CONSTIPATION

Called the "Father of Diseases," because it causes there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being secreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite,
Sick Headache,
Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels.
The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce lividness or excite the system. To secure after its use greater effectiveness, to secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a single dose, and afterwards reduced the dose to a teaspoonful, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued it until I took two bottles. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have so far used for it, it having cured me."—Geo. W.
Sims, Asst. Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

voters. The name of 21 of them is Bean. One year every town office was filled by a Bean.

There is to be a great gathering of Baptists in Washington next May.
Some 2,000 delegates, representing 30,000 churches, have been enrolled.

A scheme is under consideration for tunnelling the volcano Popocatepetl through the wall of the crater, in order to reach the deposits of sulphur inside the mountain.

Says an imaginative statistician:
"If Texas were a circular lake and France a circular island, the island could be anchored centrally in the lake out of sight of land, 22 miles from any point on the encircling shore."

The Chatsworth disaster has already cost the Toledo, Peoria and Western Railroad more than $300,- 000 in damages, and there is $100,- 000 yet to pay. A new culvert, costing $400, would have saved this amount.

John W. DuBose, of Birmingham, Ala., will soon publish a life of William L. Yancey, in which he promises to tell the true story of the encounter in the Confederate Senate between Yancey and Bob Toombs, in which Toombs struck Yancey with a heavy inkstand, and from the effects of which he never recovered.

Mr. Gladstone is now to take his turn in demolishing Robert G. Ingersoll, the most famous American assailant of the Christian system of which Gladstone is a champion.
The British statesman will work his religious batteries through an American magazine next May.

The Washeo Indians, of Nevada, have found a new amusement. They pit their squaws against one another in prize fights. No rules are observed, and hair-pulling, scratching, fighting and kicking are permitted.
The sport seems to have the same fascination for the untutored savages that pugilism has for civilized white men.

There is a wonderful brown and golden bird in Mexico, a species of beemartin, that is a remarkably expert bee catcher. He has a way of ruffling up the feathers on top of his head so that his crest looks exactly like a beautiful flower. When a bee comes along to sip honey from this delusive blossom it is snapped up and devoured.

A gentleman in Atlanta is peculiarly afflicted. One of his eyes is dark blue in color, and the other is a light gray. In the daytime—from sunrise to sunset—he cannot see anything out of the blue eye, but can see distinctly and well with the gray eye; and from sunset to sunrise he cannot see anything with the gray eye. His hearing is similarly affected. He can hear only on the blind side; thus he can hear with one ear during the daytime and with the other during the night. He never discovered this until recently.

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XII WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, MARCH 23 1888 NO 71

A maiden of uncertain age whose home is in Niles, Me., is said to have proposed to 13 young men since leap year began.

An army officer living at Orchard, Neb., is said to have discovered a plant common to the country which has the property of converting milk into butter—one pound of the former making the same amount of the latter.

Taking the royal family together, it is found that the present sovereign, the good Queen Victoria, with her aunts and her numerous progeny, has cost the British nation $35,000,000, or in the neighborhood of $175,000,000. In the hundred years of their national life, closing with the present Administration, the American people have paid their Presidents salaries $2,900,000.

Everything which belongs to pure, healthy blood is imparted by Hood's Sarsaparilla. A trial will convince you of its merits.

It is reported here to-day that Chief Justice Waite died very suddenly in Washington City this morning.

It is thought now that the work on St. Paul's P. E. Church will be far enough advanced on Sunday to allow of dedicatory services being held there.

The grand jury visited the county jail this forenoon and will visit the row. They will probably be discharged to-morrow afternoon.

Ger barque Mathilde, Woack, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 50 casks spts turpentine, 504 barrels rosin and 2,245 barrels tar, valued at $4,400, shipped by Messrs Alex.
Sprant & Son.

The minimum temperature this morning was 24 degrees, which makes it the third coldest morning this season. The temperature on December 30th was 19 degrees, and on January 19th 20 degrees.

