THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY DECEMBER 23 1887 NO 303

is called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and ferments matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being secreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as:

Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disordering the system.

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons' Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a small dose, and afterwards reduced the dose to a teaspoonful, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued to take it until I took two bottles. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no one for it, it is superior cured me."—Geo. W. Starr, Ass't Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

We are told that "the Democratic tariff before the war did not average but 18 per cent." What it did average is left to the imagination of the reader.

... The Washington City correspondent of the News and Observer says that the Blair bill will easily pass the Senate and that it will surely pass the House also if it can ever be got to a vote. If it does there will be a first-class journalistic funeral hereabouts.

Since the Queen's accession Parliament has voted thirteen life annuities to members of the royal family, exclusive of the Prince Consort, amounting in all to £150,000 a year, which is the sum to be paid in the current year. It is not in the least likely that any member so remote from the throne as the Duke of Cambridge will, in the younger generation, receive an annuity of £12,000 a year from Parliament. The scale of royal annuities is diminishing, and it is expected that the Government will, in the next session, propose the appointment of the select committee, which Mr. Gladstone suggested, to consider what, if any provisions should be made for the younger generation of the royal family, practically limiting the inquiry to the children of the Prince of Wales.

Many of our people, and especially the children, are suffering with severe colds.

We have seen but very little drunkenness on our streets thus far this Christmas season.

The streets are in a muddy condition, owing to the recent rains, and the mud dries up very slowly.

The festival by the Busy Bees yesterday and last night was a most enjoyable affair and we are glad to state that it was a success financially.

The atmosphere was chilly, raw and unpleasant this morning, as if the cold wave was making a feeble attempt to get here, but could not quite succeed.

We hear that legions of small fish are being washed ashore dead on Middle Sound, much to the annoyance of the people who live in that vicinity as the effluvia from the decaying mass is intolerable. The fish are about four or five inches long on an average, but no one seems to know what caused them to die and be washed ashore.

The Opera House.

The reserved seats at the Opera House for to-night's performance of the comic Opera, "The Little Tycoon," are nearly all taken and there is every indication that the house will be crowded to its utmost capacity. The rehearsals have been prosecuted vigorously and under the most careful and through instruction and the result promises to be a complete triumph. The management have labored earnestly and faithfully to make the Opera a success and we are heartily glad to feel assured that their labors have not been in vain. It is expected that this will be only the initial opera, and that others will be presented during the season, and we hope that such may be the fact. We know that the amateur talent of the city is fully competent for any of the minor operas, and they ought to be encouraged by our people, so that we may have a good season of first-rate musical entertainments without being beholden to Northern professionals.

Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R.

The committee on Finance of the Board of Aldermen and a special committee of the Board of Audit and Finance, were in conference last night at the Mayor's office in the City Hall with the commissioners appointed to treat with the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R. Co. relative to a subscription by the city to secure the extension of that road from Fayetteville to Wilmington.

It is understood that the railroad company want the subscription of $150,000 to be either in cash or five per cent. bonds. It is understood, also, that the Board of Audit and Finance are unwilling to issue bonds bearing more than four per cent. interest, if the decision of the Supreme Court affirms the validity of the subscription of $100,000 voted to the Onslow railroad; otherwise, the Board will be willing to issue five per cent. bonds.

The result of the conference was not made public. It was stated, however, that no conclusion was reached, but that another conference will be held after the holidays.

The committee from the Board of Audit and Finance were Messrs. Gore, Hewett and Maunder. His Honor Mayor Fowler and Alderman Fishplate represented the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen at the meeting.

See the Othello Range at Jacob's Hdw. Depot. It is unequalled as a baker; it is finely finished; has a reversible grate for either coal or wood. Can be changed in a second by the most inexperienced. Just the stove for winter use.

"L'Ombrage."

The Kate Bensburg English Opera Company will appear at the Opera House in this city in Flotow's Opera "L'Ombrage," next Monday night. The company is said to be excellent and their musical ability has been highly praised by those who are entirely competent to judge, who have attended their performances. The Opera is not familiar to us, but as it was composed by the author of "Martha," we do not hesitate to say that it is a good one.

City Court.

The calendar for the Mayor's consideration this morning was quite small, and was disposed of in the following order:

John Roberts, colored, charged with the larceny of meat from M. F. Croom, was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in a justified bond of $50. The defendant is a lad of about 12 years of age, but he is one of the wicked ones.

Rena Parsall, colored, an old offender and a bad candidate for "way back," was drunk and down. She said that she had taken too much morphine, which was the cause of her helpless condition, but the judgment of the Court, upon hearing the evidence, was that she was drunk and a fine of $10 was imposed with the alternative of 20 days in the chain gang.

