INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. OPERA HOUSE—Boston Stars. DICK & MEARES—Piece Goods. OPERA HOUSE—Jim the Penman. C. W. YATES—Yearly Subscriptions. FOR SALE—Bottling Establishment. JOHN F. GARRELL—Sampson Stall Fed. HEINSBERGER—Great Bargains in Books.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons. The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 249 bales. Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

Ladies will find a nice line of good reliable scissors at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

It grew colder for a while this forenoon but the sun again made its welcome appearance and nature looked more cheerful in spite of the cold.

Br. ship Etta, which has been discharging ballast at the foot of Ann street, was towed up to the Champion Compress this afternoon. She is a fine ship.

Ital. barque Sirena, Jaccarino, cleared to-day for Bristol, Eng., with 3,247 barrels rosin, valued at $3,164, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

The room in the Champion Compress building which will be occupied by the congregations who will attend Rev. Mr. Pearson's series of meetings will be lighted by electricity, that plan of illuminating having been determined upon by those having the matter in charge.

Mr. Jno. F. Garrell, in Front street market, treats his customers to some very fine stall-fed beef from Sampson county (God bless her!). It is unusually fat, tender and juicy, and is now on exhibition at his stalls. On Friday he expects another carload of that famous mountain beef.

Fatal Accident. A colored boy named Ben Shaw, about 15 years old, while attempting to jump on the tender of the shifting engine at Front Street depot yesterday afternoon, missed his footing and fell across one of the rails. The engine, which was moving backwards at the time, passed over his body cutting him completely in two just above the hips. The lifeless body was taken to the house of his father, Ben Shaw, Sr., one of the hucksters in the market. No blame can be attached to any one.

Personal. Mr. John T. Bland, of Burgaw, was in the city to-day in attendance upon the Superior Court. Mr. W. B. Hocut, of Rocky Point, was in the city to-day. Mr. James H. Chadbourne, Jr., is in the city on business connected with the construction of the railroad to Wrightsville, of which he is the general superintendent. Mr. C. H. Dock, of Bolton, was in the city yesterday. Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, returned to the city last night from a round of episcopal visitations. We are glad to hear that Mr. Norwood Giles, who has been quite sick, is now rapidly recovering. Sorry to hear that Bro. Pleasants, of the Messenger, is confined to the house. Rev. S. H. Chester, of Mebanesville, is in the city on a short visit to Mr. A. A. Willard. We regret very much to learn that Mr. A. F. Lucas intends to remove from the city. He is a good citizen and a clever gentleman and we hate to have him leave us.

To the Sound. We are bound now to have a railroad to the Sound, and that without delay. We are assured by those who are in a position to know, that work on the road will be commenced within ten days, and probably before the present week shall have passed away. This road being completed and with the steamboat line to Carolina Beach, will give the city importance as a pleasure resort, and will be the means of bringing a large number of pleasure and health seekers to Wilmington.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

Superior Court. The following were the proceedings before this tribunal this forenoon:

Jacob Greenwald vs. the Asheville & Spartanburg Railroad. Petition by defendant for removal of the case to the United States Court. Petition resisted by plaintiff. Arguments heard. The decision of the Court to be given this afternoon—Russell & Ricard and J. L. Macks for plaintiff; Stedman & Weill for defendant.

L. A. Capps vs. J. T. Capps, administrator. Opinion reserved. J. T. Elliott for plaintiff; J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for defendant.

For the Ladies. From "Bab's" spicy and interesting "babble" in the New York Star, we clip the following, which will be of interest to some of our fair readers:

If you wish to be lucky and get whichever you most desire, either a husband of a lot of money, you must, my dear, just as the clock is striking 12 on the night of the 13th of February, get up and, without speaking a word to any one, put on a yellow silk garter. Most of the girls are betting garters, and, of course, the man who sends them will naturally put on them a lovely pair of buckles. A very French pair that I saw the other day were of broad yellow silk, with a perfumed sachet under the clasp, so it wouldn't hurt one. The buckles were of gold, and suggestively engraved was this: "How happy must be either!"

The Next. "Jim, the Penman," will be the next attraction at the Opera House. It will be presented to-morrow night by a carefully selected company from the Madison Square Theatre, N. Y., where it has had an almost unprecedented run. It was written by Sir Charles Young, one of the nobility of England, and while, at first, it met with but little favor in that country, it sprung at once into popular favor when put upon the boards of Madison Square Theatre, in New York, and for months it was the theatre craze of that great city. It will be presented here with all the scenic effects which added so much to its attractiveness in New York, and by a company specially selected with a view to fully maintaining its metropolitan popularity. Tickets on sale at Heinsberger's.

