SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1888. IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 5,-Mr. Riddleberger offered a preamble and resolution on the subject of the terany way appertaining thereto, or Relations.

pension of the oldest revolutionary cision by Raleigh authorities as to pensioner on the rolls, Nancy Pains, the final disposition of the money. Hardy has till to-morrow to name an amount not fixed, but left to the the party who will have the custody Secretary of the Interior; one giving of the money, and White and Cross a pension of $50 a month to the will probably leave Toronto for Ralwidow of Rear Admiral Nicholson; eigh to-morrow. one giving a pension of $100 a month to the widow of General Judson Kilpatrick; one of $100 a month to the widow of General Robert Anderson; one pensioning a soldier's foster mother; one giving a pension of $50 at 3.30 p. m., both in the Mission St. Paul's Evan. Lutheran Church.

St. Paul's Evan. Lutheran Church. Commander Wm. Gibson; and one of 50 a month to a widow of Medical Inspector Denby of the Navy. Altogether, there were 127 bills passed, occupying less than an hour and a half; 65 of the bills were House clause, "this act shall be in force ture room on Mulberry street. from and after its approval by the President."

On motion of Mr. Ransom, the Senate bill authorizing the constructinvited. Seats free. tion of bridges across the Cape Fear, Black and North East rivers, in North Carolina, was passed.

The Senate then at 2 o'clock resumed consideration of the bill for the Bureau of Animal Industry, to stock and their products, and to extirpate contagious pleuro-pneumonia.

Mr. Coke moved that its further Friday night at sp. m. consideration be postponed till Thursday and made a special order, and that in the meantime the bill as amended be printed.

Mr. Frye sent to the clerk's desk and had read a letter from Mr. Bur the most experienced cattle raisers Benediction at 5 o'clock, p. m. Daily Mass at in Maine), noting defects in the bill in not providing for the cure of tuberclosis, a dreadful and incurable disease, which caused, through infected milk, the death of 50,000 children a year in large cities of children a year in large cities of America, or for the case of glanders in horses.

First Baptist Church (col.) corner of Fifth and Campbell streets, Rev. A. M. Conway, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m., at 3 p. m. and at 8 p. m. Sunday School at 1 p. m. Seats free.

Mr. Frye moved to amend the bill by mentioning these two diseases; and the amendments were accepted by Mr. Palmer, who has charge of the bill.

Mr. Coke's motion was then agreed to, and the bill was made the special order for Thursday next.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House this morning, at 11.45, entered upon the fourth day of its contest over the direct tax bill, the legislative day of Wednesday still con-

The situation in the House re-mains unchanged, and there are no present prospects of breaking the dead-lock. Both sides are doggedly determined to keep up the fight, and it is threatened that the House will be kept in continuous session without any recess being taken until the question is settled either by compromise or by one party uncon-ditionally surrendering its position. There is some discussion as to what effect the present action of the House in consuming time in repeat-ed roll calls will have upon the con-sideration of tariff bills, and there is an apprehension felt by some gentlemen that if the dilatory tactics are continued for a few days longer

STATE NEWS,

Rockingham Spirit: W. H. Brooks, who formerly resided in this town, was beaten over the head with a club in the hands of James Norton and sustained injuries which may prove fatal. The difficulty occurred last Tuesday, near Springfield in this county. Liquor, as usual, was the prime cause of the truble.

Newbern Journal: All along the route between Jacksonville and Newbern there are evidences of improvement in farm methods. Compost heaps are to be seen on every hand; fences have been repaired and preparations for a good crop are encouraging. The timber business too, is engaging the attention of those near White Oak river where the logs can be floated down to Terry's mill at Stella. The building of the railroad from Wilmington to Newbern will develop this business and make it a great source of revenne to the county. The hauling of lumber alone will make a good traffic for a railroad for several years, Charlotte Chronicle: The Mountain Breeze, a paper published at Wilkesboro and which is one of our valued exchanges, has for its motto: With charity for all and malice toward none," set up in pica caps. In its last issue, we find this little bit of pleasantry: "We noticed that a certain young man, hid behind the corrupt, contemptible, unscrupulous robe of its slabsided, narrow minded editor applies, as he thinks, salve of his sores, by attacking us personally through the columns of the Wilkes-boro Chronicle. We do not intend to use the columns of the Breeze to adjust our own personal affairs, but we will just say to that raw boned, hide bound, puke of humanity, that he is a wilful, malicious liar, and the truth is not in him."

Raleigh Visitor: The following ritory reported as recently acquired Raleigh Visitor: The following by Great Britain from Venezuela dispatch was received at 2 o'clock and calling on the President for this afternoon: TORONTO, ONT., copies of letters and documents in April 6.—White and Cross were before the police magistrate this morn requesting him to take such other ing, when it was formally agreed and further action as may be com- that they would waive an examinapatible with public interests.
