

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XII WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1888 NO. 48

The highest priced freak now traveling in the country is Mlle. Christine, the two headed mulatto girl. She is paid about $750 a week and has a white maid in constant attendance upon her. She is twenty-six years old, and has saved enough from her salary to buy a fine farm and a mansion in South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt have sent announcements to their friends in this country of the marriage of Miss "Mimi" Smith to Count de Fontenillat. The invitation is on two very large sheets of paper and in the French language. It is said that Mr. Vanderbilt has settled a handsome sum on his sister-in-law.

There are fifty-seven retail liquor houses in Atlanta, Ga., eight retail beer saloons, one wholesale beer house and four wholesale liquor houses. The income from the fifty-seven retail liquor houses alone, if no more were licensed, would amount to $57,000 for this year, while the beer saloons are licensed for $100 a year. The sale of liquor is confined to very restricted limits, and the saloons are pretty well bunched together.

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

The President.
There was a crowd of several hundred persons at the Union depot on Saturday afternoon to welcome the President and Mrs. Cleveland. They both appeared on the car and the crowd formed in line and shook hands with his august presidency. Fragrant bouquets were presented by Mr. Walter Parsley's little daughter and Capt. Southerland's two youngest boys, Leon and Lonnie. The cars were a perfect bower of flowers and fragrance. But a short stop was made and then the trip North was resumed.

From the Past.
In looking over old files of the DAILY JOURNAL we find the following editorial notice under the date of May 26, 1854:

Our Binder has arrived and will have our Bindery in operation in the course of a few days. Persons wishing books bound will please hand them in on and after Thursday next. The gentleman referred to above is Mr. P. Heinsberger, of this city, who has ever since been a resident of Wilmington with the exception of the time spent by him in the Confederate service during the "late unpleasantness." On next May 26th he will have been here 34 years, a longer period, by the way, than has yet fallen to the lot of many of our business men "native and to the manner born."

Sunday School Mass Meeting.
A Sunday school mass meeting of all denominations will be held on Wednesday night, February 29th, at the First Baptist Church, in this city, at 8 o'clock, to hear Mr. Reynolds, President of the International Sunday School Association. A number of the ministers of the city have consented to dispense with their regular church service, on that night, and thus give an opportunity for all to hear Mr. Reynolds. This gentleman will address the meeting on the subject of a State Sunday School Association, and kindred topics, and is represented as a splendid speaker, and what is better, an earnest worker. His meeting at Charlotte was large and enthusiastic, and at Greensboro over 800 persons were present and many pledged themselves to attend a State Sunday School Convention, to be called at an early date.

Junior Rechabites.
The interesting references made by our Washington City correspondent a few days since, to the Independent Order of Rechabites and the good work they accomplished here in ante-bellum days, has attracted much attention to their successors of the present day, and the beneficial effects which this truly noble Order is having on the youth of the land. The amount of good which has been effected by the lodges of this Order in more ways than one in our midst is truly incalculable.

The latest phase of their benevolent activity is seen in the establishment of an organized Tent of Junior Rechabites. This new Tent has been in existence less than a year and yet it already numbers many active, influential members. It is composed of youths between the ages of 12 and 18 years and there is a benevolent feature attached to the organization, which is a stipulated sum weekly to all members who may be disabled by sickness or accident. The initiation fee is only 25 cents and the monthly dues but 10 cents. The weekly benefit, in case of sickness, is $1.50. There are now three members of the Tent sick and these are receiving the weekly benefit. The meetings are held on Monday night of each week at Temperance Hall, on Third street, opposite the City Hall, and are attended by a Board of Guardians, appointed by the Primary Tent, and composed of Past Chief Rulers of the Order of Rechabites, whose province it is to keep order at these meetings and to supervise the affairs of the Junior Tent. This Board is now composed of Capt. C. L. Cowles and Messrs. G. S. Willis and F. W. Hewitt, who will cheerfully furnish all information in regard to the workings of the Order.

Double Services.
As has been already intimated in these columns the establishment of the vestibled train between New York and Jacksonville, by the Atlantic Coast Line authorities, has proved an immense success. So great is the demand for accommodations on this train that it has been necessary to add increased facilities and with this end in view the service will be doubled. This is done by running a vestibled train five days in the week instead of on three days, as heretofore. The added train will therefore make its first run through from New York to Jacksonville to-day. There will be no vestibled train South on Sundays and Thursdays and none North on Saturdays and Fridays but the run will be made every other day in the week.

Literary.
"BEN BURTON, THE SLATEPICKER," by Harry Prentice, No. 6 of the "Boy's Home Library," Paper, 12mo. Price, 25 cents. Published by A. L. Burr, 162 William St., New York.
The extraordinary popular success of the "Boy's Home Library" has been due to the most excellent quality of the stories which have appeared in the series. Such men as Horatio Alger, Jr., Harry Castleman, Edward S. Ellis, James Otis and others have each contributed stories in their best vein, and there are no better written for boys. The success of this "Boy's Home Library" proves that parents want good literature to put into their boys' hands, and these publications at a popular price exactly fill the demand. No. 6, just issued, is "Ben Burton, the Slatepicker," a capital story of the Pennsylvania coal mines, full of pathetic interest and stirring adventure. It is for sale at the bookstores.

