Sullivan greatly pleased the Prince of Wales, and probably when the former returns to London from Ireland the Prince will find means to renew his acquaintance. After the boxing was over at the Guards' gymnasuim in Cleveland Row, the Prince, as is usual, dispensed largesse among the sluggers. Among others he gave Smith £25, which was gratefully received by the English champion. Conferring with Capt. Drummond the Prince said: "What shall I give Sullivan?" "Nothing," replied the captain quietly. "-ullivan came here as the guest of our mess, and I have the best of reasons for knowing that he would be offended by any payment of money." "Well,
