The city authorities of Dusseldorf have permitted the erection of a monument to Heine by a majority of one vote only.

Senator Reagan, of Texas, has drawn a salary from the public since 1888, when he was surveyor of lands in Texas.

A sign on the store of a Toccoa, Ga., merchant reads: "Lamps fixed, razors honed, fresh oysters, Vienna bread and tombstones."

Some scamp recently decorated, in the night, the great door of Sing Sing, N. Y., prison with the legend:
"Hair cut while you wait."

A Philadelphia firm of soap manufacturers have a kettle that holds 471,000 pounds of liquids and six kettles that hold 150,000 pounds each.

A redwood tree that was recently cut down near Humboldt, Cal., was 300 feet long and 10 feet in diameter one way and 30 the other at the stump.

Miss Frances E. Willard calls the persistence with which the temperance movement is pushed by the better half of humanity as "the tin-tinabulation of a tireless woman's tongue."

A steam logger or snow locomotive lately constructed is in use in the logging camps of northern Michigan, where it draws with ease sleds holding 30,000 feet of logs over snow a foot deep.

The late Mrs. Joseph Colton, of New Haven, left $40,000 to the Yale Divinity school, and Mrs. Catharine Jarman, recently deceased, left the same school $10,000 worth of real estate.

Louise Montague, the ten thousand dollar beauty, who rode the elephant in Forepaugh's circus parade in this city a few years ago, is now the wife of a restaurant keeper in St. Paul.

The work of weeding out the saloons in Philadelphia under the high license law goes briskly forward. Up to date only 551 licenses have been granted in twelve wards, where, under the old law, there were 2,163 licensed saloons. Philadelphians like the process so well that talk is already heard of increasing the license fee another year from $500 to $1,000 or even $1,500.

The Rev. I. S. Hopkins, D. D., president of Emory College, Ga., has accepted the position of president of the Georgia Institute of Technology. The Rev. J. W. Lee, D. D., pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Atlanta, and the Rev. J. W. Heidt, D. D., chancellor of the Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas, are spoken of as possible successors to Dr. Hopkins as president of Emory College.

If the liver and kidneys are sluggish and inactive, Hood's Sarsaparilla will rouse them to prompt and regular action. Take it now.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

See the "Artful," the best rat trap known, at Jacob's Hdw Depot.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

Mr. Garrell's specialties this week, at his stalls in the Market House, are Spring lamb and stall fed beef, on hand to-morrow and Saturday.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Plover is the best made. Sold only at Jacob's, who is the factory agent.

Rev. G. M. Tolson will baptize some candidates in the baptistry of the First Baptist Church at the conclusion of the prayer meeting exercises tonight.

There will be a Prayer and Praise meeting at Brooklyn Baptist Church to-morrow night, after which the pastor will be glad to talk with any who may desire to join the church.

For North Carolina, slightly cooler and generally fair weather, with light to fresh winds, generally northeasterly.

The turnpike is cut up pretty bad in places by the heavy timber wagon trains which have been passing over it of late. The worst places are between the first and second toll gates.
It needs more oyster shells than are now being put on it.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Work on the Seacoast Road.
To-morrow, probably "bright and early," the track on this road will be laid across Market street. The grading has been completed nearly to the Martin place, 4 1/2 miles from the city. For a long distance, nearly two miles, it runs parallel with the turnpike and not more than a hundred yards distant. At the Sound the trestle is making its way rapidly across the marshes and it is also reaching out from the other end to meet the work which is proceeding from this side. We should say that the gap will probably be cleared by the middle of May, at the latest.
The hammock has been cleared of the undergrowth and only the live oak trees are left standing, a delightful grove being the result.

The April Skies.
The April nights will be full of interest to those who follow the courses of the stars. The opposition of Mars, the opposition of Uran-us, the quadrature of Saturn, and the conjunction of Venus and Mercury will occur. Night after night the sky will beam with the light of three large planets as evening stars. This is something new, for of late the morning sky has been the scene of action where the largest planets have shone resplendent. Jupiter rises on the 18th about 9.30 o'clock, and then the sky will be beautiful to see.
These planets rise in the Southeast surrounded by Scorpio, ruddy Mar-approaching the zenith closely followed by the silver-tinted Spica and pale, serene Saturn descending in the West, following in the wake of Pollux and Procyon. Intelligent observers can find these planets without assistance, and will find great satisfaction in a knowledge of the stars obtained by personal effort.

