000, and allows such sales only after a petition has been signed by a certain proportion of the voters in a ward or township, and an equal number of women.

New York News: Six of the nine members from North Carolina are Confederate veterans. Two of the six were majors and one was a colonel. The Colonel is W. H. H. Coles, of Wilkesborough. He served in Lee's army and was twice severely wounded. He has the mark of a Federal bullet in his head today. Major Charles W. McClammy, a new member, was among those who surrendered at Appomattox, as was also Major Louis C. Latham, of Greenville. The latter was a graduate of the Harvard law school. The other Confederate veterans from North Carolina are Lieut. Alfred Rowland, of Lumberton, and Thomas S. Johnston, of Buncombe County. Rowland was captured at Spotsylvania Courthouse, and was imprisoned at Fort Delaware for a year. Johnston received three desperate wounds at Malvern Hill, and is still suffering from them.

Boils, pimples, hives, ringworm, tetter, and all other manifestations of impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.

The first day of the first Spring month.

We gain this month 72 minutes of daylight.

Shad are running very freely now and they are cheap.

Ger barque Oscar, Minchts, was reported in below to-day.

This month has five Thursdays, five Fridays and five Saturdays.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

The city authorities are lowering the grade on Ann street, between Third and Fourth.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 212 bales, against 201 bales for same day last year.

March came in to-day as quiet as a lamb. Hope that the old saying will be reversed and that she will go out ditto.

There must be large fires in the woods somewhere near the city as the atmosphere has been thick with smoke to-day.

Capt. Tomlinson of the Cape Fear reports that there is 45 feet of water at Fayetteville on this freshet but that it is now running off.

Brig Mary E. Dana, Russian brig Otto, German barques Annie, Agnes, and Toni, and British ship Etta all sailed from Southport to-day.

At St. Mark's Church to night a joint service will be held by the Episcopal clergy of the city. A welcome is extended to all.

Where can you buy the best and finest boots and shoes for the money in the city? Why, at Geo. R. French & Sons. They keep the largest stock.

Mr. Chas. F. Browne received to-day from Hawthorn, Fla. a lot of fine young orange trees. They were ordered for parties in this city and will be planted here.

We invite attention to advertisement of Mr. O. O. Vollers, in this issue. He is a large dealer in country produce, groceries, liquors, and is also engaged in the general commission business. He is a clever gentleman and will treat you well.

Mr. I. Shrier has received the agency for this city of the Globe Incandescent Lamp, a new oil burner, which is said to give a light equal to 300 candles. One of them was burning at his store last night and attracted considerable attention.

The Episcopal Churches here had joint services last night at St. John's Church. There were present the Bishop, Rev. Dr. Carmichael, Rev. Messrs. Strange, Arnold and Coerr. An address was delivered by Mr. Arnold and the Bishop also spoke briefly.

Work Resumed.
 It was reported here to day that work on the railroad to the sound, which had been suspended a few days ago, would be resumed to-morrow. As a matter of fact work was resumed to-day, as the hands have been engaged in the work of grading the route on the streets in the eastern portion of the city.

Subscription Carried.
 The polls are not closed as we go to press yet there is an assurance that the railroad elections have both been carried in favor of subscription, at least this is the estimate of some well informed persons who have been watching the votes. Some scratching has been done but not enough it is thought to affect the result in either instance.

Two Trains Daily.
 The Wilmington, Chadbourn & Conway R. R. is evidently doing well. It has been found necessary already to increase the service on that road and therefore, commencing with to-day, two daily trains are to be run between Chadbourn and Conway, one of which is a fast mail and passenger train and the other a passenger and freight. The mail train makes the run (39 miles) in about two hours.

The Firemen's Tournament.
 A meeting of the officers of the three white fire companies in this city, at which were also present Chief Oldenbittel and Assistant Chief Newman, met last night to concert measures looking to a firemen's tournament in this city during the week of the military encampment at Wrightsville in July next. The idea is to get up handsome prizes and invite a contest on the part of other fire companies from this and adjoining States. The plans have not yet been formulated fully but another meeting is to be held at an early date, when some positive results may be made known.

