MONDAY, DECEMBER 19, '87.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. Dr. Yates.

The Temple of Israel was densely packed at yesterday morning's service to hear Rev. Dr. Yates, of Grace M. E. Church, in his farewell sermon to the flock of which he has been the faithful and beloved pastor for the last four years. Dr. Yates took for his text the last verse in the Bible, as follows:

"The Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen."

Nothing contained in all the sacred pages could have been more touchingly appropriate. It was a benediction upon a flock with whom the speaker had earnestly labored. He had been with them in joy and sorrow, at the christening of the babe and by the bedside of the dying and had said the last sadly impressive words that consigned the remains of the loved one to the cold and silent grave. He had shared with the grief and had offered consolation to the heart-broken mourner. He spoke tenderly of the sympathy which had been extended to him in his troubles. The burning of Front Street Church was dwelt upon with singular pathos, which brought tears to the eyes of many of the congregation. In speaking of the loss to Grace M. E. Church, occasioned by the deaths of Col. C. L. Grafflin and Capt. W. M. Parker, the speaker, as well as a large portion of the congregation, manifested deep emotion. He prayed heaven's choicest blessings upon our Israelitish friends who had so generously and kindly tendered the use of their temple for the church which he represented.

Dr. Yates will take with him, to his new field of labor, the love and esteem, not only of the church of which he has been the pastor, but of the entire community. He has been seen but little upon our thoroughfares in our places of business, but his Christian acts and demeanor, together with his affable and kindly manners, have won the profound regard of all, and the wish is universal that his life may be spared for many years, and that his labors of usefulness may be crowned with a complete success.

It was expected that Dr. Yates would preach his last sermon here yesterday, but as Rev. Mr. Creasy, the new pastor, will not arrive here until the 28th inst., he has kindly consented to preach a Christmas sermon for Grace M. E. Church next Sunday.

Suicide of a Colored Woman.
Lucy Smith, colored, aged 41 years, committed suicide between the hours of 5 o'clock and 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at her residence on Eighth street, between Orange and Ann, by shooting herself through the head with a pistol. She had recently returned from New York, and had been in poor health for some time. Yesterday she told her sister that she did not feel well enough to attend church, and remained at home. When her sister returned from church Lucy was not to be found and it was supposed that she had gone to some of the neighbors, until it was ascertained that the door leading into her room was locked, when a search was instituted and she was at last found in a closet, dead, with the pistol clutched in her hand. She had shot herself through the head. Coroner Miller was notified and this morning he summoned a jury of inquest who returned a verdict that the deceased came to her death from a pistol shot wound inflicted by her hand. The husband of the deceased is a sailor and recently sailed from here to Baltimore, where he now is.

Literary.

The January number of Scribner's Magazine has been received and is unusually rich in literary merit, as the following table of contents will show:

"The Man at Arms," by E. H. and E. W. Blashfield; "Our Leader," by C. P. Cranch; "First Harvests," by F. J. Stensson; "White Edith," by Thomas Bailey Aldrich; "Municipal Finance," by Clayton C. Hall; "Christmas Eve—Germany," by Renell Rodd; "The Great Pyramid," by Edward L. Wilson; "A New Light on Balzac," by Edward S. Holden; "The Poet," by Charles E. Markham; besides several other papers of interest and entertainment to the intelligent reader. The literary excellence of this popular magazine stands almost without a parallel in the annals of periodical literature, especially when its brief existence of only one year is considered. Published by Charles Scribner's Sons, New York, at $3 per annum.

Christmas Festival.

The Busy Bees, connected with St. John's Church, a society of children, will give an entertainment at the City Hall next Thursday afternoon, which will be a pleasant and unique affair. The price of admission has been fixed at the nominal sum of ten cents, but there will be an abundance of pretty, interesting and amusing things to see at the Hall, free of any extra charge. Of these we may mention "Punch and Judge" and the "Colored Family," as being features that will afford much amusement, especially to the young people. There will be a long list of articles on sale, the handiwork of the Busy Bees, which will be both useful and ornamental, and these articles will be sold at prices ranging from one cent to twenty-five cents. There will be no high-priced goods—save a very few that have been donated—and no exorbitant prices for cheap goods. There will also be an abundance of excellent refreshments at reasonable prices, and the management will spare no pains to make the occasion one of the most interesting and enjoyable of the season. The object of the entertainment is for the benefit of the Thompson Orphanage, a most noble institution at Charlotte, N. C.

City Court.

