

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alums or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall St., N. Y.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, '88.

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Mr. Hoar, from the Select Committee on the celebration of the Centennial of the Constitution, reported a joint resolution providing, "in addition to such other celebration as may hereafter be provided for, that the two Houses of Congress shall meet in the hall of the House of Representatives; that the Chief Justice of the United States shall deliver an oration; and that the President of the United States, Justices of the Supreme Court, members of the Cabinet, executives of the several States and Territories, and such other persons as may be invited to attend. After a long discussion the resolution was amended by striking out the introductory sentence (as quoted) and was then adopted.

Mr. Hoar, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back a bill to provide for requests under national authority, which was placed on the calendar, a minority report to be submitted hereafter.

Mr. Sawyer called up and the Senate passed the bill to amend the postal laws, so that newspapers now sent free of postage to persons residing within the county of publication, may be sent to persons living in other counties, when they receive them at postoffices within the county of publication.

The Blair Educational bill was laid before the Senate, but was laid aside temporarily, and Mr. Platt took the floor for a speech upon the President's message. He argued that the President is a free trader, and he acknowledged himself to be a protectionist, and from this standpoint he discussed the President's message.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Bills were introduced as follows:
By Mr. Caudler, of Georgia, for refunding United States 4 per cent. bonds into 2 1/2 per cent. bonds.

By Mr. Henderson, of North Carolina, to divide the surplus money in the Treasury on the 1st of July, 1888, among the several States and Territories, to be used in aid of common schools. Also, to repeal the tax on notes of State Banks used as circulation.

By Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, a joint resolution of the Ohio Legislature, expressing faith in a protective tariff, for the sake of protection, to the end that people may have diversity of employment, farmers may have a home market, laborers may have good wages, and the nation be independent among the nations of the earth; denouncing as unjust, unwise and unpatriotic the views expressed by the President in opposition to a protective policy, views which, if formulated into law, would dissipate the surplus, paralyze industry, degrade labor and demoralize business; and requesting Ohio representatives to oppose all measures that may be offered in Congress for the purpose of giving effect to those views.

At the conclusion of the call of States, Speaker Carlisle entered the chamber and assumed the gavel amid loud applause from both sides of the House.

Mr. Perkins, of Kansas, presented a resolution of compliment and thanks to the Speaker pro tem. (Cox), which was adopted unanimously, and a round of applause was added to it. Mr. Cox acknowledged the compliment in a brief speech, and the House then resumed consideration of the Lowry-White contested election case from Indiana.

Mr. Rowell, of Illinois, moved as a substitute the resolution presented by the minority declaring the sitting member (White) entitled to the seat. The substitute was agreed to.

The resolution as amended by the substitute, was then agreed to, thus confirming White's title to the seat.
