THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14 1887. NO 295.

TORPID LIVER
Known by these marked peculiarities:
1. A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs.
2. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and furrowed tongue.
3. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhea.
4. Headache, in the front of the head; vertigo, dizziness, and yellowness of the skin.
5. Heartburn, loss of appetite.
6. Distention of the stomach and bowels by wind.
7. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow.
A natural flow of bile from the liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed its results in which, if neglected, soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the liver to its proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their work. After taking any medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

BILIOUSNESS,
"I have been subject to severe spells of Constipation of the liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel which generally had me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief without any interruption to my work."
— J. H. Hugg, Middleport, Ohio.

No. 26 to 1st & 4th st.

The corn crop of the South is unprecedentedly large.

Bartow, Fla., has erected $80,000 worth of brick buildings this year.

A German tourist has been around the world at a cost of $900. The voyage took 185 days.

The peanut harvest in Virginia is estimated at 1,600,000 bushels, and nine peanut factories clean and sort the nuts for market.

Sanford, Fla., is not only arising phoenix-like from her ashes, but is considering the opening of new streets and the extension of old ones.

A large deposit of asbestos, 5,000 yards square, 23 feet deep, has just been uncovered in Quebec. The veins range from one-half to one and a half inches.

Eleven hundred puddling furnaces of Alleghany county, Pa., are running double turn and 100 furnaces single turn, turning out 2,700 tons of muck bars per day.

English ironworkers are alarmed at the report that a New York syndicate is about closing for the control of all the iron deposits of the Dominion of Canada.

Electric light machinery is being shipped from New York to all parts of Europe and Great Britain. The American machinery seems to be desirable where great power is wanted.

The increase of capital by national banks in Alabama in five years from 1882 to 1887 was $2,963,275, or about 113 per cent. Eleven new banks were established in the State in five years.

Maine is becoming a great canning State. Eighty canning factories have, during the past year, put up over 14,000,000 cans of sweet corn, besides large quantities of apples, beans, tomatoes and other vegetables and fruit.

Sir Augustus Paget might have succeeded Lord Lyons as British Ambassador to Paris but for the fact that he had married a German wife. Moral: Politicians should be careful not to marry out of their own country.

In order to try the extent to which a tragic actress is moved by the whirl of stage passion Sarah Bernhardt's pulse was once tested at the wings immediately after a scene of great intensity. It ticked as regularly and normally as an eight-day clock.

There is in London a Masonic Lodge, membership to which is limited to men possessing either literary or artistic qualification. It is called the Lodge of the Quartour Coronati, and Sir Charles Warren was president and Walter Besant treasurer from its foundation in 1884 until recently, when Sir Charles was compelled by the constitution to retire. He was presented on his retirement with thirty books, all written by members of the Lodge.

The Boston Transcript, commenting on the proposed Presidential ticket of Harrison and Hawley, says that there is one objection to it. "Hooray for Harrison and Hawley" would be a very trying shout for the British-American Republicans.

Philadelphia Times: If Senator Chandler has been, as asserted, contemplating an attack upon the administration of his successor in the Department of the Navy, Mr. Whitney, he will find himself in the condition of the man who went out to hunt the tiger and found the tiger hunting for him.

Washington letter: In conversation, those who are nearest to the President state very plainly that there was method in the President's message. It not only forced Blaine into the field, but it is the beginning of a succession of proposed movements on the field of national politics which will disclose a system of grand tactics which will present the President in the light of one of the most sagacious and far-seeing political managers who has ever occupied the Executive chair.

The all-absorbing question now among Republicans, is, who will be the Presidential nominee of the party? The nominating convention will be held in Chicago, and the "woods are full" of candidates, but who among them will be selected? There is Blaine, Sherman, Evarts, Depew, Phelps and a host of others who are willing to be a figure-head for the party in the battle, even though defeat stares them in the face. We had almost forgotten that there is the poor snubbed Foraker, who would deem it an honor to be immolated like a martyr on the altar of the principles of his party. At the present writing it looks as if whoever shall be nominated by that party of "grand moral ideas" will be assuredly defeated. That is a foregone conclusion, but the query now is, who is to be doomed? That is a question which will cause much anxiety to the prominent aspirants from now until the action of the convention shall decide the matter. There seems to be but little doubt in the minds of Democrats as to who their candidate will be, nor does there seem a doubt which should cause anxiety that he will be triumphantly elected.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,243 bales.

Cotton took another advance in price in New York to-day.

Draymen are having a real jubilee of hard work and they are making the most of it.

Ger. barque Wilhelm Mack, Fretwurst, hence, arrived at Fleetwood, Eng., Dec. 12th.

The Signal Office is improving in its indications, but it still proves to be a trifle behind time.

The disagreeable weather this morning failed to keep purchasers of Christmas goods indoors, for they were out in force.

