The State of Indiana has a separate prison for females, which is under woman's management. It has been suspected that great indignities and cruelties were heaped upon the inmates and a recent investigation shows that the stories have not been exaggerated. A witness before the investigating committee of the Legislature said: "I could tell you things which would make the very hair stand on your head—how the poor girls are knocked down, handcuffed, bucked and gagged and thrown into a little dark, damp cell and kept there for a week, two weeks, three weeks on four slices of old bread and two cups of water a day and three or four old comforts to lie on."

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,534 bales.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered to-night at the First Baptist Church.

Attention is invited to advertisement of Messrs. A. A. Brown & Co., insurance agents, as it appears in this issue.

Our streets have been full of strangers from the country all day, and they have done a large amount of trading with our merchants.

The four heavy plate glass windows for the new front in the old Purcell House have arrived. They are fine looking plates, 9 feet 2 inches high by 6 feet and 2 inches wide.

500 pair heavy Canton flannel drawers, just the thing for cold weather, from 35 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop. Drawers made to order.

"The Brook" Company, who are to play here to-morrow night and Saturday, will not leave the city until Sunday morning and hence the piece will be played in full on Saturday night. Mr. Davis, the Business Manager, gives us this assurance.

The steam yacht Myth, Capt. Marshall, is now lying at Barren Inlet, on her way from Seneca Lake, N. Y. to St. Augustine, Fla. Capt. Marshall is a former citizen of Wilmington, who will be remembered by many of our citizens. He was in the city to-day and gave us the pleasure of a call.

The festival at Brooklyn Hall last night, by the Ladies' Aid Society, for the benefit of Brooklyn Baptist Church was largely attended and was both a social and a financial success. We are glad to note the fact and to know that the church is in a prosperous condition.

Personal.
Mr. A. H. Paddison, of Burgaw, is in the city to-day.
Mr. M. M. Katz has gone to Goldsboro to attend the meeting of the Directors of the Insane Asylum, to be held there to-day, as has also Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of Rocky Point.

We were pleased to receive a visit to-day from Mr. Mack Davis, Business Manager of "The Brook," who is in the city for the purpose of making arrangements for the appearance of his company here to-morrow night.

The Opera House.
The attraction at the Opera House to-morrow night will be a musical and laughable extravaganza entitled "The Brook," which will be presented by the Marion Fleming Combination. There is but little pretensions to plot in the piece, it being merely the jollities, oddities and fun of a lively picnic party. In speaking of the play one of our exchanges says:

Journalism has sometimes occasion to lament, with reference to the stage, that the ministry of mirth is wantonly allied to the ministry of vulgarity and vice. In this instance the welcome demonstration is afforded that merriment can be diffused by the exercise of talent and the operation of animal spirits, directed upon a perfectly pure subject, and conducted with equal refinement and vigor.

A Good Appointment.
We were glad to see the kindly and familiar face of Rev. T. Page Ricard upon our streets this morning, and to learn that he was in the enjoyment of excellent health. His appointment to the Bladen Street M. E. Church for the Conference year affords much delight to the flock to whom he has been called to minister.

Fire in the County.
The dwelling house of Mr. Murphy McNair, at Plummersville, Robeson county, was destroyed by fire last Tuesday afternoon. The cause of the fire is unknown. There was insurance on the property to the amount of $1,200 in the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company, represented in this city by Messrs. Smith & Boatwright.

City Court.
There was a small docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning and it was disposed of in the following order:

One person, whose name we suppress at her especial request, was charged with keeping her bar open on Sunday last. The evidence was conclusive of her guilt, and she was fined $20 and costs for the offense. From this judgment the defendant appealed, when she was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 to prosecute the appeal.

Michael Logan, hailing from Alexandria, Va., applied for lodgings. He claimed to be a house and sign painter and was seeking work. He was granted until 3 o'clock this afternoon to either obtain employment or leave the city.

Harry Kentz, of Petersburg, Va., and John Smith, of England, were foot tourists who had no visible means of support and they were furnished with an escort outside the city limits.

The Jahrmakt.
The "Jahrmakt" gotten up by the ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran Church was opened at the City Hall last night, and was attended by a large throng of our citizens, who were delighted with what they saw and heard. There were booths and tables representing nearly all the nations of Europe and attended by fair damsels attired in the costumes of the country they represented. The hall was elegantly decorated and the scene was a beautiful living panorama, exhibiting kaleidoscopic pictures which were very attractive. There was a museum in which many curiosities were on exhibition among which was a pulpit chair 120 years old that was used in the first German Moravian Church in Salem, N. C. This was contributed by Mr. F. W. Foster, whose wife's ancestors were of the Moravian branch of the Lutheran Church. Mr. Foster has also loaned the "Jahrmakt" a spinning wheel more than 100 years old, which is in quite a good state of preservation, an Indian bow and arrow and quite a number of other articles of historic interest. Excellent contributions were also made by Miss Amy Bradley, Mrs. L. Hansen, Mrs. Wm. Doscher, Mrs. C. Schulken, Mrs. H. Glameyer, Mrs. A. Deumelandt, Miss Kate Bremer, Messrs. H. Kure, Wm. Neistlie, F. W. Ortman, Geo. Tienken and by Drs. G. M. Ellis and F. C. Miller. Even Sam Lee, the Chinese laundryman, contributed a complete Chinese costume.

