THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1888 NO 34

CONSTIPATION

Called the "Father of Diseases," because it causes there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being secreted from the blood to produce nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite,
Sick Headache,
Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons' Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost every thing else, concluded to try it. I first took a small dose, and afterwards reduced the dose to a teaspoonful, as per directions, after each meal. It had done me so much good that I continued to use it until I took two bottles. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no use for it, it having cured me."—Geo. W. Sims, Ass't Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

The wife of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes died in Boston on Tuesday, aged 69.

John Outlaw, of Chester county, S. C., is the oldest man in that State. He was born in 1773. He was a soldier in the war of 1812.

Cornelius Vanderbilt is strenuously opposed to the sale of liquor anywhere near a railway station. "If I had my way," said he, recently, "I would prohibit by law the sale of intoxicants within an eighth of a mile of a railway station."

Edward Morrill, who has been in the penitentiary of Erie county, N. Y., has become an artistic banjo player, and has made not less than forty instruments, which are purchased by professional men at from fifteen to twenty dollars each. He was formerly a noted safe-breaker.

Charles Gay is 44 and his wife 40. They were married at Galveston, Texas, in 1863, and are the parents of nineteen children, sixteen of whom are living. They have recently removed to San Jose, Cal., and that city rejoices in receiving so large an increase in population.

A letter written from Orange, Cal., says that the mocking birds in that locality feed on the berries that grow on the Chinese umbrella tree, and that this sort of food makes them tipsy. They act very foolishly just after a hearty meal and stagger about badly intoxicated.

News and Observer: The legislation of the country has been steadily away from the interest of the farmer for a quarter of a century. Simple fairness demands that there should be a turn of the tide in his favor. He asks no more than is accorded the citizen of any other calling but he demands equal consideration with all others and he is 8,000,000 strong. He represents the great body of the people and it is high time his interests were having a hearing.

The following comes in the shape of a dispatch from St. Joseph, Mo. It is hard to believe: Perhaps the youngest wife and mother, who has been twice married, in this country is Annie Stevenson, who, although she is only 12 years of age and looks young even for that age, has been married twice and had two children by her first husband, to whom she was wedded when she was only 10 years of age. Her first husband was Robert Patterson, who was 17 when they were married. Her husband and the two children died, after which she married John Stevenson, who deserted her. She was here looking for the truant, and the police took charge of her because of her destitute condition.

The Sheridan boom, which had its inception in culchawed Boston, seems to grow apace. We would have no objection to see him nominated for the office. He has none of the requisite qualifications and if he had he could not be elected. His nomination means a South more solid and impervious than ever and if Cleveland is the nominee of the Democratic party Mr. Sheridan would have no showing with the business men of the North and West. The Sheridan boom, if it has any basis at all, is founded on sentiment, and business and sentiment rarely mix. Cleveland has satisfied the business men and they will vote for him accordingly. It is the Solid South and the business men of the North and West who will elect this year and "don't you forget it."

How would Sheridan and Butler do for our Republican friends for President and Vice President? We'll make them a present of the Beast that thereby their cup of joy may be full to the brim. It is a lovely pair. It was Butler who made war on the women in New Orleans and Sheridan who invaded the State House of Louisiana with his armed troops and characterized the representatives of the people there as banditti. Yes, Sheridan and Butler is the ticket for the Republicans.

Catarrh originates in serofulous taint. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and thus permanently cures catarrh.

The Military.

Hon. A. M. Waddell will deliver his lecture, entitled "The Universal Infirmity," at the Opera House next Monday evening for the benefit of the Wilmington Light Infantry. It will be a rich literary treat, as those who heard the lecture on a previous occasion can testify, and it will be in aid of a most worthy and laudable object. The company need funds to enable it to make some changes necessary to its efficiency, and we trust that a liberal public will aid them by attending Col. Waddell's lecture on Monday night. Tickets will be sold for admission to the lecture at the stores of Messrs. J. D. Nutt, W. H. Green, P. Heinsberger, C. W. Yates and H. H. Kasprovicz.

St. Agnes' Guild.