Schr. Adline, Dennison, cleared to-day for Aguadilla, Porto Rico, with 196,836 feet lumber, valued at $2,638 27, shipped by Mr. E. Kidder's Son.

The work of clearing up the debris on the Bridgers lot goes on very slowly. Only a few hands are employed there and they don't seem to be in any hurry.

The U. S. steamer Woodbury, Capt. Woodside, came up to the city last night, but will return again to her work at the mouth of the river this afternoon.

Workmen are employed in making some needed repairs and improvements to the front of the store of Messrs. Williams, Rankin & Co., on North Water street.

For the amount of business that is being done upon our streets there seems to be a remarkable dearth of news. This is not merely the case with reporters, but seems to be the complaint of all classes of people.

Cape Fear S. F. E. Co.

At a regular meeting of the Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Co., held last Monday night the following officers were elected:
Foreman—J. N. McDuffie.
First Assistant Foreman—Isaac Brinkley.
Second Assistant Foreman—Elias Campbell.

Look Here, Mister!

A man's first duty is to himself and that is to keep warm and comfortable. Good clothing is cheaper than doctors' bills and nasty medicine. Heat is life, cold is death. Protect the body with warm woolen under-clothing and stout over clothing and you will be ready for any blizzard, little or big, that may stray in this direction. You can get the best clothing and furnishing goods of A. Shrier, and for the least money. Every article warranted as represented at the new clothing house of A. Shrier, at the old stand, on Market street.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

Good Work.

Superintendent of Streets, Mr. Sholar, with the force at his command, is doing good and much needed work in the Custom House alley. For a long time this has been one of the worst thoroughfares in the city, and it has been absolutely dangerous for the passage of vehicles. A regular grade has now been established and when the work is completed the alley will be as safe and easy for the passage of vehicles as any in the city. The task was larger than was expected and considerable time has been expended in the work, but it has told to the advantage of the city.

Vicar Apostolic.

Abbot Leo Haid, of St. Mary's College, Gaston county, has had conferred upon him by the Pope the distinguished honor of Vicar Apostolic of the Diocese of North Carolina, and his consecration as such will take place immediately after Easter. Rt. Rev. Leo Haid was consecrated as Abbot of St. Mary's College on Thanksgiving Day, 1885, at the Cathedral Chapel, by Rt. Rev. Bishop Northrop. Previous to coming South, Abbot Haid was chaplain at St. Vincent's College in Pennsylvania, which is the largest institution in the country under the charge of the Benedictine Fathers. His piety and zeal in administering the duties of his position won for him the profound esteem of the Order, and it was because they wished to make St. Mary's College in North Carolina one of the first institutions under their supervision that they selected Abbot Haid. His course at St. Mary's has been marked by the most phenomenal success and it was his ability in directing and his prudence in acting that recommended him to the Pope for the position of Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina, and the honor could not have been more worthily bestowed.

The Tourist's Delight.

The eighth page of the New York Home Journal of the 7th inst. is devoted exclusively to matter pertaining to Florida as a health and pleasure resort and to the excellent accommodations furnished by the Atlantic Coast Line as a means of getting to that favored land in the cheapest and most expeditious manner, while at the same time the tourist is surrounded with every comfort and luxury of home. The reading matter is embellished and illustrated by numerous well executed cuts, representing the style of the vestibule cars which are used on this line, by which the tourist is freed from the dust and dirt of ordinary cars, and also of the most prominent hotels along the line of travel and in Florida. The magnitude of this enterprise and the excellence of all the arrangements are features in railroad management which must be seen and studied to be believed and appreciated. These vestibule cars, which were described at length in our columns several weeks ago, are marvels of neatness, convenience and luxury combined and the tourist can leave New York at half past 9 o'clock in the morning and arrive at St. Augustine in season for dinner the day following. It is like bringing the climate and the rich fruitage of a semi-tropical country to your very doors.

John Brown, colored, charged with larceny, furnished the only case for the Mayor's consideration this morning. He confessed his guilt and was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $100, in default of which he was committed.

We learn that quite a number of our young people, who are to take prominent parts in the presentation of the comic Opera of "The Little Tycoon," went to Richmond this morning to witness the performance of the same Opera by professionals at the theatre in that city to-night.

Indications.
For North Carolina, slightly warmer for weather, followed by rain with light to fresh Easterly winds, increasing in force.

The Opera House.

The Rose Osborne Combination will commence a three nights' engagement at the Opera House here to-morrow night. The piece selected for the opening night is "Fortune's Fool," an emotional drama which has become popular wherever it has been presented. Miss Osborne is an emotional actress of more than ordinary merit, and she has a carefully selected company as her support, and she also has her own orchestra, which is said to be a fine one. In speaking of the actress and the play, the New York Star says: "Miss Rose Osborne presented 'Fortune's Fool' to a large audience and in a very acceptable manner at Pool's Theatre on Monday evening. Miss Osborne is an actress of considerable merit, with a voice well trained and full of power. Her support was fully up to expectation, and the play was exceedingly well rendered throughout, and the music was grand.