Our space will not permit us to enumerate all the curious, interesting and historic articles that were on exhibition and for sale, and we must content ourselves with saying that the hall was full of them. There was beauty and attractiveness in every direction. The Germania Cornet Band were present and enlivened the occasion by playing some of their best selections. The "Jahrmakt" will be open again to-night, and there is every indication that the attendance will be as large as it was last night. The ladies, under whose skillful management the entertainment was gotten up, are to be congratulated upon the success which has thus far crowned their efforts.

Indications.
For North Carolina, slightly cooler and threatening weather with rain, followed by rising temperature and light to fresh Easterly winds.

A Sad Record.
The North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, for the year 1887, will be notable and sadly remembered on account of the fatality which attended it. While the Conference was in session, a distinguished divine, Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D., was stricken suddenly and unexpectedly down by the remorseless hand of death, and immediately after the adjournment, while the delegates were returning to their homes after a Conference of unusual interest and benefit to the M. E. Church, Capt. William M. Parker, of this city, was attacked and in a few short hours his spirit had taken flight to the God who gave it. Thus suddenly and unexpectedly a distinguished and learned divine, and one of the most prominent and useful laymen of the M. E. Church South were taken away, to live hereafter only in the memory of the large circle by whom they were beloved. In the death of Capt. Parker, Grace M. E. Church of this city loses one of its best and most useful members and the Sunday School connected with the church, and of which he had been Superintendent for many years, will suffer a great loss. Not only will his loss be keenly felt in the church and Sunday School, but in the business and social world he will be greatly missed.

Capt. Parker was a native of Hamburg, Conn., and was 59 years of age at the time of his death. He came to North Carolina in 1850 and settled at Ashboro. Subsequently he removed to Fayetteville, where he was employed as a clerk by the late Mr. Wm. R. Utley, a commission merchant at that place. At the commencement of the war he was one of the first to volunteer and served as a private in the Fayetteville Light Infantry of the First (Bohler) regiment until it was mustered out of service. During the latter part of the war he had charge of the State salt works on the coast below Wilmington. At the close of the war Capt. Parker engaged in business in this city with Mr. A. H. Neff, and in 1873 entered into partnership with Mr. James H. Taylor in the hardware business, in which he was engaged at the time of his death.

Capt. Parker was a man of strict integrity and honesty and in social life, while entirely unobtrusive and modest, was a most agreeable companion with a fund of quiet humor which was always pleasant and never offensive. Truly a good man has departed.

No arrangements will be made for the obsequies until the arrival of the remains which will be on to-night's train.

The Missing Men.
But little hope, if any, is now entertained as to the three lost young men. Messrs. Branch, Keeter and Barnitz, from this city, who were lost in Currituck Sound during the storm of last Thursday night. Mr. George Branch has returned to the city but we have not yet been able to see him. It is rumored that the boat in which the young men were returning to the ship has been found, and that Mr. Keeter's body was found in it, but this appears to be as yet mere rumor. Some reliable particulars may possibly be received here to-morrow.

A Gallant Fireman.
Mr. M. Rathjen, who has recently served as Foreman of Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1, has been for fourteen consecutive years a member of the company, for the latter eight years of which he has served as an officer. He could have been reelected as Foreman, but declined to serve another term and Mr. M. G. Tienken was chosen for the position. Mr. Rathjen has been noted as one of the most gallant of the many gallant firemen of the old and staunch Howard Relief and retired from the office he had filled with so much credit, both to himself and his company, amid the well earned plaudits of his fellow firemen. On his retirement he presented the company with a handsome rug, which has been placed in the engine hall.

See the Othello Range at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for winter use.

Important Meeting.
The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange was held on the 6th inst., and after the transaction of routine, unimportant to the general public, a communication was read from the Jacksonville, Fla., Board of Trade as to the Atlantic ports being represented on the Committee of Congress in the matter of river and harbor improvements, which, on motion, was referred to the Executive Council of the Chamber of Commerce, with the recommendation that Hon. A. M. Waddell be sent to Washington, D. C., to represent this port, and that his expenses be paid jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the Produce Exchange. This was subsequently concurred in by the Executive Council of the Chamber of Commerce.

A communication from sundry members was read, asking that the Produce Exchange and Chamber of Commerce would move in the matter of obtaining of the railroads excursion tickets good for 48 or 24 hours to this city.

