CONSTIPATION

It is called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a torpid liver, not enough bile being excreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite,
Sick Headache,
Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels.
The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons' Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a single glassful and afterwards reduced the dose to a teaspoonful, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued it until I took two bottles. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no use for it, it having cured me."—Geo. W.
Sims, Ass't. Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

The Japanese have voluntarily contributed over $2,100,000 to provide for the defence of their coast.

The New York apple crop this year is enormous. The crop is estimated at 3,500,000 to 3,000,000 barrels.
This does not include the large amount used in cider-mills, evaporators and canning factories. Over 1,000,000 barrels will be shipped to Europe, the State being full of Glasgow, Liverpool and Austrian buyers.

The announcement that Mr. Carlisle will speak in Atlanta and Macon on the 23d and 24th of January, respectively, has been received with gratification by the papers throughout Georgia. At both places Mr.
Carlisle will be greeted by a great gathering of Georgians. The people are anxious to hear what he has to say on the subject of tariff reform.

Quill toothpicks come from France.
The largest factory in the world is near Paris, where there is an annual product of 20,000,000 quills. The factory was started to make quill pens, but when these went out of use it was turned into a toothpick mill. Wooden toothpicks are made principally in Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana and Ohio.

The number of telephones in use in the United States is 241,670, and the gross income from the same for the year 1886 was $11,150,000. The expenses were $7,000,000 and the net earnings $4,150,000. The number of miles of wire is 128,231. Subordinate telephone companies obtain $26.81 net profit per subscriber, after paying $14 royalty to the parent company and all expenses of the business.

Next week there is to be held in Boston a big bazaar to help the cause of woman suffrage. Each State providing a table will have half the net gains from the same.
The other half will go for woman suffrage work anywhere in the United States. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Lucy Stone and Cora Scott Pond are actively working for the bazaar, over which Mrs. Livermore will preside.

Washington is a great book-buying centre. In a bookstore in that city one afternoon recently the following well-known persons were gathered at the same moment: Mrs.
Cleveland, Justices Gray, Matthews and Harlan, several members of the Chinese legation, Secretaries Bayard and Whitney, Congressmen French and West and Senators Stockbridge and Edmunds.

A curious ending of an ancient vendetta is reported from Britti, Sardinia, where, in the presence of the Archbishop, Prefect and other dignitaries, 670 members of two families knelt in church, formally fore-swore their long-standing feud, and received the prelate's benediction.
The whole population of the vicinity was present, and later on a barbecue was held, where ten oxen, seventy-four pigs and two hundred weight of macaroni were consumed.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1887

NO 300

The New York Tribune says:
"William Rockefeller, Roswell P.
Flower and R. T. Wilson, who were elected directors of the Richmond and West Point Terminal Railway Company at the general meeting at Richmond on Tuesday, will decline the positions. They have not been informed officially of their election, but they gave public notice yesterday that they would not serve. One of them remarked: 'The statement that I did not signify my intention in time to permit the place to be filled is entirely wrong. I suspect that so many proxies were for the ticket and no other one that the former members of the board would have found it embarrassing to throw them out.'"

It gives us great gratification, says the Raleigh News and Observer, to learn that Judge Schenck is preparing himself to write a history of events in North Carolina during certain years of the Revolutionary war.
The State is under obligations to him for his patriotic work in connection with the Guilford Battle Ground Company, and the work on which we are glad to observe is progressing to a successful consummation. Judge Schenck, it will be remembered, contributed a series of articles to this paper, being sketches of some of the principal members of the convention of 1861, and those contributions gained for him an enviable reputation as a polished and vigorous writer. Possessing as he does an admirable private historical library, and with access to all the records preserved, he is in a position to confer a lasting benefit on the State, if his business engagements shall permit.

A Mistake.

We hear of a gentleman of this city who took his children to an entertainment a few nights since and after having a good time took them home at the proper hour and sent them to bed and retired himself.
After being in bed a few moments he became impressed with the idea that he did not bring them all home, and he got up and found that there was one missing. He then started for the Hall where he found the missing child and took that one home, proud of the fact that he had found all of them. He tells the story on himself.

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance met in regular session last night at the City Hall. Present: R. J. Jones, Esq., chairman, and Messrs. Wm.
Calder, W. I. Gore, Jno. W. Hewitt.

