The Daily Review.
MONDAY, MARCH 19, 1888.
STATE NEWS.

Winston Sentinel: Mrs. Ann P. Lash, consort of the late W. A. Lash, and mother of Mrs. J. E. Gilmer, of this city, and Dr. W. A. Lash, of Walnut Cove, died at the latter place Tuesday at the advanced age of 84 years. — Wilkes county is thus far ahead on the stree question. Mr. J. E. Mickey, of Salem, purchased two of the "forked hoofed" animals up there last week that tipped the scales at 2,202 and 2,010 pounds respectively.

Asheville Citizen: A reunion of the survivors of the 16th N. C. State Troops will probably be held in this city on July 4th next. Preparations therefor are now being made. — Information was received by telegraph on Thursday of the sudden death of Mrs. Turner, of appexy, in Washington City. She was a relict of the late Major Turner, the well known engineer of the Western North Carolina and other railroads in North Carolina.

Asheville Sun: The residence of Dr. J. L. Carroll, on Merrimon Avenue, was partially consumed by fire this morning between twelve and one o'clock. The fire, it is supposed, caught from a defective flue in the kitchen. The kitchen and dining room and a portion of the main building was consumed. All the furniture was saved, though damaged by the removal. The building was insured.

Asheville Sun: The probability is that Gen. R. B. Vance, who is so popular and so much loved by the people of the 9th Congressional district, will be the next Democratic candidate for Congress. His friends throughout the district, who are many, would delight to honor him again. Give us Robert B. Vance for Congress and Charles M. Stedman for Governor, and the Western portion of the State may be relied on to do her duty in the next campaign and election.

Greensboro Patriot: The negro, Pleas Martin, who cut his wife's throat last Tuesday week, seems to have made his escape, as the officers have not been able to come up with him and there is no news of his whereabouts. His wife, whose life he tried to take by cutting her throat, still lives and is fairly on the way to recover. — Mr. W. A. Caldwell, only brother to our highly esteemed townsman, Hon. D. F. Caldwell, breathed his last at his home in Jackson, Tenn., Sunday night last, March 11th, 1888. The deceased was of a ripe old age and was universally admired by all who knew him. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Durham Plant: In Hillsboro early this morning fire broke out in Faucett's shoe shop. The entire square west of the Court House, extending from the Lattimer old store to the old Pogue factory, was burned. This includes about eight houses. They were all occupied. The losers were Laws & Son, tin shop; Faucett, shoe shop; Hayes & Turner, saloon; and George Laws, furniture store. The insurance on the buildings was only $500. No insurance on stock. A great many goods were saved.

Charlotte Chronicle: In an almost obscure triangular plot of Pinewood Cemetery there is a newly-made mound apparently that of a child of ten years old. The grave is about six feet in length, and was decorated with flowers when seen yesterday afternoon, but the most noticeable and curious part of it was a bottle half filled with medicine. On the bottle the druggist's name is blown, and on the label a physician's name appears. Also the directions: "Take teaspoonful every half hour." This seems a standing "slam" at the capabilities of the druggist and physicians.

LOCAL NEWS.

Capt. S. W. Nobles gave us a pleasant and cheerful piece of information on Saturday last. It is to the effect that the fruit crop hereabouts has not been injured by the recent cold weather and with fair conditions later on a good crop of fruit may be expected this year.

Personal.
Mr. R. M. Croon, of Burgaw, was here to-day on a visit to his sons. Messrs. Gibson James and Jno. H. Marshburn, of Pender county, were in the city to-day.
Maj. R. P. Atkinson is expected here to-night and to-morrow he will probably start out on a preliminary survey of a route for the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. between this city and Fayetteville.

Mr. John W. Thompson, who was for so long a time Secretary and Treasurer of the W. & W. and W. C. & A. Railroads, but who resigned those positions a year or so ago, on account of ill health, has settled in Goldsboro, where he has purchased a residence, as we see from the Argus.

Maj. H. H. Foster, formerly City Editor of this paper, has been offered and has accepted a position on the editorial staff of the Messenger. Our neighbor is to be congratulated. Maj. Foster is as good a newspaper man as there is in the State and does faithful and conscientious work.