There was quite a docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning as the following will show:

Henry Watson, colored, assault and battery. The testimony showed that he was guilty and the judgment of the Court was that he pay a fine of $10 or work in the chain gang 20 days.

Alice Reed, continued until Wednesday morning, and judgment nisi with a fine of $10 entered against Ed. Miller, an absent witness.

Wm. Simpson, colored, disorderly conduct and insulting an officer. He was an old offender, although young in years, and a most incorrigible boy. Judgment was suspended in the latter charge and a fine of $20 or 30 days in the chain gang was the sentence in the former case.

S. B. Frilson, a young tramp from England, was furnished with a police escort outside the city limits.

Bill Howe, R. Herring, G. Landers, J. Brown, G. Greene, J. Epps, J. Leonard, G. McKoy, Z. Howe, W. Love, Bill Jones, I. Ivory and J. Outlaw, all colored, were arrested early yesterday morning on the charge of gambling at the place of the first-named defendant, in the Northeastern limits of the city. Mr. J. D. Bellaury, Jr., appeared in behalf of all the defendants and at his request the consideration of the case was postponed until next Wednesday morning. A justified bond in the sum of $50 for each of the defendants was required, and that being furnished they were liberated.

See the Othello Range at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood. Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for Winter use.

Another Great Sacrifice in Fine Custom Made Clothing.

I. Shrier, desiring to close out every dollar's worth of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, and to make quick work of it, will sell out his entire Winter stock regardless of cost. The real cost or actual value of the goods will have nothing to do with the low prices. His main object is to open up in the large and handsome store in the Purcell building, by the 21st of December, with one of the finest stocks of ready-made clothing. All goods on hand will be slaughtered off. Remember, this is no sensational or humbug scheme, and don't miss the opportunity of getting a bargain of the well known I. Shrier, the Old Reliable, on Front street, next door to McIntire's dry-goods store, sign of the golden arm.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,017 bales.

There was a decline of five cents per barrel in the price of tar at the Produce Exchange to day.

At the Commissioner's sale of the real estate of the late Duke Davis, the property was bought by Mary H. Howe for $200. Mr. S. Van Amringe was the auctioneer.

Mr. Thos. C. Craft appears in a handsome and attractive ad. in this issue. He certainly offers a beautiful stock from which to select nice presents, and he will take pleasure in exhibiting it to all who may call.

If you've got anything to send off to a friend by express this Xmas, don't wait until the last minute. The offices are always crowded with work at this time. Send in your packages at once and you can have them delivered on Xmas Day.

Do not forget the entertainment to be given by the "Young Cleaners" of the First Presbyterian Church, at the City Hall on the nights of the 20th and 21st inst. The management have taken much pains to have the affair a success, and we bespeak for our little friends a most generous patronage to cheer them in their labor of love and Christian duty.

Generous.

We learn that Messrs. Jackson & Bell, the well-known book and job printers, made each of their workmen a present of a fine turkey on last Saturday night. Maybe the printers didn't think they had got "fat takes."

The Star of Bethlehem.

A friend at Magnolia writes us for some particulars relative to the appearance of the Star of Bethlehem. He says that some of our readers in his town are disposed to look upon the matter as a joke and wants to know if this is really the star which guided the wise men of the East to the manger wherein the infant Messiah lay cradled. We can only answer that according to the astronomers, the star now visible in the East is the veritable Star of Bethlehem; that it is visible any morning not far from Venus, the morning star at this season, and that this is its first appearance since the year 1573. There is no joke anywhere about it.

Personal.

Mr. H. J. Carleton, of Warsaw, is in the city to-day.

Mr. John H. Clark, of Clarkton, was in the city to-day.

Mr. George W. Summerell, of Armour, was in the city yesterday and to-day, but will leave for his home to-night.

Hon. C. W. McClammy has returned to his home at Scott's Hill, where he will remain during the holiday recess of Congress.

We regret to announce that Mr. Wilkin Roddick, of the firm of Brown & Roddick, is very seriously sick at his residence in this city.

Mr. J. D. Bell and family, of Pender county, are in the city, the guests of Mayor Fowler. They will remain here until after the holidays.

We are pleased to note that Col. John J. Hedrick, who has been quite sick and confined to the house for several days past, is again well enough to be out.

Mr. Geo. C. Kelley, of Birmingham, is expected to spend Christmas with his parents in this city. He is now in New York but Mrs. Kelly is in this city already, having arrived here Saturday night.

A Gale and a High Tide.

