "free drinks and free smokes" would be amusing if it were not so pitiful. It is sad to note the decadence of a once brilliant mind.

A "kicker" is a juvenile "independent." Once let a paper which has worked in the party harness get the notion into its noddle that it is wiser than the party, and the baby is born and only awaits a christening to become a full-fledged "independent." And then, sad experience shows that the shell soon drops from the "independent" and a full-proportioned, stalwart Republican is born into the world.

A Fine Statue.

There has been received at St. Thomas' Catholic Church, of this city, a life size statue of St. Thomas, the apostle, for whom the church is named. It has been placed in position on the West side of the altar, and it is indeed a fine piece of statuary. In one hand the statue holds a scroll, representing the Gospel, and in the other hand is a square. The countenance is remarkably expressive and seems almost endowed with life and the power to speak. It was imported from Europe expressly for the church, and, taken merely as a work of art, without regard to the devotional interest with which it is surrounded, it is really exquisite.

Bishop Northrop will officiate at St. Thomas' to-morrow and will make the services of much interest and instruction by an exhaustive discussion of the Catholic idea of the use of images in the service of that church. This is a subject upon which there is much lack of information in the Protestant world, and the discourses to-morrow will be calculated to enlighten the public mind in regard to that important matter. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Literary.

The Christmas number of Scribner's Magazine has been received and it is really one of the best numbers of this excellent periodical. There are many fine illustrations embellishing its pages and the reading matter embraces fiction, essays and narrative of travel. In poetry there are some of the best efforts of our own most prominent poets. In fact every department is replete with interest, instruction and wholesome entertainment. Scribner's, like wine, grows better with age, and we do not wonder that it has so quickly attained its true position in the very front rank of periodical literature. The present number closes the second volume, and the publishers promise that the next volume shall be superior to anything they have yet attained. Their list of contributors for the next volume embraces some of the best known and most popular writers in the country. Price 25 cents a number or $3 per annum, and published by Charles Scribner's Sons, New York.

A Question of Taxation.

A friend and subscriber at Viola, Pender county, complains to us that the land in Caintuck township, in that county, is much too highly taxed when it is considered that it is liable to overflow to the destruction of the crops. The land would be really valuable, but from the fact that it is frequently overflowed by freshets, either in the Cape Fear or Black rivers, and becomes comparatively valueless. There was almost a total destruction of the crops by the freshet of 1886, and the crops of the last season were materially injured from the same cause. There is but little timber now in the township and the people are obliged to obtain their support from agricultural sources, and as these latter are so liable to destruction from the cause we have named, it is the opinion of our correspondent that the taxes upon the land should be made less in consequence.

We will assist you if you'll come to select a suit or an overcoat for yourself or boys. Shrier, who has been known to you for nearly twenty years, will sell you reliable goods at the very lowest prices, whether you know goods or not, and who has no desire to hold on to a dollar spent in his store for goods you are not satisfied with. Again we would advise you to trade with I. Shrier, the Old Reliable Clothier, on Front street, next door to McIntire's dry goods store. Sign of the golden arm. †

This has been one of the most delightful days in November, and the people, both old and young, have taken advantage of the beautiful weather to be in the streets to enjoy the cheerful sunshine.

Criminal Court.

The following were the proceedings before this tribunal to-day, up to the hour of closing our report: State vs. Nathan Davis, seduction. Judgment one penny and costs. State vs. C. E. Bullard, false pretences. Jury out. State vs. John McKoy, cruelty to animals. Now on trial.

Painful Accident.

James Richardson, colored, while at work at the Champion Compress, at about 2 o'clock this morning, had the misfortune to have a deep gash cut in his head by the falling of a piece of iron upon it. He was conveyed to his home and surgical assistance was rendered, and the unfortunate man was so far recovered as to be able to be out to-day.

Paterson, Downing & Co., making a total of exports foreign amounting to $121,580.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ended November 26th, 1887, foot up 8,073 bales, as against 9,056 bales for the corresponding week last year; a decrease of 983 bales. The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 118,339 bales, as against 85,308 bales for the corresponding period last year; an increase of 33,031 bales.

A Kindly Appreciation.

The wife of Mr. E. T. Coghill, Manager of the Telephone Exchange in this city, has until recently been an able assistant to him in the discharge of the duties pertaining to that office. Within a few days, however, she has presented her husband with a fine daughter, and has assumed all the responsibilities and duties of motherhood. In appreciation of her services as an assistant to her husband in the management of the Exchange some of its subscribers have presented her with a purse of $26.50, which is to be invested in the purchase of a silver cup for the little welcome stranger.

Personal.

We were glad to see Mr. J. S. MeEachern on our streets this morning and to note that his health is nearly restored.

We regret exceedingly to learn that there is no perceptible improvement in the condition of Mr. E. J. Thorpe, whose serious illness we mentioned a few days since. We hope that we shall soon hear of a decided change for the better.

Mr. George H. Lennox, business agent for Marie Prescott, is in the city and gave us the pleasure of a call this morning. We found him to be a very clever gentleman and he represents a fine company, who will appear here on the nights of Dec. 2nd and 3rd next.
