The Daily Review.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, '88.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

Ex-Governor Hoadly, in reply to Mayor Hewitt's letter, denying that Ex-Governor Tilden ever expressed his approval of the electoral commission bill before its passage, says that Mr. Tilden wrote a long letter to Washington through the Democratic national executive committee, urging the utmost caution in dealing with the bill. Mayor Hewitt said: "I can only say that I never received such a letter from Mr. Tilden nor did I ever hear of the existence of such a letter. I was chairman of the Democratic national committee at that time, and would almost certainly have heard of such a letter had it been written. I have no doubt that Ex-Governor Hoadly was told by some one that such a letter had been written. But who received it, and where is it now? If it can be produced it would be very interesting reading just at present."

Florida is in the enjoyment of a genuine boom. The number of arrivals this season promises to be largely in excess of any previous year and the hotels and transportation lines are reaping a rich harvest. In addition to the health and pleasure seekers from nearly every part of the State comes the announcement that investors and emigrants are coming in. Hillsborough county seems to be ahead, having a colony of 150 persons en route to Sutherland from the hazy-landed plains of Nebraska. The railroads are affording better facilities than ever before and the announcement is made that the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad has determined to build a new line from Jessup, Ga., to Jacksonville, Fla., a distance of about one hundred miles. This will give an independent line for the through business of Florida. It is estimated that 60,000 visitors will go into Florida this season. Few of them stay a shorter period than two weeks—many of them more than a month. At eight dollars a day, not too much for traveling and other expenses, there will be about one hundred dollars to the visitor, or about $6,000,000 left in the State by tourists.

The experience which Michigan is having with high tax and local option laws working together is very instructive. The State has had a tax law for several years, and at the last session of the Legislature its rates were considerably advanced, so that at present it levies upon all manufacturers of intoxicating and spirituous liquors, and upon all dealers doing both a wholesale and retail trade in the same, a tax of $800 a year; upon wholesale dealers in such liquors, $500; and upon retail dealers in the same, $500; upon manufacturers of malt or brewed liquors only, $65; and upon all dealers in malt or brewed liquors only, $300. In addition to these amendments of the law, the same Legislature passed a local option law which gives to any county the power by a majority vote to decide whether or not liquor shall be sold within its limits. In order to ascertain the latest official information about the success of these laws, the editor of the New York Evening Post wrote recently to the Governor of the State, and obtained the following response:—Our old tax law has been measurably successful. It has driven the saloon out of the rural districts and reduced the number in the cities and villages. In 1878 the tax reported to the auditor general was $373,416.25, and the number of dealers, 4,203. In 1886 the amount of tax was $1,186,366.95, and the number of dealers, 4,759. Previous to the passage of the Act there were many more saloons, but we cannot readily state the number. Ten counties have voted on the question of local option, in all of which the decision has been against the traffic, generally by good majorities. Ten more will soon vote, with probably the same result.

No State in the Union offers greater inducements to settlers than North Carolina. Nowhere can a better farming country or as fine a climate be found.