Personal.

The wife of Rev. Dr. Pritchard, after an absence of nearly two months in New York and Philadelphia, returned home last night.

Rev. Dr. Yates returned on last night's train from Goldsboro, where he had been to officiate at the nuptials of Capt. J. C. Slocumb and Miss Mollie Dewey. He will preach his last sermon to Grace M. E. Church, at the Temple of Israel next Sunday.

Fatally Burned.

Emma Nash, a colored nurse in the employ of Mr. Andrew J. Flanner, was terribly burned last night at the residence of Mr. William Larkins, corner of Sixth and Dock streets, from the effects of which she died at about 9 o'clock this morning. The girl was sent up stairs to put a child of Mrs. Flanner's to sleep, and after awhile Mrs. Flanner went up herself to see if the child had been properly cared for, when she found the room full of smoke, and the girl asleep with her clothing on fire, near the stove. From all that we can learn the girl had been at a frolic on the night before at which she was kept awake nearly all night, and when she put the child to bed last night, she built a fire in the stove and laid down and was soon fast asleep. A spark from the stove ignited her clothing. Mrs. Flanner tried to extinguish the fire, but the girl, in a bewildered condition, got away from her and ran out on the piazza, where the fire was fanned into a blaze which soon enveloped her entire body. Assistance was promptly summoned and every effort was made to relieve her sufferings, but without avail, and after a night of terrible torture she died as we have stated.

St. John's Day.

The committee of arrangements appointed by the lodges of A. F. and A. Masons, of this city, to prepare for the celebration of St. John's Day, the 27th inst., have agreed upon the following programme:

The three lodges will meet at St. John's Hall, at 3 o'clock, on Tuesday afternoon, when the officers of said lodges will be installed by M. W. Charles H. Robinson, Grand Master.

Concord Chapter No. 1, R. A. M. will meet at the same time and place, when the officers of the Chapter will be installed by Deputy Grand High Priest, M. M. Katz.

The lodges and visiting brethren will assemble again at St. John's Hall, at 7.30 p. m., sharp, and form procession at 7.45 p. m. and proceed to the Orton House, where they will receive the Orator of the day, M. W. Robert Bingham, P. G. M., and march thence to the Opera House, where the oration will be delivered. The public are cordially invited to attend. Upon the conclusion of the address the lodges will return to their hall. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Germania Cornet Band.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.

There was a sharp advance in the price of cotton in New York to-day. The markets will close to-morrow night and remain closed until Tuesday.

Schr. Uranus, Peters, cleared to-day for Ponce, P. R., with 247,000 feet of lumber, valued at $3,849, shipped by Mr. E. Kidder's Son.

Indications.

For North Carolina, fair and slightly warmer, except nearly stationary temperature along the coast, and light to fresh variable winds.

Terpsichorean.

The Germania Cornet Band will give a grand New Year's Ball, at Germania Hall, on the night of January 2nd, 1888. There will be every effort made to have the occasion one of unequalled beauty and splendor, and no stone will be left unturned to accomplish that object. The following are the committee of arrangements: Messrs. J. G. L. Gieschen, C. F. VonKampen, H. H. Gieschen, J. H. Kueck and M. Rathjen.

The Boss.

Gen. S. H. Manning's new pleasure yacht, The Boss, was successfully launched yesterday afternoon at Capt. Beery's ship yard on the west side of the river. After the launch The Boss was taken in tow by the Navassa, and preceded by the yacht Vetnor, Capt. George Morton, passed up the river to Morton & Hall's wharves, where The Boss is to receive her boiler and the remainder of her machinery. All the boats had their bunting displayed and the new yacht was fairly covered with flags.

The Boss is forty feet in length, eight feet breadth of beam. She has a 36-inch propeller, which is guaranteed to make 300 revolutions with 100 pounds of steam pressure.

Another Great Sacrifice in Fine Custom Made Clothing.

I. Shrier, desiring to close out every dollar's worth of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, and to make quick work of it, will sell out his entire Winter stock regardless of cost. The real cost or actual value of the goods will have nothing to do with the low prices. His main object is to open up in the large and handsome store in the Purcell building, by the 21st of December, with one of the finest stocks of ready-made clothing. All goods on hand will be slaughtered off. Remember, this is no sensational or humbug scheme, and don't miss the opportunity of getting a bargain of the well known I. Shrier, the Old Reliable, on Front street, next door to McIntire's dry-goods store, sign of the golden arm.

You can get the best clothing and furnishing goods of A. Shrier, and for the least money. Every article warranted as represented at the new clothing house of A.
