THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1887 NO 292

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
TORPID LIVER
Known by these marked peculiarities: A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and furred tongue. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea. Headache, in the front of the head, nausea, dizziness, and yellowness of skin. Heartburn, loss of appetite. Distention of the stomach and bowels by wind. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow. A natural flow of bile from the Liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in

BILIOUSNESS.
If neglected, soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons' Liver Regulator restores the Liver to its normal working order, regulates the flow of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their work. After taking this medicine one will say, "I am bilious."
I have been subject to severe spells of biliousness, and have been in the hospital from 15 to 20 days of calomel which only laid me up for three or four days. I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator which gave me relief without any interruption of business. J. H. WOOD, Middleport, Ohio.

ONLY GENUINE
Stamp in red on front of Wrapper. Wm. C. Cullen & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.
NOV 26 to 1st Sat ch Sat

The wife of Senator Edmunds of Vermont, who is in poor health, will spend the winter in Aiken, S. C.

Parts of Iowa, have been flooded with counterfeit dollars made of cast iron heavily plated with silver. Ordinary acids fail to affect them and they can only be detected by their ring.

The proper thing in neckwear among the swells of San Antonio, Tex., is a scarf made of snake's rattles. The skins are prepared by a Texan, who has a snake ranch near the city.

A released convict from the Nebraska State Prison has brought suit against the attorney who defended him, for $30,000 damages. He claims that he was convicted through the lawyer's malpractice.

The first underground railway in London was opened, in 1863, from Farringdon street to Paddington. The system is now so extended that 136,000,000 passengers are carried on the underground railroads every year.

William C. Heaton, of South Carolina, while at a hotel in Philadelphia in 1865 was robbed of a valuable gold watch. He settled in Glassboro, N. J., and on Tuesday, the twenty-second anniversary of the robbery, found a package on the floor of a shed adjoining his house. Inside was a costly gold watch and a card bearing the following inscription: "In this box you will find a gold watch to be recognized as a substitute for the one taken from your room in Philadelphia in 1865."

The New York Herald has of late years become the best friend that the people of the South have, North of Mason & Dixon's line. Always independent, it is at the same time always fearless, and it has a way of speaking right out in meeting that meets with much favor at the hands of progressive men. It is always ready to defend the South whenever any unjust aspersions have been made against this section, and when it speaks its voice is heard all over the world. Well, there is but one New York Herald and James Gordon Bennett is its prophet.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Petersburg Index-Appeal evidently thinks that John Nicholls will be the Republican nominee for Governor and it may be that he is right. He says:

That there is a quiet movement among a few of the Republican leaders in this State to obtain the consent of Judge Thomas Settle, to again allow the use of his name for the gubernatorial nomination at the hands of that party, is generally believed, but those best acquainted with that gentleman do not believe that he will, in any event, accept. Though Judge Settle is an able man, and would in some respects make as available a candidate as any Republican who could be placed in the field, there is no good reason to suppose that he would yield the lucrative life-long office of Judge of the United States District Court of Florida, which he now holds, to enter the very uncertain arena of politics, especially with the chances so largely against him, as is undoubtedly the case in this State. Besides, he is not overstocked with worldly goods, and the general state of his health has not been such of late years as to warrant him in undergoing the arduous task that a gubernatorial campaign would impose. The salary of Governor of North Carolina is only $3,000 per annum, and he would, of course, have no opportunity to increase his income by way of practicing his profession. For the last few years the Republican nomination for Governor in this State has "gone begging," none of the most prominent men of the party being willing to make the sacrifice incurred by running. It can, therefore, be safely predicted that Judge Settle will not run, and that the nominee will be some of the lesser lights to whom honor would revert by being merely allowed to make the race. It is still more than likely that Nicholls will be the man, and his candidacy will be based upon his supposed ability to carry with him a good portion of the independent workingmen of the State by virtue of his position as one of the chief members of the Knights of Labor. Indeed it would seem that he is preparing the way for the candidacy, as in the vote for the speakership of the house of representatives on Monday last he did not identify himself with either of the great parties. This, of course, would not affect his vote in the nominating convention of the Republican party, because it will be understood as a master-piece of political tactics, and is in pursuance of the same rule by which he received first the nomination of the labor party for Congress, with the distinct understanding that this was to be followed by an emphatic endorsement of the Republican convention. It can be thus summed up that the chances are largely in favor of the nomination of Nicholls, and the re-enactment of the same old rule of a labor nomination with a "Republican annex."

Indications.
For North Carolina, slightly warmer with rain, light to fresh variable winds, except fresh to brisk on the coast.

The Ministers Present.
The following ministers were in attendance at the funeral services of Capt. W. M. Parker, at the residence of Mr. W. E. Springer, yesterday afternoon: Revs. E. A. Yates, D. D., T. Page Ricard, F. A. Bishop, D. H. Tuttle, J. R. Sawyer, T. H. Pritchard, D. D.

Literary Entertainment.
We are requested to state that Hon. A. M. Waddell will deliver a lecture sometime during the next week for the benefit of St. Agnes' Guild, on subjects humorous, historical and literary in matters pertaining to local interests. The time for the delivery of the lecture has not yet been fixed, but it will be made known to the public in due season.

The First Shipment.
Schr Belle Brown, Perry, is loading in this city for San Domingo with lumber and ice. One half of the ice which is being shipped is manufactured by Messrs. W. E. Worth & Co., at their ice factory in this city, and it will be the first in voice of ice ever made here and shipped to a foreign port. We hope that it may be the forerunner of many shipments to follow.

