STATE NEWS.

Asheville Citizen: The shipments of produce from one station alone on the Murphy Division of the W. N. C. Road-Sylva-for January, 1888, were over 150 per cent greater than for January, 1887. An increase of more or less proportions can be reported all along the line. Indeed. at many points productions for ship ment are so rapidfy increasing that the railroad does not supply facili-ties as promptly as demanded.

Raleigh Visitor: This afternoon, about 2 o'clock, a little child of Mr. Louis Blount, residing on North Blount street, was very seriously burned. The mother of the child went upstairs leaving the little one in a room below. She heard it scream, and going down found it 150 wrapped in flames and fearfully burned about the head and face. It is supposed that the fire was com-municated in some way from the Elizebeth City Economist: On Wednesday afternoon a gentleman named Jackson, who resides in Perquimans county, N. C., while on his way to this city, was attacked on the road, about ten miles from Ports- stock can be found at month, by a white man and a negro who came out of the woods, and demanded of him money. One of the men held his horse while the other attempted to get in the cart. Mr. J. was armed with a pistol, which he drew, and at the sight of the weapon they both ran in the woods. any effect. Mr. J. informed the re- goods to be found in the city. porter of this paper that this was the second time he had been attack ed while going home or coming to town. The first time he was unarm-

Wilson Mirror: A very serious shooting affair took place in Nash and most complete stock of Harness and Sadcounty on Sunday night near the Wilson county line. It seems that the officers of the law wanted to serve a writ on John Bottoms, and thinking that they would find him at the house of his daughter, Mr. Noel Eatman, a deputy, went there for that purpose. Eatman asked the daughter where her father was TOOUR NEW STORE IN PURCELL BUILD and about that time Bottoms pushed open the door and began to shoot, two balls taking effect, in the welcome our customers there. legs of Noel Eatman, and breaking them. Thirteen shots were exchanged one ball passing through the head of a boy, and it is thought the consequences will be fatal. It is thought that Bottoms was also wounded, though he succeeded in making his escape, and is still at large.

social event occurred in this city yesterday afternoon, in the marriage of Mr. Joseph Solomon to Miss Lula which he represented goods offered to be un Pitcher. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father. Mr. George W. Pitcher, and was witnessed by a large party of friends. — Parties who arrived in the city yesterday from Winston, informed our reporter of quite a lively affair between Mr. Jeff Grogan, a lawyer, and Mr. A. Ryttenburg, a merchant, of that place. The two men had a misunderstanding in regard to some business affairs, and lost control of their tempers. Mr. ost control of their tempers. Mr. Grogan pushed Mr. Ryttenburg down a flight of stairs, and as quickly as he could put on brakes and stop himself, Mr. Ryttenburg pulled out a pistol and popped away at Mr. Grogan. The bullet passed be-tween Mr. Grogan's legs and tore a hole through his coat tail.

Raleigh News and Observer: W S. Bagwell, Esq., a prominent far mer of this county, died at his home near Garner's on Monday night.

—The State Board of Pharmacy met in this city on yesterday for the examination of candidates to practice pharmacy. The following named gentlemen passed a successful examination: G. J. Heflin, Wilson; Chas. S. Jordan, Asheville; Chas. S. Kingsmore, Charlotte; B. W. Hunt er, Raleigh. The board was composed of the following members: E. posed of the following members: E. M. Nadal, president; H. B. Horne and Wm. Simpson, secretary.

The election of John S. Cunningham, Esq., of Person county, as president of the great convention of the farmers of North Carolina and Virginia, recently held at Danville, was a graceful and well merited acknowledgement of the part that gentleman has taken in the building up of the great tobacco interests. He is one of the largest and most successful bright tobacco planters in the world, and will plant this year over a million and a half of hills.