Literary. Scribner's Magazine for February is rich in illustrated articles of unusual interest. The leading article, entitled "Mendelssohn's Letters to Moscheles," is the first of two which have been made from a remarkable collection of manuscripts which has been for nearly half a century in the possession of Felix, the son of Ignaz Moscheles, the eminent composer and most trusted friend of Mendelssohn. These letters were recently placed in the hands of Wm. F. Apthorp, the well-known musical critic and from them he has made a judicious and entertaining selection. The other articles in this number are equally interesting and well written, making it one of the most interesting as well as entertaining and instructive magazines now published in this country. Published by Charles Scribner's Sons, New York.

The Minstrels. Notwithstanding the inclement weather last night there was a full house to give cordial greeting to the first appearance of Wilson & Rankin's Minstrels in this city, and all present were delighted. The company is one of the very best that has ever visited Wilmington, in all that relates to a minstrel performance of the highest order. The songs, the instrumental music, the jokes and in fact every feature of the entertainment was inimitable. The drolleries of the company kept the audience in a roar of convulsive laughter, and in all there was nothing to offend the most fastidious and refined taste. There were more than two hours of consolidated, concentrated, solidified innocent fun, which won the best feelings of all present and gave the unqualified assurance that Wilson & Rankin's Minstrels will always find a cordial greeting and a crowded house whenever they come to Wilmington.

City Sewerage. Mayor Fowler and Aldermen Pearsall and Ricard have been appointed a committee, under a resolution of the Board of Aldermen, to inquire into the feasibility and the probable cost of a system of sewerage for the city. The estimated cost, we have learned, for a complete and perfect system of sewerage for the entire city, would be about $70,000. This system perfected would obviate the necessity for cess-pools, and would keep the city clear of all unwholesome or offensive odors. The value of such a system to the health of our people cannot be calculated, nor its vital importance overestimated.

The Boston Stars. Next Thursday night, the 26th inst., the Boston Star Concert Company will give one of their excellent entertainments at the Opera House in this city. To those whose privilege it was to hear them when they were here last year, no words of commendation from us are necessary, but to those who have never heard them we may say this company will give one of the most attractive and interesting entertainments that have visited the city this year. There will be the cornet solos by Mr. Walter Emerson, vocal solos by Mrs. Medora Hensen Emerson, piano recitations by Mr. Rudolf King, and readings by Mrs. Nella F. Brown, either of which will be of surpassing excellence, and will be well worth the price of admission. It is a superb company of artists.

City Court. John Gilmore and Nancy Gilmore, his wife, both colored, were brought before Mayor Fowler this morning charged with disorderly conduct. This couple have been before the Court repeatedly, and from all accounts they live a life of chronic fighting. Both appear to be about as mean as they well can be. In this case, however, John seemed to be entirely to blame and he was sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment in the county jail and Nancy was discharged.

Enoch Alexander, colored, disorderly conduct, which consisted of a brutal assault upon his wife and daughter. In his case a fine of $20 or 30 days in the chain gang was the sentence of the Court.

William Manus, colored, a tramp and a nuisance, who was sent out of the city a short time since, was sentenced to 10 days' confinement in a close cell in the city prison, and then to be sent out of the city.

One party, whose name we suppress by request, was fined $20 for disorderly conduct, with the alternative of working 30 days in the chain gang.

New Hanover Bible Society. Yesterday afternoon, pursuant to call, the Executive Committee met at the office of Mr. John McLaurin, editor of the Presbyterian. There were present, Rev. Mr. Hoge, Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Mr. W. H. Green, Mr. H. H. Munson, Mr. B. F. Hall, Mr. Oscar Pearsall, Mr. F. A. Newbury and Rev. Mr. Law, the general superintendent. Rev. P. H. Hoge was made Chairman, and the Secretary was ordered to call on the Treasurer for a list of the members who joined the Society on Sunday night last.

The first Tuesday in each quarter was made a stated meeting, and the matter of selecting a stated time for the annual meeting was left to the Vice Presidents, composed of ministers, who are to report at the next quarterly meeting.

Mr. J. W. Elder was appointed to confer with Mr. John McLaurin, in regard to enlarging the repository and amount of books.

The Treasurer was instructed to send any funds on hand or collected to the parent Society as a book account fund.

Mr. B. F. Hall handed to the Secretary two statements of accounts. Rev. D. H. Tuttle was appointed to see if a book-store would not take the repository. Also, an order was made directing the Treasurer to have a sign made, showing where the Bible could be purchased.

Indications. For North Carolina, slight change in temperature, rain, followed by fair weather, and light to fresh winds, becoming Northerly.

See the "Artful," the best rat trap known, at Jacob's Hdw Depot.

Union Meeting. The Union Meeting of the Southern Division of the Eastern Baptist Association will meet at Riley's Creek Church, in Pender county, next Friday. Rev. G. M. Tolson will preach the opening sermon. The Thomasville Baptist Orphanage will be one of the topics that will be discussed by the Association.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.
