They are a very low temperature, never in a genuine blizzard rising above the zero point; a tremendons wind velocity, equal to that of the stormy season at sea, and the filling of the air with needle points of ice, which blind the eyes and cut and sting like miniature arrows wherever they strike. This is the storm which benumbs, bewilders and destroys life in its patch. It has been felt in rare instances by the settlers of the treeless plains of the north. It seems. rather singularly, to occur less frequently as population and cultivation increase. - Pioneer Press.

Plan of Organization of the Democratic Party of North Carolina.

DEM. CENTRAL EX. COM., Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 23, 1888. The following is the plan of organ ization heretofore adopted by the State Democratic Committee for the guidance of the party.

TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION. 1. The unit of county organization shall be the township. In each township there shall be an executive committee, to consist of five Demoerats, who shall be elected by the Democratic voters of the several townships in meetings called by the county executive committee. And said committee so elected shall elect one of its members as chairman, who shall preside at all committee meetings.

2. The several township executive committees shall convene at the meetings of the several county conventions, or at any time and place to the State convention shall be that a majority of them may elect, and shall elect a county executive committee, to consist of not less than five members, one of whom shall be designated as chairman, who shall preside at all of said committee meetings.

3. In case there shall be a failure on the part of any township to elect its executive committee for the period of thirty days, the county executive committee shall appoint said committee from the Democratic voters of said township.

4. The members of the township

STATE CONVENTIONS.

1. The State Convention shall be composed of delegates appointed by several county conventions. Each county shall be entitled to elect one delegate and one alternate for every one hundred and fifty Democratic votes, and one delegate for fractions over seventy-five Democratic votes cast therein at the last preceding gubernatorial election; and none but delegates or alternates so elected shall be entitled to seats in said convention: Provided, That every county shall have at least one vote in said convention.

GENERAL RULES.

1. Such delegates (or alternates of absent delegates) as may be present at any Democratic convention shall be allowed to cast the whole vote to which their township or county may be entitled.

2. If no delegate or alternate shall attend a State convention from any ounty any person appointed by the President of the county convention, or on his failure by its Secretary, may represent the county.

In all conventions provided for by this system, after a vote is cast there shall be no change in said vote until the final result of the ballot shall be announced by the chairman of said convention.

4. All Democratic executive committees shall have the power to fill any vacancy occurring in their respective bodies.

5. That the chairmen of the different county conventions shall certify the list of delegates and alternates to the different district and State conventions, and a certified list of said delegates and alternates sent to the Secretary of the State Central Committee. For the committee:
