SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
TORPID LIVER
As known by these marked peculiarities:
1. A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs.
2. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth,
and coated tongue.
3. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea.
4. Headache, in the front of the head, nausea, dizziness, and yellowness of skin.
5. Heartburn, loss of appetite,
Distention of the stomach and bowels
by wind.
6. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow.
A natural flow of bile from the Liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in

BILIOUSNESS
which, if neglected, soon leads to serious disease. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the liver to its proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."
"I have been subject to severe spells of Colic of the Liver, and I have been in the habit of taking from 1 to 2 doses of this medicine, which has done me good in every case. I can say that I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, and have been cured of my biliousness."

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XII WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY MARCH 13 1888 NO 62

It is impossible to give expression to the intense sympathy which has been felt by the people of this country with the Germans of the Empire in their recent affliction. The Emperor was such a grand figure in history and was endowed in private with so many beautiful traits of character that the admiration of the world has been freely accorded him. And then, Unser Fritz, that splendid, bold specimen of physical and kingly manhood, has drawn to him in his recent affliction the hearty good will and the prayers of good people everywhere. May he recover fully his health and thus retain the reins of government in his own hands, is the fervent wish of millions of people, the wide world over.

The travel now, especially to the North, is simply immense, and all of the resources of the Coast Line are taxed to accommodate it. During the last few days, however, it has somewhat lightened as the fierce cold has caused many who were ready to start back home from Florida to linger a little longer among the orange flowers.

Union Services This Week.
We are requested to state that on the first bell, at 7:30 p. m., will be rung for the Union services to be held in the First Presbyterian Church the remaining nights of this week.

The second bell will be omitted on account of the singing practice of the choir which begins at 7:30 p. m.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.
School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

It rained fiercely on Sunday last but yet the streets are already dusty.

There is a good prospect ahead now for some warmer, pleasanter weather, wherein we all rejoice.

Ladies will find a nice line of good reliable scissors at Jacob's Hd'w. Depot.

There were moving scenes on the streets to day when clouds of dirt got up and dusted.

Five applications for membership were handed in at the meeting of the W. L. I. last night.

A great deal of real estate has changed hands to-day. Nearly everybody caught it on the fly and right in the eye.

This has been one of the most dusty, disagreeable days on record in this latitude. The March winds have cavorted around to a wonderful extent.

Indications.
For North Carolina, westerly winds, becoming variable, warmer and fair weather.

The South bound trains on the W. & W. R. R. were about two hours late in getting here last night. The detention was caused by the severe weather and the blocking of the roads North of the Potomac.

"A patch here and a patch there and patched all over" may fitly describe the condition of some of the pavements in this city. An old colored woman stumbled over a patch of this kind on Market street this morning and narrowly escaped a serious disaster.

The services in memory of the late Emperor William will take place on Thursday at the Opera House, Capt. Pennypacker having kindly tendered its use free of charge for that purpose. The interment will take place on Thursday.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Hall Last Night.
There was a Ball given last night at the Howard Relief Fire Engine Co's. Hall by a number of young men, and it proved to be one of the events of the season. There was good music, good dancing and lots of pretty girls. The harpers furnished music for the dancing which was kept up until nearly daylight this morning. The committee consisted of Messrs Geo. Bishop, W. H. Lane and W. F. Hewitt. The young gentlemen will give another dance in a few weeks, and another pleasant evening may well be looked forward to.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Plow is the best made. Sold only at Jacob's, who is the factory agent.

Personal.
Mr. John D. Bellamy, Jr., is in Raleigh in attendance on the Supreme Court.

Col. E. D. Hall, Chief of Police, will attend the Fish and Oyster Farm at Newbern.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Harry Smith, Local Editor of the Star, is sick and confined to his home.

Mr. A. Roseower, of the Goldsboro Headlight, was in the city yesterday and paid us a visit but we are sorry we were not in to greet him.

Mr. William Latimer left the city last night for a visit of a few weeks to Florida. His immediate destination is St. Augustine and the Ponce de Leon Hotel, where he expects to find the orange flowers in full bloom. A significant fact.

Mayor Fowler has caused 495 trees to be set out this year on Market, Third and Fifth streets. The entire cost of the trees and putting them in the ground is not more than 27 cents each, which is a remarkably low average.

A Bad Name for a Dog.
"Give a dog a bad name," &c. You all know the rest. A gentleman of this city, who has relatives North, told us last night that he received a letter from some of those relatives who said that in passing here they would be glad to stop over for a few days but that they had heard that the hotel accommodations were so poor they were afraid to venture. Twenty-four hours as Mr. Bryan's guests at the Orton House would have been sufficient to convince the most skeptical that the Orton House is the best kept hotel between Baltimore and Jacksonville. We have individually tried Ford's Hotel in Richmond, the Charleston Hotel in Charleston, and the Screven House in Savannah, and the Orton House is better than either of these.

City Court.
J. B. Bagwell was arraigned before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct and the case against him was dismissed.

Charles Owens was arraigned for disorderly conduct but the charge was afterwards changed to assault and battery. It seems that Owens yesterday afternoon went to the house of Annie Wright, who lives in an alley between Nixon and Taylor streets, and forcibly entered it and appropriated her dinner, and when Annie came in he assaulted her with his fist and a chair. Hence her tears, The Mayor sentenced him to 30 days in jail for the offense. The same defendant was charged with resisting a police officer but judgment was suspended in this case.

Patrick O'Brien, a tramp, was ordered escorted beyond the city limits.

Wilmington and Washington.
It is cold enough for fires and overcoats down this way sometimes but we really know nothing here of genuine cold weather. While the people of Wilmington were sitting around moderate fires on Sunday last and wondering whether it was cold enough out of doors for an overcoat, as well as wet enough for a waterproof, up about Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and New York there was a tremendous big freeze. So cold was it in New York that we are told that a woman froze to death in the street, in the busiest part of Broadway and that the horses were taken out of the harness and carried to the stables, while loaded trucks were abandoned in the streets. The wires were all down and no one could get in until late at night. Trains were delayed everywhere and the snow is in places from three inches to twelve inches deep on a level.

Memorial Services.
The committee having in charge the arrangements for the memorial meeting with regard to the death of Emperor William, met last night at the residence of the Rev. F. W. E. Peschan. An elaborate programme was arranged for the occasion, and it was determined to conduct the exercises at the Opera House, the use of which was kindly tendered by Capt. Pennypacker.

The Germania Cornet Band and the Wilmington Light Infantry will attend, and both instrumental and vocal music will be furnished. Mrs. D. B. Kahnweiler will be present and assist the choir which has been selected to render the appropriate vocal music.

The programme embraces the following:

Prayer by the Rev. F. W. E. Peschan.

Announcement of the death of the Emperor by Mr. E. Peschan, the German Consul at this port.

Resolutions touching the death of the Emperor, by Mr. J. A. Bonitz, of the committee on resolutions.

An address in German by the Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn.

Memorial oration by the Hon. Alfred M. Waddell.

A short address by the Rev. F. W. E. Peschan.

The public generally is invited to attend on the occasion.

The exercises will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, as the funeral of the Emperor will take place that day.

Death of Mrs. Meares.
Mrs. Jane M. Meares, relict of the late Col. Thos. D. Meares and mother of Messrs. Thos. D., Iredell and Frank L. Meares, died at her residence in this city this morning, in the 62d year of her age. She was the daughter of Hon. James Iredell, one of the most distinguished of North Carolina's many noble sons, he having been a Judge of the Superior Court in this State, Speaker of the House of Commons, Governor of the State and U. S. Senator. Mrs. Meares had been ill for a long time and her death was not unexpected. She was a noble Christian woman and there are many who will mourn her loss. Her epitaph is written in the hearts of her children who truly rise up and call her blessed—than which no greater tribute can be paid to the memory of a loved parent when the sordid cares of earth are exchanged for the Paradise of God.

A few weeks since a valuable carriage horse, the property of Mr. M. C. Only, snaggd one of his hind feet and lockjaw supervened. They tried hard to save him but could not do it and to-day he was shot and killed.

Br. Sehr Ferland, McWinnie, cleared to-day for Humacao, Porto Rico, with 101,225 feet lumber, valued at $1,518.37, shipped by Mr. E. Kidder's Son.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 13 bales.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.
