THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16 1887 NO 297

TORPID LIVER

Is known by these marked peculiarities:
1. A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs.
2. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and a furred tongue.
3. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea.
4. Headache, in the front of the head; nausea, dizziness, and yellowness of skin.
5. Heartburn, loss of appetite.
6. Distention of the stomach and bowels by wind.
7. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow.
A natural flow of bile from the liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in which, if neglected, soon leads to serious disease. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the liver to proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

BILIOUSNESS,

"I have been subject to severe spells of Congestion of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel which generally laid me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief without any interruption to business."—J. Huog, Middleport, Ohio.

Mr. Blaine expects to wait for Santa Claus in Paris.

Harry Hill's old place on Houston street, New York, is said to be haunted by ghosts.

Mr. Gladstone will celebrate the seventy-ninth anniversary of his birth on Thursday, the 20th inst.

The United States Marshal at Salt Lake has seized the Mormon Church President's office, books, ledgers, etc.

The fund as a testimonial to Edward Burgess, designer of the Volunteer, has increased to more than $10,000.

A movement has been successful in the New York Cotton Exchange to make the Saturday before Christmas a holiday.

The American architects are forming State organizations where there are none, and increasing membership where organizations exist.

Ex-Secretary of the Treasury McCulloch thinks the President's message most admirable, and approves all he advised as to reform in the tariff.

Henry George has definitely decided not to be a candidate for the Presidency next year, and not to put the Labor party into the campaign.

Opera boots have eight rows of stitches up and down the boot top, and nothing but this novelty sells now. The manufacturers in Massachusetts are turning out a good many of them.

The members of the National Builders' Association are endeavoring to work up a system of employees' insurance that will be satisfactory to both sides. The German system is being studied.

Our neighbors of Charleston, S. C., held a municipal election on the 12th inst., which resulted in a Democratic triumph throughout. There were Republicans in the field, and recently a few disgruntled Democrats—so-called—got up an Independent ticket, but it was of no avail, and instead of electing a sin Independent candidate they have only to regret that they have sacrificed political principles for nothing and that politically they have now no standing among their fellow men.

It seems to be considered incumbent upon a United States Senator to wear a silk hat. Senator Reagan, of Texas, has conformed to the custom, much against his inclinations. During his service as a Congressman he wore a slouch hat with a broad brim. He had an affection for his style of headgear and it was becoming to him. But his new silk hat, which is several sizes too large for him and comes down to his ears, is far from suiting his style of beauty. It is a glossy mistake. And the worst of it is that the Senator seems to realize this.

Mr. G. W. Smalley, the London correspondent of the New York Tribune, has learned his lesson well.—He says: "A dispute is going on in America, say New York telegrams, regarding British opinion upon President Cleveland's message and the effect of his policy, if adopted, on British trade. There is no ground for dispute. Mr. Cleveland's message was received in England with an expression of joy. The one thing for which England hungers and thirsts is free admission of British manufactures to American markets. 'Your employers,' said a great English employer, 'dare not reduce wages to our level. How can they compete with us if they do not?'—There is the whole question."

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,013 bales.

The Chief of Police has donned a nice neat uniform hat, which is very becoming.

There was another sharp advance made in the price of cotton in New York to-day.

Steamer Benefactor, from New York, arrived in at Southport at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The weather grew materially colder during last night and it has been growing colder nearly all day.

There were five schooners reported off the Cape Fear bar this morning, all of which are bound to this city.

Mr. John F. Garrell will have some unusually fine beef on his stalls in Front street market to-morrow. See ad. in this issue.

The price of spirits turpentine keeps up to 3 1/2 cents to-day which is the rate at which the closing sales were made yesterday.

Schr. Belle Brown, Perry, cleared to-day for Samana, San Domingo, with 75,547 feet lumber, 50,000 shingles and 70 tons of ice, valued at $1,598.32, shipped by Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop.

We don't wish to flatter anybody, but the Rose Osborne street band can make better music and more of it for the number of pieces, than anything of the kind we have heard in many a day. Their playing is exquisite.

Rapid Composition.

There is a boy in this office, about 17 years old, who has been at the case about two years, who set to-day, in four hours time, 18 sticks of matter, in all 6,200 ens. Part of this matter was solid and part was leaded. The proof was a fair one. If there is any boy in the State who can beat this we would be glad to hear from him.