City Court.
Ed. Robbins, disorderly conduct, failed to appear and judgment nisi for $25.
Jas. Meadows, disorderly, $30 or 30 days.
C. W. H. VanStory, disorderly, $5 or 10 days.
Stephen Ellis, disorderly, $5 or 10 days.
Jno. W. Hollowell, disorderly, $30 or 30 days.

James Capehart, for keeping an unlicensed dog in the city limits, was fined $10.
James Collins, a tramp, was ordered confined until he gets willing to leave the town.

A Lively Gait.
Another quick run was made on the W. & W. R. R. last Thursday night. The fast mail came down in two sections that night and it came in a hurry. Engineer Morriss was pulling one section and Engineer McMillan the other. The train was away behind time and when they got out of Weldon they just let loose. The run of 163 miles was made in 3 hours and 25 minutes, with a short stop each at Wilson, Goldsboro and Magnolia. The actual running time was probably not more than 3 hours and 15 minutes. Bro. Lafferty ought to have been along about that time.

Criminal Court.
The March term of this Court convened in the Court House in this city this morning. His Honor Judge Meares on the Bench. The following were drawn as a grand jury for the term: C. P. Mebane, Foreman, W. W. Banks, D. McEachern, R. F. Rowan, A. E. Alexander, Jno. H. Thees, Thos. M. Gardner, J. J. Canady, W. J. Reaves, W. G. T. Keen, F. C. Singletary, Lewis Gorden.
The following proceedings were had:
A "writ to show cause" was issued in the case of J. F. Aldridge and J. B. Dudley, publishers of the Bulletin, for an alleged grossly inaccurate report of proceedings in the case of the State vs. Hattie Davis and the cases of the State vs. Wm. Grant and Murray Grant. Rule set for hearing to-morrow at 9 o'clock.
State vs. Alex. Butler and George Sheridan, affray. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.
State vs. Claude A. Matthews, for forgery. Judgment nisi. S.H. Manning was called and required to bring into court $150 deposited with him as surety for the appearance of Claude A. Matthews.
State vs. R. F. Holmes, for a violation of the city ordinance relative to fast driving, on appeal from the Mayor's Court. Case on trial.

More Light.
The most essential thing to a buyer of clothing is plenty of light, so that he may see what he is buying. The immense stores of S. H. Fishblate are the best lighted, by day or night, of any in the city. He keeps that class of goods that stand inspection with plenty of light. No Cheap John, shoddy, or moth-eaten goods in his establishment to palm off on the public. As regards Mr. Fishblate's prices and the quality of his goods, he guarantees to give you perfect satisfaction or cheerfully refund you your money. That is the kind of a house to trade with and we advise all of our readers in want of Custom or Ready Made Tailor Made Clothing or Furnishing Goods to patronize him and you will never regret it.

Mass Meeting in Pender.

The people of Pender county are naturally much interested as regards the route to be taken by the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad in coming to this city and a call signed by Dr. Jno. R. Hawes, Dr. S. S. Hatchwell, Mr. Bruce Williams, Dr. J. F. Simpson, and Messrs W. T. Bannerman, R. H. Murphy, A. H. Paddison and James N. Henry, for a mass meeting to be held at Point Caswell on Wednesday, the 28th inst., appears in this issue of the REVIEW. Of course we are not posted but we are inclined to think that with proper efforts the line across Beatty's Bridge and down the East side of Black River, following, in a measure, the old stage route, will be that selected.

Ladies will find a nice line of good reliable scissors at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

1,500 ACRES OF LAND IN THE pine region. For sale on easy terms in lots to suit purchasers. Four acres for $25. Larger tracts $5 per acre, in monthly payments of $10. This land adjoins the "Southern Pine," a recently established health resort (on sanatorium), and is especially adapted for Fruit Culture, as well as all the cereals. A number of New England people have bought lots in the town of "Southern Pine," and is the desire of the owners of this land to induce small farmers, mechanics and others from the New England and Middle States, as well as elsewhere, to locate here. No State in the Union offers greater inducements to settlers than North Carolina. Nowhere can a better farming country or as fine a climate be found. This is the opinion of Northern men who have settled in North Carolina. This is one offer, and is limited.