Sunday School Mass Meeting.
 Rev. Mr. Reynolds, of Illinois, delivered a very interesting discourse last night to a large congregation in the First Baptist church. Mr. Reynolds is President of the International Sunday School Association and the object of his visit and his address last night was to excite an interest in the work of the Association here, and to urge Sunday school workers in North Carolina to organize a State Sunday School Association. Mr. Reynolds stated that a convention would be held at Raleigh for the purpose on the 21st, 23d and 25th inst., and he urged all Sunday schools to send delegates.

Meteorological.
 The monthly meteorological summary for February, furnished by Mr. F. P. Chaffee, signal officer at this station, gives the monthly mean barometer 30.62; highest barometer, 30.63, on the 16th; lowest, 29.85, on the 8th. The mean temperature was 49.6°; the highest, 72, on the 18; the lowest, 24.6, on the 16th and 28th. The mean humidity was 80. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the northeast; the highest velocity 26 miles per hour, on the 27th. The total rainfall was 6.23 inches.

There were ten clear days, thirteen fair days and six cloudy days. Number days rain fell, twelve. Frost occurred on the 2d, 14th and 28th.

North Carolina History.
 We are in receipt of a circular letter from the North Carolina Historical Society, at Chapel Hill, N. C., which is endeavoring to collect all possible data in regard to the late war. They want every relic which they can get; all the letters, muster rolls, commissions and other written or printed documents connected with the participants in the struggle; in fact, they desire to collect the minutiae of every battle, skirmish and incident of the Southern Confederacy and preserve them for the instruction and benefit of future generations. The Society is engaged in a noble work, and should have the co-operation of all Southern people.

Indications.
 For North Carolina, fair weather, slightly warmer, and light to fresh variable winds, generally South-westerly.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

Exports for the Month.
 The exports foreign from this port for the month of February, just closed, foot up 27,409 bales cotton valued at $358,150; 38,840 bbls rosin, $42,134; 2,976 bbls tar, $4,030; 58,493 gallons spts turpt, $23,876; 1,178,000 feet lumber, $17,922; 989,000 shingles, $5,821; miscellaneous *$1,549. Total value of exports foreign for the month $452,473.

McIntyre and Heath.
 The following notice of the celebrated minstrel troupe that will appear here Saturday is taken from the Charleston News and Courier of a recent date:
 McIntyre & Heath's Minstrels opened their engagement last night at the Academy of Music. They will be remembered as the clever combination who "inaugurated" the season of amusement of 1886. They are therefore well-known, and made their bow "again last night to a fairly large audience."
 Messrs. Heath and McIntyre are, it is true, a great deal of the play, but they have with them some special artists of high rank. The latest original song and dance, the "Society Fishing Party," introduced nearly the whole force. Messrs. McIntyre, Heath, Buckley, Sherman, Beattie, Morris, Hogan and Bryan. Among the specialists are Chas. E. Cooper, xylophonist, Geyer and Hardin, clowns, and little Ah Sid, "the smallest acrobat in the world." The performance concludes with a very ridiculous burlesque of the novel "She."

Personal.
 Mr. Joe Merritt returned last night from a visit to Clinton.
 Mr. Geo. S. Willis left this morning for a visit to Clinton.
 Mr. J. D. Butler, of Brunswick county, is in the city to-day.
 Capt. A. A. Mosely is in the city to-day and paid us a visit this forenoon.

Col. K. M. Murchison arrived here last night and will remain for several weeks.
 Dr. S. S. Satchwell, Mr. R. H. Murphy and Mr. Geo. Z. French, of Pender county, are in the city to-day.
 Mr. John H. Clark, of Clarkton, and his son, J. H. Jr., were in the city yesterday on a short business visit.
 Mr. Charles Dickens, son of the eminent novelist, who is on a tour through the United States, will shortly appear in this city to give a series of his entertaining readings.
 Gen. Wm. Mahone and his son Mr. Butler Mahone, are in the city on business connected with the Carolina Oil and Creosote Works, the General being a stockholder therein.

