Lord Colin Campbell has just been discharged from bankruptcy. His divorce case cost $4,943.

In the last twenty years 1,500 divorces have been granted in the Brooklyn Courts, New York.

It is said that Governor Seay has determined to enter the race for United States Senator from Alabama, in opposition to Senator Morgan.

Over $87,000,000 was invested in new buildings in New York city last year—an increase of near $9,000,000 over 1886 and $20,000,000 over 1885.

A memorial signed by a very large number of the business men of Baltimore, praying the repeal of the tariff tax on sugar, is now in readiness for presentation to Congress.

The Australians are the greatest bettors in the world. $20,000,000 change hands annually over horse races. In Victoria alone there are 250 registered bookmakers. It is computed that $150,000 are annually bet on foot-ball matches.

The New York Sun says: "One of the first Acts of the New York Legislature should be to repeal the Saturday half holiday law. It does no good to anybody, and works great injury to the business of this metropolis."

Frank J. Sullivan is contesting C.
N. Felton's right to a seat in Congress from the Fifth California district. He claims that the election was carried by fraud, bribery and intimidation and that the California sugar corporations have instituted a condition of slavery from which the white voters have no means of escape. The Republicans, he says, tried to seize the election machinery and to give the Democrats no representation whatever. An injunction alone prevented this outrage.

The Boston Republic says: "The consecutive sort of polygamy which flourishes so freely here in New England is a more cowardly kind than the one that is found out at Utah, inasmuch as it abandons the divorced wife entirely, and frees the polygamist husband from all responsibility in her regard after he has succeeded in casting her off, whereas Mormon polygamists provide for their first wives, no matter to how many others they may become 'sealed.'"

Judge Morse, of Michigan, who has been charged with the paternity of the lie told on Hon. John S.
Henderson, M. C. from this State, telegraphed to the New York Herald denying that he had made any such statement, and saying that there was no trouble whatever at the dinner where the alleged remarks were uttered, but that all was quiet and peaceful and in good taste. Per-contra, the Herald correspondent at Lonia says that Judge Morse did make the statement alluded to and that he can prove it by no less a personage than the

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 1888. NO 7

Secretary of State of Michigan, who sat next to Judge Morse when he made the statement, which was at some military banquet given in Lonia.

The name of Hon. John S. Henderson, Representative in Congress for the Seventh district, having been mentioned in connection with the nomination for Governor, our good friend of the Hickory Press and Carolinian is moved to say:

All that is said of John Henderson is entirely correct but we want him to remain in Congress. As Governor, he could do nothing towards "repealing the abominable internal revenue iniquity," but as a member of congress he may do a good deal.
We object to the nomination of the Judges, not for any opposition to the men, but we suppose a precedent that might influence Judges to smother justice with policy. The eastern part of the State claims the first place on the ticket, and the Cape Fear section, that has not been represented in the Executive office in half a century, or more, offers her distinguished and honorable son, Maj. C. M. Stedman, at present Lieut. Governor, and in the line of promotion, and most admirably qualified in every way to fill the Governor's office with profit to the State and credit to himself. Maj.
Stedman has an unsullied record and would make a good "run." The farmers will demand a representative and so far as we have learned Capt. Alexander is their man. With Stedman and Alexander we can harmonize and unite the Democratic forces to the tune of 20,000 majority, and so let it be Stedman and Alexander.

The REVIEW appreciates the generous sentiment displayed by the Press and Carolinian towards the Cape Fear section in the above article. We have long regarded the nomination of Lieut. Gov. Stedman; aside from any local consideration, as essential to the best interests of the Democratic party. Under his leadership we would have a strong and aggressive campaign, the party would be thoroughly organized, and there would be an overwhelming victory at the polls for us.

The Sign.
"The Orton" is a sign now adorning the roof of the new part of the Orton House. It was put up to-day and attracted considerable attention. The sign is made of galvanized iron, but the letters will be painted some appropriate color.

Religious Items.
Forty members have been received into St. Paul's Lutheran Church during the past year, and during the same time $5,000 over and above its current expenses have been raised by the Church. This is a good showing and speaks well for the Church and the spirit of Christian benevolence by which it is actuated.

Real Estate.
The house known as the Eli W.
Hall property, on North Front st., was sold at auction at noon to-day by Messrs. S. P. Collier & Co. Mr.
Samuel Bear, Jr., was the purchaser and the price at which the property was sold was $300. The land upon which the house is now standing belongs to the U. S. Government, and consequently the structure will be taken down and removed.

City Court.
There was but one defendant demanding Mayor Fowler's attention this morning, and his name was Anthony Ballard, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. The offense was proven, and Anthony was required to pay $20 or be imprisoned for 30 days. Two witnesses in the case who failed to appear when called had judgment nisi entered against them with a fine of $10 in each case.

ceedings before this tribunal to-day, up to the time of closing our report:

donment. Guilty. Judgment one State vs. Hardy Wright, injury to fence. Guilty. Judgment, one penny and costs.

State vs. W. H. Howe, keeping Motion overruled. Now on trial.

A Good Boy.

A young man, who was spoken to by the police last Saturday evening about driving his horse rather faster than is allowed by the city ordinances, took the idea that he was under arrest, and when the City Court opened this morning, he was on hand and walked into the prisoner's dock for trial. He was a good deal relieved when he found that there were no charges against him, and he came out of the dock with a light heart and a happy countenance.

Rocky Point Items.

Mr. August Bamberg, after a painful illness of several months, died at Rocky Point on the 5th inst. and was buried on the 7th inst. The deceased was a native of Wesenberg, Mecklenburg Strelitz, and at the time of death his age was 70 years, 11 months and 9 days. He came to the United States in 1848, settling at first on Long Island, but he subsequently came to Rocky Point, where he had lived for many years. He was the youngest of 13 children, and leaves a wife, but no other family. There was a large attendance at his funeral, which took place at Pike Creek Church, in Rocky Point township, Rev. F. W.
E. Peschau officiating.

Mr. F. Mahn, another old German citizen of Rocky Point township, was also buried on Saturday last.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

John J. Hedrick,
January 6th, 1888.

We want to talk to our friends about Towels. Towels are an interesting subject to all nice Housekeepers. We have a weakness that way, and consequently find ourselves overstocked. We do not design to exaggerate, but confidently believe that we have more Towels than any two stores in the city, and have always sold them cheaper. We intend to sell them cheaper yet. Listen, our 37 1/2 cents Damask Towels with fancy border, have been reduced to 25c. We sold a Scotch Huck towel very large size at $3 per dozen, they are worth $4, these we let you have at $2.75. We give you a Huck towel that would be cheap at 20c for 15c. A pure linen Huck towel, a little smaller size, at 10c. Cotton towels as low as 5c, and elegant towels up to $1.50 each, which will be sold at a reduction. To those who are well posted, the superiority and cheapness of our linen stock are as familiar as "household words," the prices named above are for cash, but prompt paying customers will get them all the same; if you desire to derive the benefit of the above offer, call early. So much for towels. Next week we will give you some information in relation to other goods.

Respectfully,
J. J. H.