Knights of Pythias.
Grand Chancellor T. D. Meares organized a lodge of Knights of Pythias in Maxton last Tuesday with the following officers: W. B. Summersett, P. C.; Wm. Black, C. C.; W. B.
Harker, V. C. C.; D. A. Pierce, P.; J. S. McRae, K. of R. and S.; J. T.
Elmore, M. A. A.; J. S. Blake, I. G.; A. J. McKinnon, O. G.; E. S. Lathrop, J. W. Carter, John Leach, trustees.

Wilmington Cotton Mills.
A meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Cotton Mills was held yesterday at the office of Geo.
R. French, Esq., and the following were elected a Board of Directors: Wm. A. French, D. MacRae,
James H. Chadbourn, F. W. Kercher, B. G. Worth, Norwood Giles,
George R. French, Jr.

The directors elected the following officers to serve the ensuing year:
President—Wm. A. French.
Vice President—James H. Chadbourn.
Secretary and Treasurer—Edward
L. Tennent.

The Hop Last Night.
The Hop given last night at the Adrian Hall by the Germania Cornet Band was an exceedingly pleasant affair, though the attendance was smaller than usual. Music was rendered by the Italian harpers for dancing and the Germania Band furnished some of their most beautiful airs, among the pieces being several that have never been heard here in public before. The Band has made wonderful progress of late and we hope to see them on the street on Memorial Day. An elegant supper was served at 12 o'clock and the dancing was kept up afterwards with much spirit. Those present are loud in their praises of the excellent arrangements made by the committee.

Personal.
Col. Jesse Hargrave, of Richmond county, is in the city.

Mr. J. A. Gray, President of the Cape Fear & Y. V. R. R., is in the city to-day.

Bro. McDiarmid, of the Robeson-ian, was in the city yesterday and paid us a visit during the afternoon.

Capt. Ingram, of the Gulf Stream, is accompanied on this trip out by his wife, who came with him for a short visit to her mother.

Mr. J. J. Jackson, of Pittsboro, and Dr. Isaac Jackson, of Whiteville, are in the city to-day, the guests of Mr. J. H. Currie.

Dr. W. G. Curtis came up from Southport this morning on a brief visit. He tells us that he thinks the S. A. & N. W. R. R. will surely be built.

Mr. Ed. Hewlett, who has for some years past been a resident of Jacksonville, Fla., with a position in a railroad office in that city, has returned to spend the Summer with relatives here.

The S. A. & N. W. R. R.
If Mr. Bilheimer is a man of fact, in deeds as well as in words, then the much talked of South Atlantic & North Western R. R. is really to have a local habitation as well as a name. This gentleman was in Rockingham last week and we clip this from the Rocket:

Mr. Bilheimer was in town on Tuesday last. He assures us that we shall see him constantly along this way now on. He was accompanied by Mr. Austin, of Philadelphia, elected by the management to visit the line of the South Atlantic & North Western Railroad with the view of reporting prospects, resources &c., on his return North. The latter gentleman—a practical engineer—is, at the same time, a capitalist, and is partner in the ownership of 450,000 acres of coal lands in the Northwest which it is expected the road will develop. They came direct from Southampton, at which point Mr. Bilheimer intends to begin work probably before the first of June. Mr. Austin was greatly pleased with Southport as a coaling station, and there seems to be no longer any uncertainty about the road. The gentlemen went from here to Salisbury by way of Albemarle, Norwood, and other points along the contemplated route.

The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of a tramp.
He was told to move on and keep on moving.

You will find a very nice line of Gent's Heavy Jeans Drawers, at 50 cents a pair at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No 37 Market street, J.
Elsbach, Prop.

Beyond Our Expectations.
The increase in our sales the past month was beyond our expectation, and proves conclusively that our efforts to place first class Clothing at New York prices within the reach of buyers from Wilmington and vicinity is appreciated. We have just received and placed on our counters the finest and best selected stock of Men's, Boy's, Youth's and Children's Clothing for Spring and Summer year ever before brought to this market, which will be sold at prices that will surprise. All we ask is a call, and you are sure to buy. Remember we will not be undersold.
Our motto: Quick Sales and Small Profits.

The Close of the Great Revival.
The great preacher closed his labors in this city last night to a vast congregation. He has done a great work and a good work here. This is an admitted fact. No one disputes it. Quite one thousand persons have been reclaimed from the error of their ways. Some of these will of course fall but if one-half, or one-third, or one-fourth, or even a still less proportion than this, remain firm to their vows, even then a very great good will be accomplished.