Every feature of the entertainment given last night by St. Agnes' Guild was a complete success. The music was carefully and judiciously selected, and in every instance was charmingly rendered. The literary exercises were entertaining and possessed unusual attractiveness. Miss Josie Myers, who is endowed with very fine elocutionary powers, aided by a good stage presence and a sweet and flexible voice, recited Schiller's song of "The Diver," with much pathos, for which she was loudly encored, when she gave Whittier's "School Days" for a second piece. Rev. Mr. Coppr, who is a trained elocutionist, gave Shakespeare's "Burial of Ophelia," and Dickens' "Sergeant Buzfuz," from the Piekwick papers. The contrast between the two recitations was so great—the former being intensely pathetic and the latter grotesquely ludicrous—called for great versatility of talent, but the learned gentleman was equal to the occasion, and both selections were rendered in exquisite style. At the close of the musical and literary exercises, refreshments were served to those who desired at reasonable prices. It was an enjoyable affair throughout, and we are glad to learn that the Guild proposes to have similar entertainments as often as once in each month.

The "Feast of Months."

The entertainment of the "Feast of Months," given by the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, at the City Hall, closed last night, and it was a pleasant occasion to all who were there. The fair ladies who waited upon customers at the different tables, were as bright, cheerful and charming as upon the first night of their labors, and it really seemed as if they were indefatigable. The throng was dense, and the visitors were exceedingly liberal in their patronage, much to the gratification of the ladies who were the most deeply interested in the success of the entertainment. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation to the wife of Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn, who was present, by Mr. W. M. Poisson, in behalf of the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, with a nice cake. Subsequently Mr. Poisson went to Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn's residence and presented that gentleman with a fine clock in behalf of the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, in token of their appreciation of his kindness to their church. The presentation speeches to both Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn and his amiable wife, were brief, but to the point, and were gracefully and gratefully responded to. Later in the evening an elegant robe was presented to Rev. W. S. Creasy, by Mrs. W. H. Shaw, in a neat speech, in behalf of the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, and Col. Roger Moore, in the same behalf, presented Mrs. Creasy with a nice and comfortable rocking chair. A present was also made to the pastor's little daughter, to which he felicitously responded.

We are glad to know that the entertainment has proven a complete financial and social success. About $1,300 have been realized, which will be devoted to the benefit of the church. We must say that the male portion of the worshippers of Grace M. E. Church ought to feel under deep and lasting obligations to the ladies who have done much and have labored with such untiring zeal and unflinching industry in advancing the church's interests. They have performed an immense amount of labor which has resulted in good to all concerned. We hope and believe that their efforts are appreciated.

Grand Ball.

Howard Relief Fire Engine Company will give a grand anniversary ball at the hall over their engine house on the 21st inst. The committee of arrangements are Messrs. G. M. Tienken, J. W. Duls, J. H. Grotgen, G. W. Rivenbark and C. G. Hutaff. Every endeavor will be made to ensure a good and pleasant time.

OUR BIRMINGHAM LETTER.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Feb. 7, 1888. DEAR REVIEW:—It has been quite a time since my last letter, so I'll try to make up for lost time. On the 1st and 2nd of this month we had Booth and Barrett, America's greatest tragedians, with us.—The first night they presented Julius Caesar and the second night Othello, with Barrett as Othello and Booth as Iago. It was a grand occasion. "In essaying to write of these two greatest of actors, criticism must almost necessarily seem stilled and yet inadequate." It is as if were to make the lily more beautiful than it really is or to add something to the brilliance of a diamond. To try to criticize Mr. Booth's Iago would be but a failure. "Criticism halts in utter feebleness." Mr. Booth's Iago was such a finished picture, and his acting so grand that one to have seen him and not know him, would have thought that he was the living original of the character. There is but one Booth, but what a pity there are not more! Too much cannot be said of the Othello of Mr. Barrett. "He is an ideal Othello, and has no rival in America, save his eminent companion." Not only was the acting a grand sight, but the loveliness of the audience. All of the "Magic City" society turned out in evening dress, and to say that the ladies—God bless their dear hearts—were lovely, will not express it. Such a grand and beautifully sight has never been seen in the Opera House here before. Oh ye gods! such a sight! The ladies are going to give a leap year fancy dress ball sometime in the future. When it comes off I'll tell you about it. We had a good deal of excitement here Saturday afternoon, about 6 o'clock, caused by the shooting of a newspaper editor by a detective. Such things will occur once in a while. So you are going to have a Railroad to the Sound! What a paying investment. A dummy line would succeed magnificently if run through the main streets of Wilmington, to Hilton and the Cemetery, this is if Hilton could be made into a public park. Wilmington should have a park. "Stir them up," so says the "DICKIE BIRD."
