The Daily Review.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1888.
IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Among the bills reported from committees and placed on the calendar were the following:
To encourage the holding of a National Industrial Exposition of Arts, Mechanism and Products of the colored race in the United States in 1888-'89.
To authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to apply the surplus money in the Treasury to the purchase of United States bonds and to the prepayment of interest.
Mr. Blair, who yesterday introduced a bill giving preference for civil service appointments (among men who had been discharged during the war), to those who had served in the Confederate Army, and who were suffering from wounds or disabilities, asked Mr. Platt, who had objected to a second reading of the bill, to withdraw his objection.
A long debate followed, which disclosed a general opposition to the bill on both sides of the Senate.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Rockwell, of Massachusetts, called up the bill appropriating $95,000 for the erection of a fire-proof workshop at the National Armory, Springfield, Mass.
Mr. Bland fought the measure at every point, but it was finally passed.
Mr. O'Neill introduced a bill to protect free labor and the industries in which it is employed from the injurious effects of convict labor, by confining the sale of goods, wares and merchandise manufactured by convict labor to the State in which they are produced. A penalty of fine and imprisonment and forfeiture of the goods is imposed for any violation of the law. Referred.
Mr. O'Neill, from the Committee on Labor, reported a bill to establish a Department of Labor. Also a bill to prevent the products of convict labor from being furnished to or for use in any departments of the government.
Mr. Dibble, of South Carolina, from the Committee on Public Buildings, reported a bill for the erection of a public building at Charlotte, N. C. Referred to Committee of the Whole.
Mr. Tarsney, of Michigan, from the Committee on Labor, reported a bill to prevent employment of convict and alien labor on public works. House calendar.
Mr. Weaver introduced a bill providing for the issue of legal tender Treasury notes in lieu of notes estimated lost or destroyed. Referred.
The House resumed consideration of the resolution assigning two days for the transaction of business reported by the Committee on Labor.
Opponents of the resolution, led by Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, proceeded to obstructive methods to prevent action. After one roll call Mr. O'Neill of Missouri, stated that he was willing to amend the resolution by striking out the clause limiting the time of debate on each measure called up. He would do this, he said, in order to remove the pretext under which gentlemen were resorting to filibustering tactics.
Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey, in behalf of the Committee on Labor, proposed an elimination of the objectionable clause, and this having been agreed to, Mr. Rogers withdrew his opposition and the resolution was adopted. It sets aside the 20th and 21st of March, 18th of April and the 16th of May for the purpose stated.
In pursuance of the term of the resolution just adopted the floor was accorded to the Committee on Labor, and bills were passed for protection in their wages of mechanics, laborers and servants in the District of Columbia and territories; and extending the provisions of the eight hour law to letter carriers.
The bill referring to the Court of Claims for adjustment accounts of laborers, workmen and mechanics arising under the eight hour law, was discussed without action until adjournment.

STATE NEWS.

Goldboro Argus: There was quite a party of fox hunters went out from this city early yesterday morning, and after a hot chase of more than eight hours they succeeded in "bushing" the fox, Mr. E. D. Holt coming off with first honors, although Capt. Jordan and Tom Hargus were crowding him close. It is reported by Mr. J. W. Lamb and Don Scott, both old hunters, to have been the finest chase ever known in this section.

Fayetteville Journal: Hon. Geo. M. Rose has been invited to deliver the address of welcome to the doctors, at the meeting of the North Carolina Medical Society in the city in May next. —Rev. Martin MeQueen, of Moore country, has had very sore affliction in his family. His wife, mother-in-law, and one of his children died on last Friday night, of pneumonia, and he himself is reported to be very low with the same disease. —On Monday, the 13th inst., Mr. Archie Harrington, a prominent young man of Harnett county, was found dead near the residence of Sheriff Green, about one mile from Lillington on the Johnsonville road. He had been missing about a week.

