New Enterprise in Oxford.
OXFORD, N. C., March 10, '88.
EDITOR DAILY REVIEW:—This old town will soon have a large increase to its population when the Kimball Tobacco Company of Rochester, N. Y., will establish their steam stamery here under the management of one of Oxford's most successful and enterprising tobaccoists, Mr. J. M. Curron, who is so well known all over the land as a tobacco buyer.

This company will store all tobacco bought on the Henderson, Durham, Winston, Danville, Va., and Virginia markets where they are purchased. They are the largest leaf buyers on those markets. Mr. Curron says 700 hands will be employed at the Oxford factory. The Kimball Company is one of the largest cigarette manufacturers in the United States. It is estimated that this establishment alone will swell the population at least 1,500 within a very few months, and this business will most undoubtedly attract other enterprises of a similar kind. We confidently believe Oxford's population will be three times what it is at this time in the next five years.

STATE NEWS.

Newton Enterprise: Mrs. Phillip Kale, of Catawba township, presented her husband one day last week three babies, two boys and one girl. They were small but perfectly developed and apparently healthy. At last account both the mother and all the children were doing well.

Greensboro Patriot: Mr. D. S. Hodgins, of Centre, is a model farmer. He raised last year 800 bushels of corn, and on one half-acre of land gathered 130 bushels of sweet potatoes. He also planted 1 1/2 bushels of Irish potatoes from one half acre in cane he manufactured 50 gallons syrup. Another daring crime was committed near Berry in Rockingham county last Saturday night. The dwelling, and several other houses adjacent, of C. W. Moby, a prominent merchant and farmer, were fired by an incendiary with disastrous results. The family awoke in time to save their dwelling, but the granary and stables, containing their entire crop of wheat and corn, three mules, two threshing machines, a carriage and two wagons were burned. The loss is estimated at $4,000, without any insurance.

Raleigh News and Observer: The dwelling house of Dr. Thomas Weir, of Caswell county, was burned on Monday night, the 8th inst. Nothing in the house was saved from the flames. Dr. Weir, who is partially paralyzed, was in Danville with his wife and confined to his bed at the time of the fire. The cause of the fire is unknown. There was no one in the house at the time. It is our sad duty to report the sudden death of Capt. John E. Dugger, principal of the Warrenton Male Academy, which occurred at 7:45 yesterday morning. He had been complaining of a throat trouble for some weeks but no immediate danger was apprehended. Yesterday he had a slight hemorrhage but it did not attend to his duties. He was on the streets last evening with his friends. He got up this morning and dressed, when another hemorrhage commenced, resulting in death in a few minutes from strangulation.

Where can you buy the best and finest boots and shoes for the money in the city? Why, at Geo. R. French & Sons. They keep the largest stock.

Danville Register: Colonel John R. Winston, well-known in this city, died of consumption at his home in Caswell county, N. C., last Wednesday, and was buried Thursday at the Red House church. Colonel Winston was a Confederate soldier noted for daring and bravery. He was a prisoner on Johnston's Island, and in the dead of winter he made his escape by scaling the prison walls and then, though bare foot and thinly clad, he walked miles on the ice and finally reached Canada in safety. Colonel Winston was a very prominent granger, and was also a leader in the greenback party which at one time had a strong following in North Carolina. He will be greatly missed by a large family connection and many friends.

LOCAL NEWS.

Death of an Old Lady.
An old lady by the name of Mrs. Lucy P. Tracy, a dressmaker, well-known to many of our readers, was found dead this morning in her room, in the building S. E. corner of Market and Front streets. When discovered the body was lying on the floor, under a table, and she had evidently been dead for some hours. Coroner Miller was notified and Dr. Potter examined the body but an inquest was deemed unnecessary. It is thought that her death was caused by old age and exhaustion of the vital forces.

German Mass Meeting.
The meeting of the Committee on the German Mass Meeting, spoken of in the REVIEW on Saturday, was held that evening at the residence of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau. This committee had previously arranged to celebrate the anniversary of the 91st birthday of the Emperor, but since then, owing his death, it had become necessary to make other arrangements. This was accordingly done.

Col. F. W. Kerchner was called to the chair. The following sub-committees were appointed in addition to those previously appointed: Committee on Invitation—Messrs J. A. Bonitz, A. Adrian, P. Heinsberger and Col. F. W. Kerchner. Committee on Resolutions—Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, J. A. Bonitz, Esq., and Col. F. W. Kerchner.