"A Dead Duck."

Two young sportsmen of our city went out early yesterday morning to see if they could shoot a brace or two of ducks, and to make the chances better for securing their game, they took with them a domestic duck to use as a decoy. Upon reaching the pond one of the sportsmen, whose name we care not to give (but Will if ard pushed) went out in a boat to place the decoy, while the other, after wandering about among the bogs and mires for some time, had his well-nigh exhausted patience restored by the sight of a flock of ducks at which he blazed away. As the smoke of the powder cleared away the ducks were seen overhead pursuing the even tenor of their way, seemingly undisturbed by the report of the gun. The sportsmen were sadly disappointed, and the decoy, after slowly looking around, took in the situation and quietly put his head under his wing and sank, to rise no more, beneath the placid waters of McIlhenny's mill pond.

Personal.

Mr. Robert Lee, of Bladen, was in the city to-day.

Hon. James C. McRae, Judge of the Superior Court is in the city on a short visit.

Mr. R. R. Taylor, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Sumter, is here on a visit.

Mr. Willis Turlington, of Bennettsville, S. C., is in the city on a visit to relatives here.

We were pleased to receive a visit yesterday afternoon from Mr. W. E. Thigpen, of Chadbourn, who was in the city on a brief visit.

Mr. Max Lowenthal, the advance agent of the Patti Rosa company, was in the city yesterday. The company will appear here in "Bob" on the 18th inst.

We hear good news from Hon. Alfred Rowland, Representative in Congress from this district. He was well enough to appear at the opening of Congress and is said to be rapidly recovering now.

Durham Recorder: Mr. W. F. Ellis did the handsome thing by presenting Albert Creasy, son of Rev. W. S. Creasy, with a watch. Albert has been a faithful employee, but goes with his father to Wilmington.

Mayor Fowler has received a communication from Hon. F. Ybarra O. Chijo, mayor of the city of Yucatan, announcing the safe arrival in that city of Mr. Wm. Latimer, president of the Acme Manufacturing Company, and of Capt. Henry Savage, manager of the same company, who are on a business trip through a portion of Central America.

A Coming Storm.

The observer at the Signal Office here has received the following from the Chief Signal Office at Washington:
Cautionary Northeast signals are ordered up at Charleston. The storm centre is South of Mobile, moving East, Northeasterly winds.

Little Busy Bees.

The "Busy Bees," a juvenile organization in St. John's Church, will give an entertainment at the City Hall on next Thursday evening for the benefit of the Thompson Orphanage, at Charlotte. This institution is under the control of the Episcopal Church but its benefits are not confined to that church, as there are no denominational limits to the good work it is doing. The little misses are making great preparations for the event and will present for sale a variety of tasteful and attractive articles for the holiday season. They should be liberally patronized.

A Sensation Spoiled.

A few days since an old hound that belonged to one of the conductors on the Carolina Central Railroad died somewhere near Shelby, and the owner sent a couple of men to bury the animal. The men buried the dead dog and fixed up a nice mound over his remains, and at each end of the mound they stuck a piece of shingle. Some hunters in the woods a few days after came across the mound and at once concluded that some one had been murdered and buried there, and with this idea they notified the coroner. He directed them to return and exhume the remains and stay by them until he could summon a jury and get them to the scene. When it was discovered what the remains were the party made all haste to notify the coroner of the fact but he had summoned a jury and was on his way to the spot when the mistake was explained.

Mrs. Huske's Remains.

Mrs. Huske's remains did not arrive here this morning, as was expected, and hence the interment could not take place this afternoon. They were stopped at Jessup, Ga., because of some absurd ordinance of the city of Savannah, not allowing them to pass that city, on account of the death having taken place in Florida. Mr. Huske remained with them and Mrs. Snowden, wife of Dr. P. G. Snowden, of Ocala, an intimate friend of the deceased lady, who accompanied the body, came on to this city with Mr. Huske's two young children.

Mrs. Huske died of heart disease and her death was very sudden, having taken place in probably ten minutes after the attack. Mr. Huske was not with her at the time, having left her for his orange plantation not more than two hours previously. The remains are expected here to-night and the interment will therefore in all probability take place to-morrow.

Another Great Sacrifice in Fine Custom Made Clothing.

I. Shrier, desiring to close out every dollar's worth of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, and to make quick work of it, will sell out his entire Winter stock regardless of cost. The real cost or actual value of the goods will have nothing to do with the low prices. His main object is to open up in the large and handsome store in the Purcell building, by the 15th of December, with one of the finest stocks of ready-made clothing. All goods on hand will be slaughtered off. Remember, this is no sensational or humbug scheme, and don't miss the opportunity of getting a bargain of the well known I. Shrier, the Old Reliable, on Front street, next door to McIntire's dry-goods store, sign of the golden arm.