On motion it was ordered that the same be approved and endorsed, by the Board and that Mr. B. F. Hall be appointed a committee to act for this Board with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, urging the matter on the railroad officials. This was concurred in by executive council of the Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Wm. Calder was appointed a committee to act with Mr. B. F. Hall.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Hedrick,
Says that he has been busy this season, because he has sold Dry Goods and Notions cheaper than ever before. He does not believe in letting goods get old by remaining on the shelves, when he can send them humming out of the door with just enough profit to keep him from starving. He says by selling goods on this plan, he can continually be putting New Styles and Fresh goods before the people all the time. Just so. They show us that they appreciate it by keeping us on our feet. We have no time to loiter. Make us warm in cold weather by keeping us busy. We don't expect everybody to buy. Make us show you our goods, for we have got them to show. We only propose to name a few prices to-day. You said we gave you some positive bargains last week, but look at this. Black goods are always reasonable. Not the kind of goods you look for down prices on. But here they are:
A 40-inch Black Wool Cashmere reduced from 75c to 50c.
A 40-inch Black all Wool Cashmere, (Lupin's) cheap at $1, reduced to 80c, only a small quantity left.
A 40-inch Black Flannel, all wool, for 55c. The cheapest article in the city.
Camel's Hair Goods, Grenadines and French Woven Stripes, in Black, all have been reduced from 15 per cent. to 25 per cent.
Plaids and Stripes are "Quite English You Know," and they are all the go this season, nothing prettier for a lady to wear, very neat and stylish. We have a few pieces of these Plaids and Stripes left, all wool, 38 inches wide, at 60c., imported goods, and very cheap. Come down and see any and everything in the Dress Goods line, and all have been marked down. They must go. Braid and trimmings to match.
HOSIERY—
We have left about 25 dozen Black Ribbed Hose for Children, worth 25c., for 12c. No large sizes accounts for the price. From 5 to 7 inches in size. Ladies' Fine Black Cashmere Hose at 75c., worth $1. Fleeced Hose, colored and black, at all prices. Come down and see the largest line in the city.
Eiderdown and Jersey Flannel. A few pieces in light colors left, pink, blue, cream and grey, best quality reduced from 75c. to 65c. Jersey Flannel 50c., worth 65c. It does not pay to keep these goods. They must go.
Have you seen those Madings, Table Scarfs and Mats at Hedrick's? No! well put on your bonnet and go right down. They are going like hot cakes. Table Scarfs at $1, that cannot be bought for less than $1.25 in New York. Mantling at 60c. and 75c. per yard.
Handkerchiefs and Gloves. A Handkerchief for every man, woman and child in Wilmington. From the finest embroidered at $3.50 to the cheapest plain handkerchief at 2 1/2c.
40 dozen Gloves, a good quality, at cost, warranted perfect. Our banner still floats and proclaims us headquarters for Linen and White Goods of all kinds. Gentlemen's depot for Collars, Cuffs, Shirts, Half Hose, Gloves, Handkerchiefs and Neckwear, 50 per cent. cheaper than you can buy them elsewhere in the city. "Everything goes." Even Gossamers twenty-five dozen; Ladies' and Children's Gossamers from $1.25 to $5. No bad goods among these. Warranted not to leak.
We have only quoted a few prices, but come down and let us prove what we say is true. Everything in our line cheaper than the cheapest. We must have room for a few Christmas goods. Respectfully,
J. J. Hedrick,

The Supreme Court has decided that there are some States Rights that even Judge Bond is bound to respect.

Mr. Charles Dickens, Jr., thinks Niagara Falls "a place of abject terror," and cannot understand what his father was thinking of when he called it a place of peace and rest.

A dispatch from Galveston, Texas, says that the new-born infant of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Giddings, of that city, is the first girl vouchsafed to the Giddings family for over one hundred and twenty years.

There is a farmer within four miles of Lincoln, Ill., who appears to be particularly fitted to become a professional juror. Up to the day of their execution he had never heard of the Chicago Anarchists.

Lord Salisbury recently sold his property between the Thames embankment and the Strand for $1,000,000. By the increase in the value of house property in London he is now one of the richest men in England.

Our friends in the Republican camp should be at once making active preparations to secure a large campaign fund as they may need the greater part of it to induce somebody to take the nomination for President next year.

The Omaha World has been interviewing Thomas Nast, the great caricaturist. Nast spoke freely of his political convictions and completely contradicted the popular belief that he has not been in sympathy with the Mugwump proclivities of Harper's Weekly. Mr. Nast said plainly and emphatically what he had never said for publication before—that he would not and could not have supported Mr. Blaine under any circumstances.

Mexican hogs, which are a cross between the Spanish and the wild hog of the Mexican mountains, are raised with profit in Mexico, but not in any considerable numbers. They average 175 pounds in weight, and are killed chiefly for their lard, which is worth 20 cents a pound. Fresh pork is worth 12 1/2 cents a pound, but is eaten very little, for most people can't afford it. It is said that Monterey, which has 50,000 inhabitants, eats only about five hogs a day.

Mr. John P. St. John, of Kansas, who was formerly known as a temperance advocate, but has latterly been conspicuous in the Third party strike, says he thinks Gen. C. B. Clark, of New Jersey, will be the Prohibitionist candidate for President next year. Mr. Blaine and Mr. Cleveland will, in his opinion, be the Republican and Democratic candidates respectively, and he modestly adds that the Third party "will have the same standing in the campaign of 1888 that the Republicans had in 1860."