A communication was received from the Board of Aldermen and acted upon favorably, awarding a contract for a small building at the foot of Red Cross street on the dock for $12.50. Also, on the petition of John Holloway and others, committee of Giblem Lodge, for use of City Hall free of charge on December 15th. In this connection the bill of that lodge for refunded rent for five dollars was disapproved.

A communication from the Mayor in reference to painting the dials of the city clock, recommending that an appropriation of $32 be made and contract given to E. V. Richards, he being the lowest bidder, was not approved.

Three bonds ($1,500) and three coupons ($92) which had been redeemed and cancelled, were burned in the presence of the Board.

Bill of E. D. Hall, Chief of Police, for uniform ($37.50) was approved.
Mr. Calder desired to be recorded as voting against it, on the ground that no appropriation had been made for the purpose, and that the former Chief of Police had himself paid for his uniform.

Bills were audited and approved as follows: For current expenses, $197.35; refunded taxes, $24.50; collection of delinquent taxes, $643.91; bonds, $1,500, coupons, $92.

Good Words for Wilmington.

Mr. Theo. G. Eger, General Traffic Manager of the Clyde Lines of steamers, was in our city yesterday and gave us the pleasure of a call. Mr.
Eger has always been a warm and earnest friend of Wilmington and has rejoiced heartily at any evidence showing the prosperity of our city. He was here directly after the great fire of February, 1886, and he is deeply impressed with the appearance of substantial prosperity which is everywhere manifest.
The large new buildings between the railroad and Mulberry street, including the new and enlarged Champion Compress, the magnificent structures of Messrs. Alex.
Sprunt & Son, Boney & Harper, and Dick & Worth and other buildings which had sprung up from a scene of desolation and ruin, were to him evidences of the substantial prosperity of our city. He says that he was told by a gentleman of Charleston, one of the largest cotton buyers in the South, that the compresses of this city do better work than is done anywhere else and that this fact is conceded by others who handle the fleecy staple.

Mr. Eger further informed us that it is the purpose of the Clyde Line to enlarge and improve their freight and passenger facilities with this city, and that they would be all completed by the Autumn of 1888. The loss by fire of the Regulator caused the company great inconvenience in the transportation of freight and passengers, but this trouble will be remedied as rapidly as possible, so that no demands of this port can be made on its service that may not readily be filled. The company is entirely satisfied with the healthy, but quiet boom which has gotten a good foothold here and are determined to avail themselves of every possible method to give it their cordial and earnest assistance and encouragement.

The next entertainment at the Opera House, after "The Little Tycoon," which will be given next Friday night, will be given by the Kate Bedberg English Opera Company on Monday night, the 26th inst., when "L'Ombra" will be presented.

The boys of our city are very orderly and well-behaved boys, for Christmas is almost here and not a fire cracker have we heard yet.
Perhaps the fear of Mayor Fowler may have something to do with the matter.

It has been a rainy, muddy, sloppy, disagreeable day, and the Christmas purchasers have not thronged the stores so much as they probably would have done had the weather been more favorable and the streets been in better condition for pedestrianism.

The obsequies of the late Mrs. W.
H. Holt, formerly Miss Belle Armstrong, were held at the M. E.
Church at Rocky Point yesterday.
Rev. Dr. Pritchard officiating. The remains were interred in the old Armstrong burial ground near Rocky Point.

Indications.

For North Carolina, slightly warmer, with rain, fresh to brisk Easterly winds, followed on Wednesday by decidedly colder, fresh to brisk Northwesterly winds.

Personal.

Mr. James H. Chadbourn, Jr., is in the city to-day.

Mr. John N. Bowden, of Pender county, was here this forenoon.

Mr. C. H. Stevens, of Bladen county, is in the city to-day and gave us the pleasure of a call.

Our good friend, Mr. J. W. S. Robinson, of Sampson county, was in the city to-day and called to see us but greatly to our regret we were not in at the time and so missed the pleasure of a shake of his hand.

"The Little Tycoon."

