of the Methodist Advance, of this out for the formation of the county. city, has changed hands, Rev. Drs. The main thing, it seems, is to have Bobbitt and Robey having sold it to Mr. L. A. Potter, of Beaufort, who assumed charge yesterday and will be secured, then the people of Dunn be likewise its editor.

ferent companys of Northerners are are, that Dunn is on the railroad buying up car loads of walnut, and easily accessible; that the court house at Lillington is about "done and other woods, and shipping in the log to Glasgow, Scotland. They pay $20 per thousand for walnut, enterprising town in the county. (log measure) and $3 per thousand Discussion of the matter has taken for all other woods.

Washington Gazette: A most horrible murder was committed near new county, which would probably Creswell, in Washington county, last week. A clock mender from Raleigh, while passing on the New Land road was assaulted and killed with an axe-being struck three times on the head and one arm broken. The body was carried about 100 yards from the public road, put with dirt and brush. From the best with the murder are not known. The Sheriff has arrested two pegro men, Jack Blount and Mack Blount, both of whom are desperate characbefore this time.