A Freak of Nature.

A sweet potato was brought to our city to-day which was indeed a curiosity. It was grown on the plantation of Mr. Leonidas Middleton, of Warsaw township, Duplin county, and grew in a bed of shell marl, with which that section abounds. In its growth, it worked thro' a hole in an old conch shell, and there was a good sized potato grew on each side of the shell, the two being connected by a small neck that extended through the hole.

Look Here, Mister!

A man's first duty is to himself and that is to keep warm and comfortable. Good clothing is cheaper than doctors' bills and nasty medicine. Heat is life, cold is death. Protect the body with warm woolen under-clothing and stout over-clothing and you will be ready for any blizzard, little or big, that may stray in this direction. You can get the best clothing and furnishing goods of A. Shirier, and for the least money. Every article warranted as represented at the new clothing house of A. Shirier, at the old stand, on Market street.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.

The Colored People.

The city is thronged with colored people, some of whom are from the country who came into the city to purchase their Christmas goods, while others are recent arrivals from the turpentine forests of South Carolina and Georgia, where they have been working during the Summer and are on their way home to pass the holidays. Wherever they come from they are leaving quite a nice amount of money with our merchants.

Jail Inspection.

Sheriff Manning received a dispatch yesterday signed J. J. Lignon, and dated at Charleston, S. C., stating that a committee would arrive here on Saturday to inspect the jail. The sheriff hardly knew what the dispatch meant, but he promptly replied by wire that New Hanover County jail was always in good order and really for inspection. We imagine that the "committee" will have hard work to find a safer or better kept jail in this or any other State.

Patti Rosa.

This charming, witty, vivacious, versatile, musical, fun-loving, good-looking, laughter provoking queen of merriment, will appear at the Opera House next Monday night in the popular comedy entitled "Zip," in which she made our people laugh until their sides ached when she was here last year. It is a foregone conclusion that she will be greeted with an overflowing house, as our theatre-going people are fond of a genuine hearty innocent laugh and Patti Rosa is just the piece of femininity that will make them laugh whether they will or not.

The Opera House.

The Rose Osborne Combination made their appearance at the Opera House last night in "Forget-Me-Not," instead of in "Fortune's Fool," as had been announced. There was a fair attendance, but it was not so large as the interest of the play and the merits of the actors demanded. "Forget-Me-Not" is a play of thrilling interest. It has a plot deeply laid and the dialogue is interesting. The principal character, Stephanie de Mohriwart is a most exacting role, calling for a thorough insight into the motives which actuated this bad and erratic woman, who at one time is a fiend incarnate and then again a repentant womanly woman. This difficult role was assumed by Miss Osborne with complete success. She was ably supported by a company of much more than ordinary excellence. Miss Osborne is an emotional actress of a high order. To-night the company will appear in "Article 47," which has had an almost unprecedented run in New York and other Northern cities.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

The Cosmopolitan for December.

The rumored visit of the ruler of Persia to Europe makes the beautifully illustrated article on "The Shah and His Court," with which the December number opens, very timely. "Mr. Crowley, the Chimpanzee," illustrated, is a charming study of a creature in the Central Park Zoological Museum that attracts more attention than any other New Yorker. "From Forest to Floor," a profusely illustrated article, contains a graphic, interesting, and valuable account of lumbering and the lumber interest in Canada. Accompanying a beautiful frontispiece of Mme. de Longueville, is an article, entitled "A Politician and a Saint," which describes vivaciously and wittily the career of the handsomest and most notable French woman of the seventeenth century. Frances Courtenay Baylor, the accomplished Southern writer, contributes a humorous story, entitled "Mr. Chubb and the Cold Punch." There is also a fine tragic love story, entitled "Yseult," and a pathetic sketch, entitled "Lynnhaven Cross." "Modern Magicians," "Shaking Off Nantucket," and "Dangers of the Ice Pack," with poems, complete the interesting table of contents.

Indications.

For North Carolina, colder fair weather, with fresh to brisk, and on the coast brisk to high, Northerly winds, veering to Northeasterly and diminishing in force.

City Court.

There was a small docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, and it was disposed of in the following order:

Sam Caldwell, colored, affray, called and failed. Judgment nisi and a fine of $10 was imposed in his case.