It was very cold this morning and ice formed plentifully in exposed localities. There was no frost, however, and as the atmosphere was very dry it is not likely that vegetation has suffered much. We saw only slight evidences of injury.

The Fayetteville Observer tells us that the engineers, Messrs. H. L.
Fry, Robert Strange and D. O'Han-lon, commenced work on the line between Fayetteville and this city on Wednesday. Mr. Fry has charge of the party, which Messrs. H. Evans and James Kyle of Fayetteville accompany as rod-man and chain-bearer.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

The Early Birds.
In commenting upon Lester and Allen's Early Birds Burlesque Company the Boston Herald says:

The performance is a first class specialty, and one that Lester and Allen should be proud of. The curtain rises on a laughable scene entitled "The Early Birds," which introduces a troupe of ladies from all parts of the world, and the whole performance winds up with a very amusing travesty on Rider Haggard's novel "She."

The alarm of fire this noon was caused by the ignition of the roof of a house on Brunswick street, between Third and Fourth streets, occupied by a colored woman by the name of Jerusha Davis. It is thought to have caught from a spark. The department turned out promptly but their services were not needed as the neighbors had put out the fire. The damage was very slight. The truck of Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1 was first at the scene.

Working Like Beavers.
Work is being prosecuted rapidly on the Seacoast Railway. The construction of the trestle across the Sound is progressing well and superintendent Chadbourn tells us that they have done better there this week than at any time since the work was begun. The hammock is being cleared of the thick growth in the chapparel, and to-day the pile driver, which is to work there, commenced operations on the trestle.
The two will meet some here in the Sound. The work of laying the rails will probably begin about the 10th of April.

Scribner's for April.
Scribner's Magazine for April presents a very attractive table of contents. "A Street in Gibraltar" is the frontispiece; the second part and conclusion, of "The Campaign of Waterloo" is given with numerous handsome illustrations; "The Snowing of the Pines" is a sonnet; The first paper on "The Centre of the Republic" appears in this issue, to be concluded in the May number.
Other interesting articles are "The Greek Vase," "The Shadow Chaser,"
"The Tower of the Holy Children," "A Dream," "Gibraltar," "A Happy Accident," "Toward Spring," "The Star to Its Light," "Where Shall We Spend our Summer?" "First Harvests," &c., &c. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York, at $3 a year.

Non Compos Mentis.
Mr. Gevarte Prigge cut quite a swell in this city a few weeks ago.
He got heavily in debt and then left the town and has since turned up in Florence, where he got into debt and into trouble too. He owes us nearly $40 and was anxious to owe us more, but we would not let him.
"Star Starch" had somewhat of a fishy smell to us and we would none of it. We begin to suspect, as some others here who have known him intimately have for some time past suspected, that Mr. Prigge is somewhat "wrong in his upper story." Good evidence as to this fact is found in his proceedings at Florence which are narrated by the Times, of that town, as follows:

Two weeks ago, one Gevarte Prigge, of Wilmington, N. C., came to Florence and gave out that he intended to open a brokerage and banking business at Florence, under the firm name of Gevarte Prigge & Co., and so advertised. He rented an office, and said he would begin business at once, and would have an unlimited capital to loan on real estate. Prigge boarded at the Central Hotel, one of the first-class houses in town. He made a big show, and inveigled himself into the good graces of a number of citizens, and contracted several debts, which still remain unpaid. He had no baggage, and on Saturday afternoon, when the proprietor of the Central Hotel asked for the money for his board, he tried to make an explanation why his funds had not arrived, but Mr. Barringer had already caught him in several questionable statements and then proved that he had lied to him, and proceeded to "knock out" cashier Prigge, and the latter did not attempt to defend himself. Prigge "left" the hotel, and it is doubtful if he had any supper that night. At 12 o'clock Saturday night he said to a gentleman that he had telegraphed to his partner, and that he would set himself right and square up his accounts by Tuesday, but as he has not been seen or heard of since, it is surmised he took some one of the many railroad tracks leading from Florence, and walked away from the town without so much as saying goodbye. The most charitably disposed seemed to think that Gevarte Prigge is a fit subject for a lunatic asylum, though all admit he is a shrewd man in some respects; and that he is not wholly a fool is proven by some of his attempted transactions here. If the authorities at Wilmington or any one else know of the whereabouts of this whitish cashier, some of the citizens of Florence would appreciate the favor if the fact is communicated here at once.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Plow is the best made. Sold only at Jacobi's, who is the factory agent.