The immense influence which he has acquired in this community was well illustrated last night in the effort which he made to secure a building fund for the Young Men's Christian Association. His appeals were met with responses which aggregate $8,500. Subscriptions of $1,000 were first called for and two gentlemen responded. A number then subscribed $500, $250, $100 and $50, until the fund reached the handsome amount of $7,500. Another thousand was added after the services were over, swelling the sum to $8,500.

Messrs. D. G. Worth and G. W.
Williams each subscribed $1,000.— Mr. B. F. Hall gave $500, Mr. J. H.
Currie $250 and a cash subscription of $300 was recorded.

The following gave $100 each: J.
A. Springer, Dr. W. G. Thomas, R.
W. Hicks, W. P. Fife, J. R. Turren-tine, Dr. T. F. Wood, Mrs. W. H.

The following subscribed $50 each:
Mrs. C. C. Covington, W. N. Conly, W. H. Carr, Mrs. E. S. Hancock, Mrs. C. L. Grafiin, B. F. King, B.
F. Keith, G. W. Huggins, N. M.

Death of Mr. James M. Dawson.
The sad news was received here yesterday afternoon of the death of Mr. James M. Dawson, which occurred in New York city yesterday morning, of scarlet fever. The remains were to have arrived here last night, for interment to-day at Oakdale, but they did not come.

The Acme Manufacturing Company has for sale 500 bushels of the celebrated Allen cotton seed, which they are selling at $1 per bushel. As there is but a limited supply of it those in need should make early application.

A white flannel afghan has been lost. The finder will be liberally rewarded if he will leave it at Mr. Sol.
Bear's store.

The new drinking fountain was placed in position this afternoon at the corner of Front and Market streets.

Only 5 bales of cotton received here to-day.

American History.
The Magazine of American History for April surpasses even itself in the rarity and beauty of its illustrations. The exquisite Robertson miniature-portraits of President and Martha Washington form the frontispiece, which, painted nearly one hundred years ago from life, have never been seen by the public until now. Another priceless art treasure, appearing for the first time this month in this superb periodical, is a copy of the only cabinet sized bust-portrait of Washington, painted from life by Charles Wilson Peale.
Then, as we turn the beautiful pages, we find two examples of Malbone's miniature portraits, perfect gems of early painting, dating back to 1799; and also rare portraits of Robertson himself, of Peale, and of Trumbull. Mrs. Lamb's charming paper, entitled "Unpublished Washington Portraits," includes much fresh and informing data, with interesting personal sketches of some of the early artists. "The Acquisition of Florida" is a very ably written article by our Minister to Spain, Hon. J. L. M. Curry. L. L. D., who has had exceptional opportunities for study among the records. Professor A. G. Hopkins, of Hamilton College, contributes "Between Albany and Buffalo," a delightful description of the early methods of transportation and travel in New York; to be continued in the May number. A. W.
Clason writes very cleverly on the "Fallacy of 1860." A bright picture from the diary of Rev. Manasseh Cutler is entitled, "Church-going in New York City in 1787." Mrs. Alice D. Le Plongeon furnishes an instructive account of "The Conquest of the Mayas" in Yucatan. A curiously entertaining contribution is "An Englishman's Pocket Note book in 1828," telling in a very racy style of what he saw in America. Mr. Cecil Hamden Cutts Howard describes "A Washington Relic" of much interest; Andrew D. Mellick, Jr., writes of "The Militia of New Jersey in the Revolution," and Prof.
Oliver P. Hubbard draws a striking picture of the "Harmony of History." The editorial and other departments abound in riches, as varied and agreeable as they are substantial, and excellent. Published at 745 Broadway, New York.

Gilmore is Here.
The Gilmore Band arrived here this afternoon in their own special cars. They will play at the Opera House to-night. It is the first time they have ever been here and it may be the last, so that it becomes the opportunity of a life-time. Special rates have been made on the railroads and a good many from points outside of the city are expected.

And what are our morning cotemporaries going to do about it? Will they continue to publish on Sunday morning or will they issue on Mondays instead? It is a delicate question but one in which we are interested.

Where can you buy the best and finest boots and shoes for the money in the city? Why, at Geo. R.
French & Sons. They keep the largest stock.

Mr. Cronenberg was engaged this afternoon in taking a photograph of the truck of Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.

A little more ballast now on Swann street, East of Seventh, would keep it in good repair. Some time ago this street was ballasted and sawdusted but more is needed now to keep it up.
