THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25 1888 NO. 47

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if advanced will prove a potent cure.

No Home should be Without It.

It takes the place of a doctor and costs less. It cures all ailments of the liver, and is the best preventive of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, headache, depression, and all ailments of the liver. For children it is most invigorating. No danger from use and no interference with business. For the aged it is most beneficial. It cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness, and all ailments of the liver. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would so effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."

M. H. HAYES, M.D., Washington, Ark.

Mark of Genuine: Look for the red Seal and Signature of J. H. Zeilin & Co., in the glass. Take no other.

If the liver and kidneys are sluggish and inactive, Hood's Sarsaparilla will rouse them to prompt and regular action. Take it now.

City Court.
The only case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was the charge of disorderly conduct preferred against Julia Murray, colored. It was one of those "Hollow" troubles in which several parties were implicated and in which jealousy was an important factor. The defendant was clearly guilty of the charge and a fine of $10 was imposed, with the alternative of 30 days in the chain gang.

The Opera House.
The laughable farce of "Muggs' Landing" will be presented at the Opera House in this city next Monday night by a company of comedians who are said to be exceptionally good actors and actresses. The play will be entirely new to a Wilmington audience, but from what we have heard it will be well worthy the attention of our theatre-going public, and especially of those who enjoy a good, hearty laugh. The play is claimed to be written "for laughable purposes only," so that those who attend may expect to enjoy an unlimited share of genuine fun. Reserved seats are now on sale at Heinsberger's.

Some of the street crossings might be improved and we presume they will be before we have many more such spells of rainy weather.

The Craighill.
It has been discovered that the steam tug W. P. Craighill had a hole stove in her bow, which was the cause of her sinking a few nights ago. It is not known how the accident happened but it is supposed by some that it was done by a raft striking against her in the night.

The Work of St. Augustine.
This is the subject of the fourth sermon on Eternal Punishment to be delivered in St. Mar's Church to-morrow night, and the text is: "And if thine hand offend thee, cut it off; it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell." Notwithstanding the numbers that flock to hear these sermons, good seats will be provided for all visitors. You are cordially invited.

The full board was present and considered the details for opening the bank for business at an early day. The president was authorized to secure a banking office and as soon as such office is suitably arranged the new bank will be opened for business.

The Board elected Mr. W. P. Toomer to be cashier, and E. S. Martin, Esq., to be corporation attorney.

The Feast of Purim.
The Jewish Feast of Purim will be celebrated to-morrow. It is observed in commemoration of the deliverance of the Israelites from the persecutions of Haman, through the intercession of Queen Esther with the Persian monarch. Its annual recurrence is the signal for rejoicing and merry-making among the Israelites. Alms and provisions are liberally distributed among the poor, presents are interchanged and social entertainments are held.

Sunday Schools.
Mr. W. T. Linebeck, of Salem, N. C., is in the city for the purpose of making arrangements with the pastors of the different churches and the superintendents of the various Sunday Schools for the reception of Mr. William Reynolds, of Illinois, President of the International Sunday School Association, who will arrive in the city sometime next week. It is the wish of Mr. Linebeck to have the pastors and superintendents of Sunday Schools designate some night when they can meet and confer with Mr. Reynolds and where he can address them upon the Sunday School work.

Literary.
Scribner's Magazine for March has been received and it is a truly valuable and interesting number, as may be seen from the following interesting table of contents: "The Campaign of Waterloo," by John C. Ropes; "The Yellow Elms," by Bessie Chandler; "The Nixie," by Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson; "A Shelf of Old Books," by Mrs. James T. Fields; "The Electric Motor and its Applications," by Franklin Leonard Pope; "Native Selection—A Romance of Chelsea Village and East Hampton Town," by H. C. Bonner; "Storm and Calm," by C. P. Crauch; Mendelssohn's Letter to Mrs. Chilles," by William F. Apthorpe; "The Day of the Cyclone," by Octave Thanet; "Ash Cake," by Thomas Wilson Page; "First Harvests," by F. J. A Fireman's Tournament.
A movement is on foot—and we think it is a good one—to have a fireman's tournament in the city during the time the State Encampment is held here in July next. The idea so far as we have heard it formulated, is for the white firemen of the city to invite the fire companies of other cities in the State, and possibly some from beyond our borders, to come here and indulge in a friendly trial of skill with their respective engines and also to become better acquainted as a body of men devoted to the same noble and self-sacrificing purpose.

Gov. Scales has issued a general order that the Encampment of the State Guard shall be held at Wrightsville, commencing July 15th and continuing seven days. This would be a good time for the firemen to meet here and exchange greetings and courtesies. It would also add much to the interest of the time and we hope that the movement—now a mere talk—may receive shape and direction, so that the encampment week will be a gala time in our city.

Young Men's Christian Association.
Mr. T. A. Harding, of Washington, D. C. formerly General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of that city is expected here some time in April, after the conclusion of the Pearson meetings. He has been engaged by the State Executive Committee of the Y. M. C. A. to establish new organizations at several important points. The money required to defray his expenses while here will be raised by the Association in this city.

A circular letter from the committee in reference to Mr. Harding and his mission, contains the following: Mr. Harding comes highly recommended by the International Committee's representative in New York city. He will visit, beginning February 21st, as many Associations as his limited time will permit. We trust that wherever he goes, he will be received as the messenger of your Convention, the friend and helper of young men and the organizer of this special work. He will consult with pastors of churches and representative Christians generally with regard to the legitimate sphere and the best methods of operation for Young Men's Christian Associations. Further him, dear brethren and friends, in his blessed work. Pray for him, work with him, give to him. Let us in the interest of their physical manhood, for the sake of their eternal well-being, save and raise up the moral and spiritual character of our young men.

The General Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North Carolina will be held at Charlotte, beginning April 19th. We anticipate with pleasure the hospitality of a people who are already showing their generous spirit in the erection of an admirable Y. M. C. A. home. This we say apart from the Charlotte members of our committee who will in good time be represented in an address from their own Association. The programme of exercises will be announced hereafter. Associations, old and new, are invited to send their representative men to this important gathering, and all are urged to forward without delay their contribution to the Treasurer of the State Committee, Mr. E. L. Harris, Raleigh.

The members of the Executive Committee are: Thomas Hume, Chairman, Chapel Hill; Stephen Weeks, Secretary, Chapel Hill; E. L. Harris, Treasurer, Raleigh; J. W. Gore, Chapel Hill; H. L. Smith, Davidson College; Jos. H. Southgate, Durham; A. G. Benizer, Charlotte; Geo. B. Hanne, Charlotte; A. S. Caldwell, Charlotte; R. Bingham, Bingham School; A. M. Baker, Newbern; J. H. Foust, Salisbury.

You will find at Heinsberger's an elegant assortment, just received, of fine wire masks for ladies and gentlemen and some other articles needed for masquerade balls.

Personal.
We are glad to hear that Col. L. C. Jones, Superintendent of the Carolina Central R. R. continues to improve. He hopes to be with us again before many days and says that he feels as though he will be able to resume his duties with more energy than ever. We devoutly trust that his anticipations may be realized.

Mr. A. E. Powell, of Columbus county, was in the city last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. C. Stevenson returned to the city last night from an extended visit to Northern cities.

Mr. W. D. Pearsall, of Kenansville, one of the most prominent citizens of Duplin county, is here on a visit to his son, Alderman Pearsall.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.