An Elegant Residence.
 By invitation of Mr. James F. Post, the architect and contractor, we to-day visited with him Col. W. P. Canady's new residence, corner Nun and Second streets. This house was originally built by Capt. B. W. Beery, but has been owned of late years by Capt. W. A. Cumming. Recently Col. Canaday purchased it and for some months Mr. Post has been busy making alterations and improvements in the interior and exterior of the building. Many noted changes have been made and add greatly to its attractions and comfort. Originally there was no piazza but now these have been constructed on every side of the house on the first and second floor. The house is three stories high, with a basement and an area which extends around this on all sides. Col. Canaday has had an office fixed there, on the northwest corner, but all of the rest of the basement will be used for domestic purposes. There are 13 rooms in all and there is not a small room in the house. The building is supplied throughout with every convenience such as hot and cold water, electric call bells, &c., and will be lighted by electricity. The parlor, sitting room and dining room are on the first floor and the bedrooms all above. The parlors are two beautiful rooms, connected by folding doors and are to be elegantly furnished. Already there are in place there large plate glass windows, elegant mantles and large mirrors above which reach almost to the ceiling, which is elaborately corniced with vines, leaves and flowers.

The work is well done as is indeed all that Mr. Post undertakes to do. The furniture men and upholsterers will be at work in a few days and Col. Canady proposes to move in with his family before the middle of the month.

Read It.
 We call attention to the cards published in this issue by the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington City. They certainly speak for themselves. Mr. Gibson, the Special Agent, who is now operating in our city, is every inch a gentleman and has made many friends here. He is warmly endorsed by Senator Blackburn and Speaker Carlisle.

Children's Suits for $2.50, worth $4.
 I. Shrier, at No. 16 Front street, will sell, on Saturday only, Children's Suits, from 5 to 12 years of age, the Rough and Tumble suit for boys which are now acknowledged to be the best suit on the market. The fabric of these is guaranteed strictly wool, free from shoddy or cotton and will not fade. The seams being double sewed will not rip; the pockets are made from the best duck canvass, will not tear and the buttons fastened on by the new patent process and will not come off. These suits only can be had at a very low price of I. Shrier, the old reliable clothier, No. 16 North Front street, Purcell House, sign of the golden arm.

More Light.
 The most essential thing to a buyer of clothing is plenty of light, so that he may see what he is buying. The immense stores of S. H. Fishblate are the best lighted, by day or night, of any in the city. He keeps that class of goods that stand inspection with plenty of light. No Cheap John, shoddy, or moth-eaten goods in his establishment to palm off on the public. As regards Mr. Fishblate's prices and the quality of his goods, he guarantees to give you perfect satisfaction or cheerfully refund you your money. That is the kind of a house to trade with and we advise all of our readers in want of Custom or Ready Made Tailor Made Clothing or Furnishing Goods to patronize him and you will never regret it.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27th, 1888.
 MR. GEORGE D. ELDRIDGE, Sec'y,
 National Life and Maturity Association,
 Washington, D. C.
 Dear Sir:—In acknowledging receipt of One Thousand Dollars this day paid me, being full amount of Policy in your company on the life of my late husband, Col. Eldery G. Ford of this city, allow me to thank you and the company for the promptness displayed in the settlement. Col. Ford died on January 18th, 1888, and proof of loss were furnished your company on February 23d. Under date of February 24th, I received notice that check was awaiting my order, and I have this day received the amount, as stated above, being in full, without discount, although the terms of the Policy gave you thirty days in which to make payment. Such promptness must commend itself to every one and can but add to the confidence felt by the public in your institution.
 Respectfully,
 JULIA A. FORD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2nd, 1888.
 Dear Sir:—The management of the National Life and Maturity Association of this city is, to my personal knowledge, in the hands of as good business men as there are in any city in the country, men whose names with those who know them, are the synonym of integrity, business capacity and intelligence, and you can rest assured that they are not men who would allow their names to be thus used unless they had personal knowledge and supervision of the management of the business. Any company with which they connect their names is worthy of confidence and patronage, and this fact alone would convince me of the soundness of the National Life and Maturity even if I had not other facts to justify my confidence in it. Very truly yours,
 W. P. CANADAY.

VERMILION, KY., August 3, 1887.
 Mr. W. H. Gibson represents as Special Agent the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C. I am acquainted with the directory of this Association. They are gentlemen of the highest commercial standing. Mr. Gibson and his company are entitled to the fullest measure of confidence and consideration. Very respectfully,
 J. C. S. BLACKBURN.

COVINGTON, KY., June 30, 1887.
 Dear Sir:—I know several of the Directors of the National Life and Maturity Association personally, and the others I know by reputation, and I take pleasure in saying that they are gentlemen of integrity, business capacity, and good financial standing.
 Very truly yours,
 J. G. CARLISLE.