The wind blew in a fierce gale at Wrightsville and Masonboro Sounds Saturday last, and the storm was totally unheralded by the weather bureau. Parties from Masonboro say that it was the biggest blow known there in some time. The tide also was very high—so high in fact that at Masonboro the banks were all covered and it was one sheet of water all of the way across from the mainland to the African coast. No particular damage seems to have been done, however, beyond the destruction of a few fishermen's huts on the beach. These were taken up and carried about and some who saw them followed them around for several hours, thinking they were rafts or parts of a wreck and hoping they might be of some assistance.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Coal for the Free List.

ERIE, PA., December 17.—An editorial article in Congressman W. L. Scott's Evening Herald, said to have been dictated by himself, advocates the placing of coal on the free list along with other raw material. Mr. Scott is one of the largest coal operators in the country.

News Briefs.

The great Connellsville coke syndicate has been dissolved.

A marked revival of gold mining enterprises is reported from the Georgia gold region.

The federation of labor union which has been in session in Baltimore for a week, adjourned Saturday.

Claus Spreckles has accepted a site of 30,000 acres at Watsonville, Cal. for $500,000 for a beet sugar factory.

Ada Beekner, a young and pretty girl, was arrested in Indianapolis, Friday night, charged with having set fire to the house of Kitty Wells in Shelbyville several years ago, whereby two women were burned to death.

The Assault on Dr Manly.

LOUISVILLE, KY, December 17.—Special: Dr. Manly was not hurt so seriously as was at first thought. He was attacked by two sandbaggers about one hundred yards from his house at Crescent Hill and he received a very ugly cut just over the left eye. Two suspicious characters were seen lurking in the neighborhood during the afternoon and were awaiting the train on which Dr Manly came. For about fifteen minutes he was unconscious and afterwards, gathering some Christmas bundles which he was bringing home from town, he staggered home in a dazed condition. He is now without fever and easy, and his physicians think that unless some unexpected change for the worse comes he will be out in a few days. His skull is not fractured, but the cut over the eye is painful and deep. It is supposed that the villains only desired to attack and rob Mr Walker, his companion, but Dr. Manly, who was a little in advance, hearing the scuffling, turned to aid Mr. Walker and was felled to the ground. The rascals are still at large. There is not much danger of any brain trouble.

STATE NEWS.

Rockingham Spirit: Died, in this vicinity on the 10th, inst., Mr. James H. Covington, Sr., aged about 69 years, leaving a wife and several children. The deceased was one of the best men we ever knew, and we don't believe that he had an enemy in the world. He was a devout christian and died in great peace.

Goldsboro Argus: The Goldsboro fire department have seldom, if ever, done better work than they did in extinguishing the flames in Dr. Jas. Powell's drug store, next to the postoffice, yesterday morning about 2 o'clock. Certainly did the Goldsboro Company No. 1 do splendid work with their chemical engine and the Eelipse boys, ever prompt, came in on good time to complete the victory. It was fine work all round and the department have reason to be proud of it. The fire was accidental, and was discovered in good time to prevent what might otherwise have been a great conflagration. We learn that the property and the stocks both of Dr. Powell and Mr. Arthur, in the same buildings, were insured.

Charlotte Chronicle: The receipts of cotton at Charlotte from September 1, to December 17, 1887, were 16,862 bales, against 16,613 bales for the same period in 1886, and 23,322 for the same period in 1885. The receipts yesterday were 122 bales.

Fifty dollars were realized from the children's entertainment at the Charlotte Female Institute last Friday evening. Of this amount $25 was given to the Thompson Orphanage in this city, and $25 to the Thornwell Orphanage, in South Carolina.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, held on last Friday night, fifteen new members were admitted. A very interesting discussion was had in reference to more railroad facilities, more factories of various kinds, and more competition in freights and cotton.

Charlotte is sure of two new cotton factories by next spring. One is to be built as a private enterprise, and the other by subscriptions. It is said that two others will be built during the year 1888. A well posted man yesterday told our reporter that at least four new factories will be in operation in Charlotte before the end of 1888. This is solid information, and not mere rumor.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50c. For sale by W. H. Green & Co.

Worth Knowing.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at W. H. Green & Co's Drug Store.

The Committee on Rules.

WASHINGTON, December 17.—Speaker Carlisle said this afternoon that he would announce the committee on rules when the house meets on Monday. The committee will consist of the speaker and Messrs. Randall, Mills, Reed and Cannon unless the present conclusion is reconsidered.