Personal.
Mr. W. T. Haskett, of Southport, is here on a brief visit.
Mr. L. McClammy, Jr., of Scott's Hill, was in the city to-day.
Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, was in the city to-day and paid us a visit.
Mr. Josiah French, of Rocky Point, was in the city to-day for a short time.
Col. W. P. Canaday, Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate, is in the city to-day.
Capt. David Pender, of Tarboro, is in the city on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. W. L. DeRosset, Jr.
Mr. A. Shrier returned to the city last night after an extended visit to the markets of Philadelphia, New York and Boston.
Mr. Jas. B. O'Driscoll, of Charleston, who has been in the city for some days on a visit to his uncle, Col. Jno. L. Cantwell, left last night on his return home.
Hon. C. W. McClammy left this afternoon on the local train for Goldsboro and will take the fast mail at that place early to-morrow morning for Washington City.

A Gross Outrage.
A gross outrage was perpetrated in this city to-day, in the broad daylight, and it is one that will make every bosom swell with indignation. Mr. Hal Boatwright's little boy, aged about 10 or 12 years, is a pupil at Miss Annie Hart's school, on Third street, between Market and Princess and about half past 1 o'clock to-day, he obtained permission to leave the school room for a few minutes and went out into the yard and into a place under the building where coal is kept stored. He was there confronted with three colored boys, nearly grown, who seized him, tied him and gagged him and then turned his pockets inside out, taking away from him what valuables he possessed. They then left him and he lay there until he was found half an hour afterwards. The facts were promptly reported to Chief of Police Hall and the force has been scouring the city this afternoon for the scoundrels. There is but little doubt, we think, that they will find them and then we trust that the full severity of the law may be visited upon them.

Rev. G. M. Tolson will preach in the Second Presbyterian Church on Thursday night at 8 o'clock and Rev. W. S. Creasy on Friday night, at the same hour.
Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Plow is the best made. Sold only at Jacob's, who is the factory agent. +

"A BURNT CHILD DREADS THE FIRE."
HUNDREDS OF MEN IN WILMINGTON think they have their lives insured. Some of them will die while under this impression and their families will discover too late that it was an illusion.
This has happened in Wilmington during the past month by the failure of the first assessment company that commenced business here. Others will follow soon. Before it is too late, make sure provisions for your family in a life insurance company that has stood the test during generations.
The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, is the oldest, largest and best company in the world. Its policies are incontestable, are paid immediately on the receipt of proof of death, and are liberal in their conditions.

Wanted, 1,000 Young Men.
THERE IS IN THE CITY OF WILMINGTON an organized Tent of Junior Rechabites and we are desirous to have all the young men of good moral character, between the ages of 12 and 18, to join us in order that we may do all we can to drive intemperance from our midst and to try and save the coming generation from the evils of intemperance. All who are willing to join our Order can get all necessary information from C. L. Cowles, G. S. Willis, F. W. Hewitt or F. T. Skipper. This Tent was organized on the 21st day of April, 1887, and we have got quite a number of young men to join us. We meet at Temperance Hall, on Third street, opposite the City Hall, every Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. Come, come all, and let us make things warm for King Alcohol.

The Best Family Medicine
The highest priced freak now traveling in the country is Mlle. Christine, the two headed mulatto girl. She is paid about $750 a week and has a white maid in constant attendance upon her. She is twenty-six years old, and has saved enough from her salary to buy a fine farm and a mansion in South Carolina.

Henry George has come out flat footed in favor of Cleveland.
The Sanford Express has made a discovery. It says that "the clay of which W. E. Gladstone is made is very scarce."

Dr. Hostetter is a multi-millionaire, and yet he carries insurances of $800,000 on his life. The doctor evidently believes in laying up treasures on earth.

James Debois, of Williamsbridge, N. Y., "challenges anyone in the world to a sleeping match of 142 hours; that is, to see who can sleep the longest in a week."

The latest musical prodigy to come into notice is little Vincent Emmet Kamp, of Taylorsville, Ind. He is 2 1/2 years old and sings in a clear, sweet voice any song that he has ever heard.

O. H. Rothacker, formerly editor of the Denver Tribune, is credited with having been the discoverer of Bill Nye. He paid the now famous humorist $5 for a letter on "The dog-sampling plan."

Many features of amusement are promised at the Craven Co. Fair, March 12th, 14th and 15th. A tournament, parade of one of the best fire departments in the State, glass ball and relay pigeon shooting, and various other things.
King Albert of Saxony has written to this country for volumes on American wars by living authors. His majesty is an authority on European military matters, having nearly distinguished himself in the Franco-Prussian war.
It has at last been settled that Phil Sheridan was born in the United States and therefore eligible for election to the Presidency. The fact that he first saw the light in the modern nursery of Presidents, may be considered by his friends as a good omen.
Mrs. Longstreet has at Gainesville, Ga., an old-fashioned mansion of a farm of 100 acres. His farm is chiefly confined to grape culture. There are some iron and sulphur springs on the property, and a spacious hotel has been established.

Prince Oscar of Sweden will, by the King of Sweden's command, receive the titles of Duke of Gothland and "Royal Highness" on the preceding his marriage to Miss Munk. He and his wife are known simply as Prince and Princess Bernadotte, but their title is to be hereditary.
Mr. Metcalf says that there is no one in the reports that he will be nominated for the Presidency. He says that such an idea never entered his head, and that his party association was thought just as he did. They wanted to make Presidential nominations and make an active fight, but as yet no candidates have been named upon or even discussed.