Rev. W. S. Creasy.
The Durham Plant says of this distinguished divine who has been appointed by Conference to take charge of Grace M. E. Church in this city for the following Conference year:

While Trinity church will extend to her new pastor, Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates, a cordial and hearty welcome, she will give up her former pastor, Rev. W. S. Creasy, with many regrets. Mr. Creasy has done more toward building up and strengthening Methodism in Durham than any preacher who has preceded him. The members of the church love him, and the people of Durham all like him. He is a fluent talker, a fine preacher, and best of all thoroughly consecrated to his Master's work. The best wishes of all Durham follow this good man and his family. Wilmington is to be congratulated.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

The Opera House.
Miss Marion Fleming, one of the most charming comedienne that has visited Wilmington for a long time, made her appearance at the Opera House last night, in "The Brook," a mirth-provoking musical extravaganza. She was supported by a good company, and although the weather was about as unpropitious as it well could be, there was a fair attendance, and to say they were delighted is but giving their sentiments a tame expression. They were convulsed with laughter. In fact "The Brook" had its rise in a spring of happy thoughts which flows bubbling and joyous to a river of genuine mirth and finally empties in a sea of uproarious jollity. Miss Fleming as Rose Dimplecheek, was full of life, vivacity and music. She has a good and well-trained voice and her songs were rendered in her happiest vein. They gave a matinee this afternoon which was well attended considering the threatening aspect of the weather, and they will conclude their engagement here to-night, when it is hoped that they may be greeted with a crowded house.

In two weeks from to-night it will be Christmas Eve. We say this for the benefit of the young boys and girls, fearing that they may forget the fact.

Steamboatmen report about five feet of water on the shoals in the Cape Fear with the river slowly rising.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance at the Opera House this afternoon was not so large as the merits of the company and the play demanded.

The number of strangers from the country who are here to lay in their supply of Christmas goods does not seem to be much diminished on account of the bad weather. They are to be seen in nearly all the stores.

At St. James'.
Rev. Robert Strange will arrive in the city on Thursday, the 15th inst., and will take charge of St. James' Church on the following Sunday. Rev. Dr. Flagg, who has filled the pulpit of St. James' for several weeks in a highly satisfactory manner, will conclude his service with that church on Sunday next, after which he will return to his home in New York.

The Rain.
The storm of rain which fell in torrents here during nearly all of last night, extended well into the upper Cape Fear section, but the fall was gentle and light to what we experienced. The rainfall in this city from 9 a. m. yesterday, to 3 p. m. to-day amounted to 1.68 inches. During the same hours the rainfall at Southport amounted to 3.70 inches. We have no reports from other points, but hear that the rain was general throughout this section.

Death of An Old Citizen.
Mr. James Orrell, for many years a well-known lighterman of this city, died at his residence, No. 624 North Fourth street, at 4 o'clock this morning at the advanced age of 80 years. He had been failing for several days, and owing to his great age, it was impossible for him to recuperate. He had been a resident of Wilmington ever since his young manhood and had always been known as an honest, hard-working man, who, to use the expression of one who knew him well, was "as true as steel." His wife and several children survive him.

The Star of Bethlehem.
This celestial body, which has always borne part in rhyme and story with the birth of Christ, and was for a long time regarded by many as purely mythical, is, after an absence of 315 years, visible in the Eastern skies between 4 a. m. and daylight. That this is the veritable star so often referred to admits of no doubt, for the astronomers say that it makes its appearance once in every 314 or 315 years. Taking the average 314½ years and multiplying by six, the result is 1887, the exact number of years since the birth of Christ. This proof is absolute and admits of no denial. To the naked eye the star appears to be about one-eighth the size of the moon. Its position is about east by south.

City Court.
The first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was that of James Debois, colored, who was arrested on suspicion. His case was continued.

Hamilton Jones, colored, drunk and disorderly. The judgment of the Court was that the defendant pay a fine of $30 or work in the chain gang for 30 days.

James Monroe Wilkins, colored, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days in the chain gang.

John Nixon, colored, the English tramp, who was ordered to leave town yesterday, returned and was arrested. He said that he had been after a cart and had returned for his chest. He was told to get his things at once and leave the city.

James Chambers and Willie Robinson, two colored boys were arrested for fighting at Front street market. Chambers was discharged and it was ordered that Robinson be locked up until Monday morning.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Cotton.
The receipts of cotton at this port from Dec. 1st, 1887, to Dec. 10th, 1887, foot up 10,159 bales, as against 9,681 bales for the corresponding time last year; an increase of 478 bales. The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 134,339 bales against 98,864 bales for the corresponding period last year; an increase of 35,475 bales. The receipts for the entire crop year which closed September 1st, 1887, foot up 134,307 bales, which is 32 bales less than we have received up to the present time this year, so that we are already 32 bales ahead of last year's total receipts.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.
CHURCH ROOM ST. JAMES' CHURCH, December 6, 1887.
The following tribute of respect was passed by the Vestry of St. James' Church: WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to take out of this world the soul of our deceased brother, EDWIN J. THORPE, a communicant and for five years past the faithful and efficient organist of this Church, therefore,
Resolved, That we deeply regret the loss which this parish has sustained as well as this community, of which he was a valued and respected citizen, by his removal from among us in the prime of his life and in the midst of a career of remarkable usefulness and promise.
Resolved, That we tender to his widow and family our sincere sympathy in their sorrow, praying that our Heavenly Father will remember them in mercy and give them comfort and peace in their affliction.