In the case of one party charged with an affray judgment was suspended.

Amos Boston, colored, disorderly conduct. This was an aggravated case and the judgment of the Court was that the defendant pay a fine of $20 or be imprisoned 30 days.—The defendant appealed and he was required to give a bond in the sum of $100 to prosecute the appeal.—Boston then became so offensive in his language that he was sent below for 24 hours for contempt of Court.

J. T. Davis, colored, throwing rocks in the street and other disorderly conduct. Ten days in a close cell in the city prison was the judgment of the Court.

A Word of Caution.

We would suggest to those who are making their Christmas purchases, and especially to the ladies, that our streets are thronged, and that some of those who hover around the store doors are not honest. They are there to see what they can steal, and we hear of one lady who had her pocket book snatched from her hand a few days ago, and the thief got off with the money and the act was done so quickly that he escaped without identification. We have expected to hear of this sort of robbery before now, during this busy Christmas season, but the foregoing instance is all that has been brought to our notice. Purchasers cannot be too careful in leaving the store, or while on the sidewalks, especially where there is much of a throng, where thieves can work to better advantage and the chance of detection is less.

The Signal Office.

We have, on several occasions, spoken of the inaccuracies of the weather indications as furnished by the Signal Office during the last year. These inaccuracies have been so common and so palpably manifest that there was but little reliability to be placed upon the reported indications. The recent report of the Chief Signal Officer admits the inaccuracies of the indications as sent to the press, but claims that there were seventy-nine correct reports out of a possible one hundred. We think that his claim is considerably too high, although we have no data, better than our memory, upon which to base the opinion. In speaking of this subject, the New York Mail and Express, of the 14th inst., says:

During the autumn the inaccuracy of the weather predictions regarding Washington was remarkable. Cold waves never arrived on schedule time, neither rain nor fair weather came when it was expected, and the weather forecasts in the newspapers became the sport of cruel wags. But on top of this comes the report of a serious difficulty in Chicago over the removal of a sergeant in the Weather Bureau, whose individual predictions were generally contrary to those of his official superiors, and oftener correct. The Chicago Board of Trade ceased altogether relying upon Gen. Greeley's predictions, and took this man Bull's instead.

Another Great Sacrifice in Fine Custom Made Clothing.

I. Shirier, desiring to close out every dollar's worth of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, and to make quick work of it, will sell out his entire Winter stock regardless of cost. The real cost or actual value of the goods will have nothing to do with the low prices. His main object is to open up in the large and handsome store in the Purcell building, by the 21st of December, with one of the finest stocks of ready-made clothing. All goods on hand will be slaughtered off. Remember, this is no sensational or humbug scheme, and don't miss the opportunity of getting a bargain of the well known I. Shirier, the Old Reliable, on Front street, next door to McInire's dry-goods store, sign of the golden arm.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

A Suggestion.

Mr. W. E. Kyle, general freight and passenger agent of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, has made special rates for parties who wish to visit Fayetteville to purchase their Christmas goods and has fixed upon Thursday, the 22nd inst., as the day when he will run a special train for their accommodation.

This is a good idea and we would like to see such an arrangement made by the different railroads leading into this city with the difference, that these special rates shall be issued once a week—good for 48 hours—throughout the year, instead of but one time during the year.

Personal.

Rev. W. M. Kennedy, of Duplin county, is in the city to-day.

Mr. Fred Kidder, the genial proprietor of Kendall rice farm, is in the city to-day.

Mr. M. F. Manning came up from Wrightsville to-day on one of his rare visits to the city.

Col. and Mrs. E. S. Latimer have returned to the city from an extended visit North.

Mr. W. H. G. Beatty, of Gravelly Hill, Bladen county, paid us a pleasant and welcome visit to-day.

Capt. V. V. Richardson, U. S. Marshal for the Eastern District of North Carolina, is in the city to-day.

Rev. Robt. Strange arrived in the city last night to assume charge of St. James' Parish. His wife is with him.

Hon. Alfred Rowland, Representative in Congress from this district, passed through last night on his way home to Lumberton, accompanied by Mrs. Rowland. We regret that the promise of a permanent improvement which had gone out last week has not held out but hope that his health may be entirely restored in a short time.
