 To-morrow, January 8th, will be the 73d anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, in which Gen. Andrew Jackson, commanding the American forces, defeated with terrible slaughter the British troops under the command of Sir Richard Packenham, the latter being among the killed.
Cotton.
 The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ended January 7th, 1888, foot up 1,448 bales as against 1,935 bales for the corresponding week last year; a decrease of 487 bales. The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 150,012 bales as against 116,723 bales for the corresponding period last year; an increase of 33,290 bales.
Excursion Rates.
 The authorities of the Atlantic Coast Line, will issue round trip excursion tickets from points along the line of their roads to Wilmington and return for one fare, commencing on the 19th inst. and continued every Thursday thereafter for one month, the tickets to be good for 24 hours. If the plan should work advantageously to all concerned it will probably be continued for a longer period than the time now specified.

Religious Item.
 Rev. D. H. Tuttle will preach at Fifth Street M. E. Church to-morrow upon the following subjects: At 11 a. m., "The Enduring Character of Christian work, and the certainty of reward." Text, First Corinthians, XV. 58; at 7.30 p. m., "Strongholds of sin to be pulled down in Wilmington." Text—Second Corinthians X. 4.

A Swindle.
 A gentleman of this city a day or two ago, received a written request, purporting to come from a colored woman, for two dollars. The note stated that her husband was dead and she wanted the money to pay the expenses of his funeral. The gentleman, a generous-hearted citizen, sent the money, supposing, of course that the kindness was properly bestowed as the woman, whose name was signed to the request, had frequently worked for his family. Much to his surprise, however, the woman has been at his house since the request was made, and she is not yet a widow, her husband being alive and well. The letter was a fraud, and the gentleman is a victim of misplaced confidence to the amount of two dollars.

Florida Tourists.
 An excursion party of about 200 persons passed through the city a little after 7 o'clock this morning, en route for Jacksonville, Fla. The party was composed mainly of gentlemen interested in the palatial Ponce de Leon hotel which has recently been erected in that flourishing Southern city. There were also quite a number who will be employees of the establishment, and there was also a fine band of music from New York, who will be present at the festivities attending the opening to the public of the hotel. The party took breakfast at the Atlantic Coast Line Restaurant, at Front street depot, and before their departure the band played several pieces in exquisite style. The Ponce de Leon Hotel is one of the largest in the country, and has cost nearly or quite $2,000,000 in its construction.

City Court.
 There was a light docket demanding the Mayor's attention this morning and it was disposed of in the following order:
 Della Hines, colored, charged with the larceny of a dress from her aunt. The testimony showed no intended guilt and the defendant was discharged.
 John Moseley, colored, disorderly conduct. This is one of a gang who have been in the habit of congregating at the corner of South Second and Dock streets, where they indulged in marble playing, wrestling, and, very often, in loud and boisterous language, much to the annoyance of the residents of that vicinity. Complaint has frequently been made regarding them, but the gang have been so watchful that the officers have found it impossible to make an arrest until yesterday when officer Piver stole a march on them and succeeded in arresting the defendant. The others escaped. The testimony was conclusive and Moseley was sentenced to pay a fine of $5, or work 10 days in the chain gang.

Personal.
 Sheriff E. Murrell, of Onslow county, was in the city yesterday on a brief visit. He has been sheriff of Onslow county for twenty-seven years and a subscriber to the DAILY REVIEW for ten years.
 The venerable Mr. Isaac Macks, a prominent merchant of Baltimore, is in the city on a visit to his son, Mr. J. I. Macks.
 Mr. Ed. A. Brown, Route Superintendent of the Southern Express Company, is very sick at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. E. J. Moore, in this city. He was somewhat better this morning and we hope to hear more favorable news from him to-morrow.
 We are glad to hear that Mr. Norwood Giles, who has been quite sick is now better and hopes to be convalescent in a few days.
 Mr. Lucein T. Beatty, formerly a resident of this city, but now a Bladen county farmer, was in the city yesterday.
 We are glad to notice that Mr. W. H. Sholar, superintendent of the street force, who has been sick for several days has so far recovered as to be again at his post of duty.