The comic Opera of "The Little Tycoon," will be given at the Opera House next Friday night by a company of 40 Wilmington amateurs.
The Opera has been in active rehearsal, under competent direction, for several weeks, and the vocalists and instrumentalists have been selected from the best Amateur talent of the city. It will, without doubt, be a fine entertainment, well worthy the patronage of our people, and we bespeak a crowded house next Friday night to give our young musical people the encouragement which their efforts deserve.

Excursion from Conway.

The Wilmington, Chadbourn and Conway R. R. is now open all of the way through from Chadbourn to Conway, 39 miles, and trains are now running on regular schedule.
We learn from Mr. James H. Chadbourn, Jr., Superintendent of the road, who is in the city to-day, that an excursion train from Conway to this city will be run on Thursday, the 22nd inst., and that we may look out for a large number of South Carolinians here on that day, as well as many excursionists from Chadbourn and the neighborhood. The party will arrive here on Thursday and return on Friday.

A Tin Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kidder celebrated yesterday the tenth anniversary of their wedding day and a large number of invited guests were present last night to do honor to the happy occasion. Many pretty, unique and valuable presents were received and a great many heartily congratulations were tendered, some in person and others by letter. The harpers discoursed some excellent music throughout the evening and a delightful repast was served to the guests. The Review tenders its congratulations and its wishes that the tin may turn to silver, the silver to gold and the gold to a diamond.

The Opera House.

There was a large audience to give Patti Rose and her company greeting at the Opera House last night, and to say that they were all delighted would feebly express their feelings. Patti was just as charming, just as vivacious and just as full of fun as ever, and she was greeted with frequent bursts of applause. She kept the large audience in the best of humor all the time, and was frequently called before the curtain to receive a perfect ovation of plaudits; a call to which she cheerfully and graciously responded. Patti Rosa may always be sure of a good house when she visits Wilmington.

Thanks to Mr. M. S. Willard for a lot of calendars for the new year, a portfolio and some Christmas literature, with life insurance as the theme, sent in to us to-day. We will surely make use of the calendars and the case and also of the literature.

Busy as Bees.

We called in to see Mr. Fishblate, the King Clothier, on Front street, this morning to get an ad. from him.
We found him so rushed with customers and selling goods so rapidly that all we could get out of him was "come in after Christmas, when I will be able to spare you a few minutes of my time. I will then give you an ad." We had no idea that he was doing such an extensive business. We knew he was doing big things, but nothing like we saw today and you know seeing is believing, &c. Well, success to him; he deserves it. It

City Court.

There was a small docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning as the following report of the proceedings will show:

India Davis, colored, disorderly conduct. Continued until to-morrow morning.

Richard Herring, colored, one of the gamblers who was arrested Sunday morning and was released on bail, was surrendered by his bondsman and locked up.

W. B. Gordon was drunk and disorderly. He hails from down the coast 30 miles and was on his way home, but had stopped to see his sister. Had one drink, but didn't think he was noisy. In fact he never was noisy, but the officer told a different tale. He was told to leave the city forthwith, with a caution not to be caught here in like condition again.

Holiday Excursion.

The Atlantic Coast Line, as has been customary for years past, will sell round-trip tickets for one first-class fare for the benefit of people living along the line of its roads, between all local stations on the Wilmington & Weldon and branches, Albemarle & Raleigh, Midland North Carolina, Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta, Northeastern of South Carolina, Central of South Carolina, Cheraw & Darlington and Cheraw & Salisbury Roads. Tickets will be on sale December 22d, 23d, 24th and 25th, good to return until January 29th, inclusive, and on sale December 29th, 30th and 31st, good to return until January 5th, inclusive. Children under 12 years and over 5 years of age, half-rates.

The Carolina Central, as we stated yesterday, will also offer cheap passenger rates. Round-trip tickets for one fare will be placed on sale on December 23d to the 25th inclusive, good to January 2d; and, also, on December 29th, 30th and 31st, good to return until January 5th.

Look Here, Mister!

A man's first duty is to himself and that is to keep warm and comfortable. Good clothing is cheaper than doctors' bills and nasty medicine.
Heat is life, cold is death. Protect the body with warm woolen underclothing and stout over clothing and you will be ready for any blizzard, little or big, that may stray in this direction. You can get the best clothing and furnishing goods of A.
Shrier, at the old stand, on Market street.
