Lieut. Harrington, who fell at the Custer massacre, married one of the State's present annual surplus. most popular belles of West Point. His wife could not realize that he much that her mind became affecthome in Dallas, Texas. Nothing had been heard of her until her return the other day to her sister. For three years her mind has been a blank. She has wandered about from place to place, supporting herself by doing the most menial work. At last she seemed to regain her reason and the remembrance of her sister flashed across her mind. She wrote to her and stated her condition. Her sister went to herat once and found her in poverty and looking as if she were 60 years of age instead of 37. She is now receiving tion to recover her mind.

There has been considerable gossip in social political circles in Washington of late over the reported engagement, or rather re-engugement, patch. of Mr. Fred Winston, of Chicago, to Miss Eleanor Calhoun, the actress, Mr. Winston will be remembered as the gentleman who represented the United States at the Persian Court | Her. about two years ago. Miss Calhoun has been a member of the Drury Lane Theate Company, in London, for the past few seasons. An en-live for five years longer in Washgagement existed between Mr. Winston and Miss Calhoun at the time the former sailed for Teheran. The gossip at that time was that the two were to be married at Constantinople en route. Miss Calhoun, it appears, changed her mind at the last moment, and subsequently her engagement to Mr. Will Hearst, son a wholesale house. Profitable, genuine. Good of the California millionaire Senator, was announced by cable from London. The opposition of young Mr. Hearst's parents caused the breaking off of the affair. Now it is said that Mr. Winston and Miss extent. A Bilious man is seldom a Calhoun have reconciled their difinjuries to the natural drums.
