

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

The Daily Review. MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27, '88. STATE NEWS.

Raleigh News and Observer: Rev. J. L. White, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, has placed in the hands of the board of deacons his resignation as pastor.

Goldsboro Argus: A census of this city would show fifteen lawyers and eleven doctors and still it remains a solemn fact that Goldsboro is one of the healthiest and most peaceable cities in the State.

Sauford Express: Mr. J. R. Gilbert, of Gilbert P. O., this county, writes that, "At about 5 o'clock Sunday morning of the 10th inst. Mr. N. T. Tyson, near Villanova discovered his barn enveloped in flames."

Winston Sentinel: Bank stock in Winston is valuable to the man who owns it. This fact was clearly shown here last Sunday when the twenty shares, amounting to $2,000, (Wachovia Bank stock) the property of the estate of T. C. Hauser, of Yadkin county, were bid off by Mr. W. A. Whitaker at a premium of 52 cents on the dollar, or $52 on each share.

Charlotte Chronicle: The interest attending the remarkable discovery of gold, at the furniture factory in this city, as related in yesterday's Chronicle, continues to increase. The "find" is even richer than was at first supposed. Four additional gold rocks have been found and carted away to a place of safety.

true, but everybody knows that it is better to pick up gold laden rocks on top of the ground than to dig for them.

The Sunny South. We are pleased to learn that Mr. T. B. Henderson, of this city, has been appointed State Agent to solicit subscriptions and advertisements for that excellent paper of large circulation, the Sunny South, published at Atlanta, Ga. It claims to be the largest, best and cheapest weekly published in the South. Sample copies free. Anyone wishing to advertise or subscribe will correspond with, or call and see Mr. Henderson at his office on North Water street, near the Produce Exchange, as he proposes to continue his grain trade and serve the interest of his paper in connection with the same.

Typographic Relics. Mr. Joseph T. Walsh, of this city, has handed in for our inspection a very interesting typographical relic. One of these is a copy of the Boston Chronicle, dated from Monday, April 16 to Thursday April 19, 1770. It is No. 16 of volume 111. It is printed in the old English type and is made up almost entirely of English news. It is only 14 x 21 inches, of four pages and three columns to the page. "Price only six shillings and eight pence, lawful, per annum."

Preparatory Services. The Pastor's Conference has arranged the following programme for the four weeks' service at the various churches prior to the services to be conducted by the Rev. He will also sell new and handsome Spring Searfs of imported silk for 50 cents, worth 1.25. Silk Searfs for 21 cents, worth 50 cents. Zylonite Collars for 25 cents, worth 50 cents. A fine line of New Spring Suits for boys from 5 to 14 years will be sold at a very low price. Don't forget the name and number, I. Shrier, the old reliable clothier, No. 16 North Front street. Purell House, sign of the golden arm.

You will find at Heinsberger's an elegant assortment, just received, of fine wire masks for ladies and gentlemen and some other articles needed for masquerade balls.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.
