The Daily Review. JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, '87. Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C. as second-class matter.

The most inhuman punishment of child by its parents ever brought to light in this country was in the case of a small colored boy of Boson, who was examined by the municipal Court of that city on Friday. The boy was punished for going skating without permission by being placed with his bare feet upon a hot stove until his soles were blistered. The father confessed the atrocious deed, but said that he was compelled to do something to keep the child at home.

An association, already numbering over two thousand persons, has been formed in New Orleans for the protection of the Democratic gubernatorial primarics to be held in that city in a few weeks. The contest for the nomination for Governor between the Hon. S. D McEnery and Ex-Governor Francis T. Nicholls is exciting much interest throughout the State. The country parishes which have so far elected delegates to the State Convention send fortythree Nicholls and twelve McEnery delegates, but the friends of the latter still express confidence that their favorite will be renominated.