Committee on Decorations—Dr. F. C. Miller, Messrs. P. Heinsberger and M. M. Katz. Committee on Music—Messrs. J. Haar, Jr., A. Adrian and F. Rheinstein. Committee on Finance—Messrs. F. Rheinstein, A. Adrian and Col. F. W. Kerchner.

Committee on securing place of holding the memorial services—Col. F. W. Kerchner, Messrs. A. D. Wessel and Sol. Bear. The committee for inviting the speakers reported having already done their duty. A full report of the order of exercises will appear later. The following is a general outline of the order. Dirge by the Germania Cornet Band. Hymn by the choir. Official announcement and introductory address in German, by the Hon. Edward Peschau, Imperial German Vice Consul. Hymn by the audience. Address in German by Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn. Address by J. A. Bonitz, Esq., in English, and an oration by the Hon. Alfred M. Waddell. This will probably be followed by addresses from the consuls of the different countries, having representatives at this port. The closing address and benediction will be by the Rev. F. W. E. Peschau.

1,500 ACRES OF LAND IN THE best pine region. For sale on easy terms in lots to suit purchasers. Four acres for $50. Larger tracts $5 per acre, in monthly payments of $10. This land adjoins the "Southern Pine" tract, a property established by health resort (or sanitarium), and is especially adapted for Fruit Culture, as well as all the cereals. A number of New England people have bought lots in the town of "Southern Pine," and it is the desire of the owners of this land to induce small farmers, mechanics and others from the New England and Middle States, as well as elsewhere, to locate here. No State in the Union offers greater inducements to settlers than North Carolina. Nowhere can a better farming country or as fine a climate be found. This is the opinion of Northern men who have settled in North Carolina. This is a rare offer, and is limited.

Read the following cards. They speak for themselves:
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27th, 1888.
MR. GEORGE D. ELDRIDGE, Sec'y,
National Life and Maturity Association, Washington, D. C.
Dear Sir:—In acknowledging receipt of One Thousand Dollars this day paid me, being full amount of Policy in your company on the life of my late husband, Col. Elery C. Ford of this city, allow me to thank you and the company for the promptness displayed in the settlement. Col. Ford died on January 31st, 1888, and proofs of loss were furnished your company on February 22d. Under date of February 24th, I received notice that check was awaiting my order, and I have this day received the amount, as stated above, being in full, without discount, although the terms of the Policy gave you ninety days in which to make payment. Such promptness must commend itself to every one and can but add to the confidence felt by the public in your institution.
Respectfully,
JULIA A. FORD.

OF WASHINGTON, D. C.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2nd, 1888.
Dear Sir:—The management of the National Life and Maturity Association of this city is, to my personal knowledge, in the hands of its good business men as they are in any city in the country, men whose names with those who know them, are the synonym of integrity, business capacity and intelligence, and you can rest assured that they are not one who would allow their names to be thus used unless they had personal knowledge and supervision of the management of the business. Any company with which they connect their names is worthy of confidence and patronage, and this fact alone would convince me of the soundness of the National Life and Maturity even if I had not other facts to justify my confidence in it. Very truly yours,
W. P. CANADAY,
VERSAILLES, KY., August 1887.
MR. W. H. GIBSON represents as Special Agent the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C. I am acquainted with the directors of this Association. They are gentlemen of the highest commercial standing. Mr. Gibson and his company are entitled to the fullest measure of confidence and consideration.
Very respectfully,
JO. C. S. BLACKBURN.

COVINGTON, KY., June 30, 1887.
Dear Sir:—I know several of the Directors of the National Life and Maturity Association personally, and the others I know by reputation, and I take pleasure in saying that they are gentlemen of integrity, business capacity, and good financial standing.
Very truly yours,
J. G. CARLISLE,
U. S. SENATE.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2, 1888.
Dear Sir:—An intimate personal acquaintance with several members of the Board of Directors of the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C., together with a knowledge by reputation of the high business standing and character of the remaining members of the Board, enable me to say that any business enterprise managed by them will be conducted with integrity, intelligence and business sagacity. If any company can be better entitled to the confidence and the patronage of the public than such a company.
Very respectfully yours,
Z. B. VANCE.