Criminal Court.
 The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal to-day, up to the time of closing our report:
 State vs. S. Howard, wilful abandonment. Guilty. Judgment not yet pronounced.
 State vs. John Baker, larceny. Guilty. Judgment eight years in State Penitentiary.
 State vs. Sarah Fair, nuisance. Guilty. Judgment twelve months in the County House of Correction. The grand jury, having concluded their labors, for the term, were discharged to-day.

The Tabernacle.
 At the Pastor's Conference last night, at the conclusion of the services at Fifth Street M. E. Church, the committee appointed to see what plans should be adopted for the accommodation of the throngs that would flock to hear Rev. Mr. Pearson, submitted their report. The most feasible plan seemed to the committee, was to rent, if possible, the Champion Compress building, and they were empowered to see the owners of this property and endeavor to secure the same for the object in view.
 Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

A Rash Act.
 Julia Potter, a white girl, aged about 19, who has been at work at the cotton factory, made a determined effort to commit suicide yesterday by swallowing the contents of two bottles of laudanum, which she had procured for the avowed purpose of ending her life. She had been in a desponding frame of mind for some time and life had become a burden to her. She took the poison in spite of all that could be done to prevent it, and before physicians could reach her she was completely narcotized. Their efforts to restore her were not attended with satisfactory results, and at last accounts she was alive, but in an extremely critical condition.

Serious Accident.
 A letter was received here this morning from Mr. Willie Mayo, son of Mr. W. E. Mayo, written yesterday at the "Rocks," which stated that on the 5th inst. The writer and Mr. James Wells went gunning for ducks, and returned at about sundown to Zeke's Island, Mr. Mayo left to get a lantern, leaving his gun with Mr. Wells leaning against the outside of the house near the door. When he had gone about 200 yards he heard the report of a gun, but paid no attention to the matter. After securing the lantern he returned and found his gun lying on the beach with both hammers broken off, and Mr. Wells seriously wounded in the left thigh, with the flesh torn from the bone and bleeding profusely. Mr. Wells stated to Mayo that, as he opened the door, the gun fell and both barrels were discharged with the result as above stated.

The Week of Prayer.
 The meeting last night was held at Fifth Street M. E. Church, and the building was thronged to its utmost capacity. In fact many could not obtain admission and were obliged to return home. The services were conducted by Revs. J. W. Priurose and G. M. Tolson. Addresses were also made by Rev. Dr. Pritchard and Rev. Mr. Hoge, which were able efforts. The music was excellent. The meeting to-night will be held at the First Baptist Church.
 Since the first night of this "Week of Prayer" the meetings have been constantly increasing in interest until now, when the week has nearly closed, the religious feeling among our people amounts to a genuine enthusiasm. It is the wish among a great many that the meetings may be continued, and that the laymen of the different evangelical churches of the city take the matter in hand and see what they can do in the cause of the Master.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
 Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

John J. Hedrick,
 January 6th, 1888.

We want to talk to our friends about Towels. Towels are an interesting subject to all nice Housekeepers. We have a weakness that way, and consequently find ourselves overstocked. We do not design to exaggerate, but confidently believe that we have more Towels than any two stores in the city, and have always sold them cheaper. We intend to sell them cheaper yet. Listen, our 37 1/2 cents Damask Towels with fancy border, have been reduced to 25c. We sold a Scotch Huck towel very large size at $3 per dozen, they are worth $4, these we let you have at $2.75. We give you a Huck towel that would be cheap at 20c for 15c. A pure linen Huck towel, a little smaller size, at 10c. Cotton towels as low as 5c, and elegant towels up to $1.50 each, which will be sold at a reduction. To those who are well posted, the superiority and cheapness of our linen stock are as familiar as "household words," the prices named above are for cash, but prompt paying customers will get them all the same; if you desire to derive the benefit of the above offer, call early. So much for towels. Next week we will give you some information in relation to other goods.
