THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1887. NO. 299.

CONSTIPATION

IS called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decaying and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being excreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system.

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons' Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a few drops, and afterwards reduced the dose to a teaspoonful, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued it until I took two bottles. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no use for it, it having cured me."—Geo. W. Sims, Ass't Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

Take only the Genuine, Which has on the Wrapper the Trade-mark and Signature of J. R. ZEILIN & CO.

England has 5,000,000 children in the public schools, against only 2,000,000 in 1870.

A Kentucky woman, who has seven sons, all born on Sunday, has petitioned Governor Buckner for a pension. She says in her letter that she "never herd of 7 boys all Bean Born on Sunday," and she thinks that such an unexampled feat of maternity should be properly rewarded.

New England is deeply interested in the rumors about the solvency of some of the Western farm mortgage companies. The loan companies of Boston alone hold 81,000 Western farm mortgages on which $70,000,000 is outstanding. And the insurance companies of Hartford hold mortgages on Western farms to the amount of $70,000,000.

The great mass of the Pennsylvania Democrats are delighted with the tone of the President's message and they demand that Randall and his misguided followers shall fall into line. Should the apostle of protection prove ugly and obstinate, an organized effort will be made to have him defeated at the next election. Randall is realizing his situation and it is generally thought that he will pull quietly in the traces, knowing full well that any kicking against the President's policy means political death for him.

The fire loss of the year, December estimated, has been $130,000,000, an eighth more than last year. These fires cost us half as much as our Federal Government, twice as much as it does to govern our five biggest cities, more than equal the cost of all our schools and colleges, and the loss is in amount probably not far from one-third to one-fourth of our annual expenditure on new buildings. In our whole system there is nothing so foolish, so wasteful or so demoralizing as this national bonfire, on whose cost the most expensive of the standing armies of Europe could be comfortably supported.

The Provincetown Advocate says, "It seems to be only a question of time, and that not so remarkably far distant, when the whole of Cape Cod below Wellfleet will drift into the sea and lose itself. Less than 100 years have passed since a light-house was placed here by the Government. The original purchase included a plot of land ten acres in extent. At the present time this enclosure embraces barely six acres.—The waste is steady, gradual and certain, it never builds up and the sea is moving slowly but surely inland. At points where there is little or no sod to hold the lighter sod beneath, the wind gets a firm hold and lends its aid to the efforts of the sea and rain. On a point just north of the marine stations at Highland Light the face of the bluff has moved inland 200 feet during the past five years. At the present rate of waste, in thirty years the lighthouse will stand on a dangerous foundation."

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.
School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.
Steamboatmen report about ten feet of water on the shoals in the Cape Fear.

The weather indications are all wrong again, as any one can know who reads the report for to-day.

Indications.
For North Carolina, warmer, fair weather, with light to fresh Westerly winds, shifting to Southerly.

Knights of Honor.
Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this (Monday) evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. Full attendance is desired. Election of officers will take place.

Raiding Gamblers.
Information was lodged at police headquarters last Saturday that gambling was carried on extensively at Bill Howe's place in the North-eastern limits of the city. At about half past 1 o'clock yesterday morning Chief of Police Hall, with a strong force of officers, raided the premises and captured Howe, the proprietor, and 12 others. It is thought that the projected raid had become known to the gamblers, as the premises were very quiet when the police arrived.

Round Trip Tickets.
Since the subject of issuing round trip tickets on the railroads to parties wishing to come to the city to trade has been agitated, we learn that there is a standing order on the Carolina Central Railroad to issue round trip tickets in such cases and that all station agents on the line of that road are authorized and instructed to issue such tickets for the purposes named. We had not been aware of this before or we should long since have published this fact.

At St. James.
Rev. Robert Strange yesterday formally assumed charge of his new duties as Rector of St. James' Parish. His first sermon to the congregation was preached in the forenoon. The church was well-filled with devout worshippers. Mr. Strange preached a strong, practical sermon and in it spoke candidly and directly to his congregation as to the duties of a people to their pastor as well as those of a pastor to his people.

We trust that Mr. Strange's ministrations here in the city of his birth may be one full of years and rich in good works.