A meeting of citizens of Burgaw was held in that town on Wednesday last, the object of which was to consider the feasibility of establishing one or more canning factories in that town for the purpose of putting up all kinds of fruit, vegetables, &c.

Mr. W. T. Bannerman was called to the Chair and Mr. R. N. Bloodworth was requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman having explained the object of the meeting in one of his earnest and most impressive speeches all seemed to be deeply impressed with the importance of the measure, and there was quite an interchange of views and several spirited and very interesting speakings on the subject. In fact, all who were present expressed themselves as favorable to the enterprise. This meeting was called a "feeler" to ascertain the sentiments and opinions of the citizens with regard to the matter, which so far has resulted in a unanimous and overwhelming concurrence in favor of the enterprise.

A committee of the following gentlemen was appointed to make an estimate of the cost of such an establishment, with all necessary expenses, and report the same to a called meeting, of which due notice will be given, viz.: Dr. R. T. Sanders, and Messrs. A. H. Paddison, E. Mc. Moore, John W. Cowan, A. E.
Taylor, and D. J. McMillan.

We think that our friends at Burgaw are on the right track at last.
They are in the midst of a fine farming and fruit country and they can get all of the supplies of fruit and vegetables they may require at low prices. We should think the enterprise a very feasible one. One thousand dollars is more than enough to start it. Here are some figures for an outfit, published by us a few months ago, and reproduced here as applicable to the subject in hand: Boiler and kettle for tomatoes...$220

Mr. Charles Dickens' readings will be given at the Opera House in this city to-morrow afternoon and as it is a rare opportunity for a literary treat there should be a good house to welcome him. There are no reserved seats on sale, it having been decided not to offer them, as it is a matinee entertainment. Mr. Dickens is said by those who have heard him to be a close and skilful interpreter of his immortal father's ideas, as expressed in his works, and the opportunity for hearing him is one that will not be repeated. Tickets for the entertainment may be had at Heinsberger's.

Large congregations continue to —and there was also a large congregation present at the Bible readings this forenoon.

Gen. Hoke's note book has furnished already several items of historic interest relative to the late war. Here are two more, which we find in the Weldon News, and which will interest many here:

June 8, 1861—An order was sent Maj. W. L. DeRosset, commanding camp of instruction at Garysburg, for a court martial to try Capt. A.
H. Houston, of the Beattie's Ford Riflemen. Houston was ordered under arrest, and Major DeRosset was notified that Col. W. P. Bynum and a private named Goodson would be witnesses. A detail was made for the court on the same date, and Capt. R. R. Ihrie was president. The charges against him are repeated and it is further stated that he "did at the camp at Garysburg exhibit himself in divers, ridiculous and in-decient positions to his men while on duty and on drill and did give them improper and ridiculous orders, which were disgusting to them and also manifestly injurious to the service."

On the 11th the Scotland Neck Mounted Riflemen, Captain P. M.
Edmondston, were ordered to Wilmington to report to Colonel Te...

Mary Willis was charged with larceny before the Mayor this morning but was ordered discharged for want of evidence.

Mary Hooper, for allowing her cow to run at large, was fined $5.
John W. Smith, disorderly conduct. Case continued.

The Morning Star enters on the 21st years of its existence to-day.