Charlotte Chronicle: A party of about fifty colored people came into the city yesterday from Concord, and other parties came in from different places, making a colony of 100. The crowd will leave this evening for California. —News was received in the city yesterday of the fatal burning of three people, in Rutherford county, last Saturday, two being burned to death in a house, and the other in a field while firing brush. In the first mentioned case, Mrs. Lawson Davis and her sister-in-law, an imbecile, perished in the ruins of their burning home. They were in the house alone, at the time, and the origin of the fire cannot be accounted for. A colored girl named Jane Freeman was burned to death while firing brush. Her clothing took fire and before assistance could reach her she was burned so badly that death ensued very shortly thereafter.

Raleigh News and Observer: Hon. D. G. Fowle, of this city, has been invited by the ex-Congressmen of Beaufort county, and has accepted the invitation, to deliver the address at the unveiling of the Confederate monument at Washington on May 10th. —Peter F. Holt, one of the best citizens of Alamance county, died suddenly Saturday night. He left Burlington late in the afternoon in company with his daughter, and was taken sick just before he reached his home, which is only about two miles from Burlington, and died in about one hour from what is supposed to be heart disease, as he was in apparent good health and had made no complaint during the day. —"The Egypt Coal Company" has been incorporated by Chas. D. Upchurch, Esq., Clerk of Wake Superior Court, for the term of sixty years. The place of operations will be at Egypt, in Chatham county. The meetings of stockholders and directors will be in Raleigh. The amount of capital stock is two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of the par value of twenty-five dollars. The incorporators are James A. Hennessy, A. H. Leftwich and W. E. Anderson. This company proposes to begin operations on an extensive scale immediately.

Read the following cards. They speak for themselves:
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27th, 1888.
MR. GEORGE D. ELDRIDGE, Sec'y,
National Life and Maturity Association,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—In acknowledging receipt of One Thousand Dollars this day paid me, being full amount of Policy in your company on the life of my late husband, Col. Ellery C. Ford of this city, allow me to thank you and the Company for the promptness displayed in the settlement. Col. Ford died on January 31st, 1888, and proofs of loss were furnished your company on February 23d. Under date of February 24th, I received notice that check was awaiting my order, and I have this day received the amount, as stated above, being in full, without discount, although the terms of the Policy gave you ninety days in which to make payment. Such promptness must commend itself to every one and can but add to the confidence felt by the public in your institution.
Respectfully,
JULIA A. FORD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2nd, 1888.
Dear Sir:—The management of the National Life and Maturity Association of this city is, to my personal knowledge, in the hands of as good business men as there are in any city in the country, men whose names with those who know them, are the synonym of integrity, business capacity and intelligence, and you can rest assured that they are not men who would allow their names to be thus used unless they had personal knowledge and supervision of the management of the business. Any company with which they connect their names is worthy of confidence and patronage, and this fact alone would convince me of the soundness of the National Life and Maturity even if I had not other facts to justify my confidence in it. Very truly yours,
W. P. CANADAY.

VERMILION, KY., August 1887.
MR. W. H. GIBSON represents as Special Agent the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C. I am acquainted with the directors of this Association. They are gentlemen of the highest commercial standing. Mr. Gibson and his company are entitled to the fullest measure of confidence and consideration.
Very respectfully,
JO. C. S. BLACKBURN.

COVINGTON, KY., June 20, 1887.
Dear Sir:—I know several of the Directors of the National Life and Maturity Association personally, and the others I know by reputation, and I take pleasure in saying that they are gentlemen of integrity, business capacity, and good financial standing.
Very truly yours,
J. G. CARLISLE.

AND SEE WHAT SENATOR VANCE SAYS:
U. S. SENATE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2, 1888.

Dear Sir:—An intimate personal acquaintance with several members of the Board of Directors of the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C., together with a knowledge by reputation of the high business standing and character of the remaining members of the Board, enable me to say that any business enterprise managed by them will be conducted with integrity, intelligence and business sagacity. In my opinion no company could be better entitled to the confidence and the patronage of the public than such a company.
Very respectfully yours,
Z. B. VANCE.