Railroad Changes.
Yesterday's News and Observer says that there will be several changes in the office of Mr. F. W. Clark, the general freight and passenger agent of the R. & G. R. R. system, to take effect January 1st, 1888. Mr. Fred. Bryan will take the place of Mr. H. G. Bowles, chief clerk. A gentleman from New York will take the place of Mr. R. P. Richardson, the stenographer. Mr. D. S. Cowan will become rate clerk and Mr. Newsom, at present employed in the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture, will take a position with Mr. Clark.

Look Here, Mister!
A man's first duty is to himself and that is to keep warm and comfortable. Good clothing is cheaper than doctors' bills and nasty medicine. Heat is life, cold is death. Protect the body with warm woolen under-clothing and stout over-clothing and you will be ready for any blizzard, little or big, that may stray in this direction. You can get the best clothing and furnishing goods of A. Shrier, and for the least money. Every article warranted as represented at the new clothing house of A. Shrier, at the old stand, on Market street.

The Opera House.

Patti Rosa, the unapproachable and inimitable Patti, will appear at the Opera-House to-night, just as young, just as sprightly and just as brim-full of fun as ever. She will undoubtedly be greeted with a crowded house. She has just concluded a successful engagement in Charleston, S. C., where she is one of the most popular favorites of the theatre going public.

A Modern Cincinnati.
Under this head the Washington Post says:

Congressman Charles W. McClain, who represents the Third North Carolina district, was not a candidate when nominated, and when the news of his selection was told him he was between the handles of his plow at work in his corn-field. This fact was widely disseminated throughout his district during the campaign and doubtless won for him many a vote from among the farmers.

Rose Osborne.
The Rose Osborne Combination closed a moderately successful engagement here last Saturday night, playing at that time to a small house, which is no unusual thing for a Saturday night in Wilmington. The company is far above the average and the star is a superb actress. The plays presented have received the endorsement of all the large Northern cities, but they failed to be fully appreciated here or the houses would have been much larger. The company is in every way deserving.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

December, 1887.

Just think of it, only one week until Christmas. What wonders can happen in the short space of one year. Nations rise and fall, islands can shoot from the unfathomable depths of the sea, stretch forth their strong arm of freedom, sound a blast from their trumpet and sink back into the dark waters from whence they came, and still our small world goes on with a ceaseless tread, never failing to teach other nations the right of freedom and liberty by its own example. "Wonders will never cease," even in this little town of ours. Everybody has learned something since last Christmas. For instance, take the little store on the Northeast corner of Front and Market streets. You have learned that at Hedrick's you can buy the prettiest, neatest, most stylish goods cheaper than you can in any store in Wilmington. Last Christmas our friends complained that the store was not large enough—it was too crowded with goods. Well, now, since last Xmas we have learned how to keep our store free from all rubbish and goods that are not needed at this time of the year; and can give you all the room needed and do everybody justice. You have got to have Xmas presents, and we have sensible presents for your wife, children and friends, and in the meantime, the wives must not have their husbands "get left," even though they pay the bills. This is an age of advancement, and people have at last found out that toys are not the thing. Here's what we have to say for this week's trade:

100 doz. Hdks, cold bord 1/2 linen, at 5c
100 doz. H. S. Hdks, all neat and stylish borders, for 10c.
50 doz. plain white H. S. at 12 1/2c. The town talk.
40 doz. plain white H. S. Hdks, very clean linen lawn, worth 33 1/2c for 20c. How's that?

A handsome hand-embroidered Hdkt for 50c.
A beautiful one at 75c.
An exquisite one for $1.
Magnificent Hdks worth $4, $3, $2.50 at $1, $2.50 and $1.50.
All of these, understand, are imported and hand-made; too fine for a machine.

We must get rid of the goods by Xmas at any sacrifice. We have the largest line in the State. Those are our prices on Handkerchiefs. Everything in our line is equally as cheap. We mean business, and we mean to sell goods this week, "and don't you forget it."

Doylies, Napkins, Towels, fancy and plain, Table Linen, Collars, Cuffs, all white goods cheaper than the cheapest.

A few pieces of Mantling, Table Scarfs and Tidies left. Come quick. Dress Goods, Trimmings, Gloves, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Cravats, Ribbons, Laces. I'll not say more. Come soon in the week and don't get left. Come down, they have "got to go."

Respectfully,
J. J. Hedrick,
