Renews Her Youth
Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed it completely all disease and pain." Try bottle, only 50c. For sale by W. H. Green & Co.

Worth Knowing
Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at W. H. Green & Co's Drug Store.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

MISCELLANEOUS.
December, 1887.
Just think of it, only one week until Christmas. What wonders can happen in the short space of one year. Nations rise and fall, islands can shoot from the unfathomable depths of the sea, stretch forth their strong arm of freedom, sound a blast from their trumpet and sink back into the dark waters from whence they came, and still our small world goes on with a ceaseless tread, never failing to teach other nations the right of freedom and liberty by its own example. "Wonders will never cease," even in this little town of ours. Everybody has learned something since last Christmas. For instance, take the little store on the Northeast corner of Front and Market streets. You have learned that at Hedrick's you can buy the prettiest, neatest, most stylish goods cheaper than you can in any store in Wilmington. Last Christmas our friends complained that the store was not large enough—it was too crowded with goods. Well, now, since last Xmas we have learned how to keep our store free from all rubbish and goods that are not needed at this time of the year; and can give you all the room needed and do everybody justice. You have got to have Xmas presents, and we have sensible presents for your wife, children and friends, and in the meantime, the wives must not have their husbands "get left," even though they pay the bills. This is an age of advancement, and people have at last found out that toys are not the thing. Here's what we have to say for this week's trade:
All ye young gallants, listen. Don't present your young lady friends with any of the little things of this earth, but come down and see things that are heavenly, perfectly angelic. Our embroidered Handkerchief, so fine that a breath of air will blow it away. See here, there are only a few, come quick.
A handsome hand-embroidered Hdkt for 50c.
A beautiful one at 75c.
An exquisite one for $1.
Magnificent Hdks worth $4, $3, $2.50, $1, $2.50 and $1.50.
All of these, understand, are imported and hand-made; too fine for a machine.
We must get rid of the goods by Xmas at any sacrifice. We have the largest line in the State. Those are our prices on Handkerchiefs. Everything in our line is equally as cheap. We mean business, and we mean to sell goods this week, "and don't you forget it."
Doyles, Napkins, Towels, fancy and plain, Table Linen, Collars, Cuffs, all white goods cheaper than the cheapest.
A few pieces of Mantling, Table Scarfs and Tidies left. Come quick. Dress Goods, Trimmings, Gloves, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Cravats, Ribbons, Laces. I'll not say more. Come soon in the week and don't get left. Come down, they have "got to go."
