chair. Divine service conducted by Rev. T. J. Gattis. The Bishop made rapid progress with routine work, and the order of the day having arrived the Confererence proceeded to consider the interests of Trinity College. President Crowell read his report. It was full of encouragement and information. He has reconstructed and reorganized the college upon a better basis; and altogether the ontlook is good. The endowment fund had already reached a very good sum. The Bishop made a remarkably good speech, and an appeal being made for the endowment, the sum of nearly $38,000 was recorded. The Finance Committee made their report, showing a large in crease over last year in the collections for widows and orphans. X.
