WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1888.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C. as second-class matter.

The establishment at Acapulco of a Chinese commercial house to supply Mexico with Chinese and Japawhich is supposed to have once existed between Mexico and Eastern Asia. The Mexican Financier, unposed to meet the enterprise by howling out that the "Chinese must go." It anticipates the building up of a profitable trade in some lines. "Oriental fabries, lacquer work, fans, &c.," it says, "could probably be easily introduced here at prices which must be considerably lower than those now charged for similar goods. Payment could be made directly in Mexican dollars."

The Rev. F. T. Bagley, of Portland. Me, has thrown an unexpected light on the working of prohibition in Maine by testifying that drinking exists to an alarming extent in the schools. In one room of a city that he drinks," and "a pupil in the primary is often under the influence of drink." It is not surprising after this to learn from this clergyman's and the channels are clogged with sermon that the hotels sell liquor impurities, which result in disease freely, that "club rooms where drinking is habitual" are frequent covery" for acting upon the liver and have a large membership of young men and boys, or that Portland had 922 arrests for drunken ness in the last six months, with a weight is less than glass or stone population of 33,810. It would be hard to find any license town which could match these facts.

With the hostile forces of Abyssinia and Italy drawing closer, the Red Sea for the moment attracts much of the public attention that had been centred on the Black. Italy's concession to Spain of a fif teen years' right to a coaling station on Assab Bay indicates her purpose permanently to occupy that region. The bay is capacious, having a width of about five miles and a length thrice its width, so that there will be room enough for such Span ish vessels as may find their way there, even with all the rights of occupation reserved by Italy. But the main point of interest just now is the opposite shore of the Red Sea, where an uprising against the Christians is reported to have occurred system and bowels. 25 cents a vial. at Jiddah, the port of Mecca. This town has become more and more important as a route of travel for pilgrims to the famous city, and as an avenue of traffic with interior Arabia. These advantages for trade have in turn drawn a small resident is under Turkish Gövernment, so that, should the news of the fanatical uprising be confirmed, prompt measures will doubtless be taken at Constantinople for checking further outrages and redressing grievances.

Manager Coffee, of Wells, Fargo & Co. recently said to a San Francisco reporter: "You would be surprised to see what stacks of gold coin and gold dust remain here un called for. When we have kept it long enough we send the gold dust to the mint and get it coined, and then credit it to the unknown. Years ago an old fellow living upon the John Day River, is Oregon, sent us a big bag of gold. We stowed it away until the bag looked like a relic of the middle ages, and would scarcely hold together. Then we sent the bag of dust and nuggets over to the mint and got it transformed into $8,000. Eight years afterward an old, bedraggled-looking fellow walked in, and said he We asked him his name, and when Grocers and Chemists. Sole Agents for he gave it we told him yes, he had, it down in advance of his coming himself, and when he got here he world, and had only just now got back. We asked him why he hadn't taken it to the bank, saying that he could have got a good many thousand dollars interest on it by this time. Yes, he said, he knew that, but the blanked banks might break, and he thought he would just leave it where it was."

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, canberous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.
