The Democrats had big victories on Tuesday at elections held in Albany and Cohoes, N. Y., and in Jersey City, N. J. They literally swept the field.

So far this session of Congress about 9,000 bills have been introduced in the House. Of the bills passed 127 were public and 222 private.

During the first three months of this year 5,000 more immigrants arrived at New York than in the same time last year. There were 28,945 arrivals in March.

According to careful insurance statistics on both sides of the water the expectation of life of American women at 20 years of age is 40.8 years, and of English women precisely the same, but after the age of 20 the expectation of life among American women exceeds considerably that of English women up to 47. After that again English women have the advantage. In short, between the ages of 20 and 35 American women are healthier and better, but after that age fall behind the women of England in vitality.

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as that point of increase will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the right. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Compress and Warehouse Company will be held on Wednesday next, the 18th inst., at 11 o'clock, at the Bank of New Hanover.

We suppose our morning contemporaries will announce in their issues of tomorrow morning that hereafter no paper will be issued on Sunday morning, but that it will be published on Monday instead.

On Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock, Rev. C. L. Arnold will deliver a sermon on social amusements. The young people are especially invited to be present. Some questions have been raised as to what amusements Christians may indulge in without offense, and this sermon will be an attempt to answer some of these.

Rev. C. L. Arnold begins this evening at St. Paul's Church a course of lectures on the history, faith and practices of the Protestant Episcopal Church. People who have a desire to know something of the Church should attend the Friday evening lectures. They will be delivered in a spirit of Christian charity, but it will be the endeavor of the speaker to set forth the facts without reserve. It is hoped a large attendance will be present at the introductory lecture this evening.

Mr. H. W. Burgwin, of Virginia, is in the city on a brief visit to relatives here.

Mr. E. Kuhblank returned to the city yesterday from Fayetteville, where he took large orders for the celebrated Portner beer.

Prof. A. Belezza goes from this city to Charlotte, where he will open a dancing school next Monday. We commend him to the courtesies of our Charlotte friends as being one who is well worthy of them.

Mr. Jno. D. Williams, Jr., left here to-day for Fayetteville to assume his new duties as Teller of the Fayetteville National Bank. Mr. Williams is a genial, pleasant gentleman who has many friends here who will regret his removal from our city by the sea.

A seaman on board of Nor. barque Sven Fogn, which arrived in below yesterday, fell during the forenoon from near the foremast head to the deck below, a distance, it is said of about 70 feet. His fall was obstructed somewhat by the rigging and the force of the fall was thus in a measure broken, when picked up it was ascertained that one of his arms was broken and that he had received some severe cuts and bruises. He was brought up to the city on the steamer Louise this morning and taken to the hospital, where he received proper attention. We could not learn the name of the injured man.

Doing Good.

The S. P. C. A. is doing a great deal of good in this city. Several lame and emaciated horses and mules have been taken off the streets and their owners cautioned not to work them again until they get better. Three or four countrymen driving tender feet animals were sent out of the city and they will be arrested if caught driving them on the stone pavements again. This is as it should be. The Society has officers of good judgment, and also competent men, who are experienced in horse diseases, to pass upon the condition of an animal and judge if it is subject to the law of the State in regard to cruelty to animals.

The Y. M. C. A.

The meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association at the Library rooms late yesterday afternoon was attended by a large number of the members, and great interest was evinced by all. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises, after which the President, Mr. P. B. Manning, stated the object for which it was called—to make arrangements to secure additional subscriptions to the building fund, and for the incorporation of the Association. After a discussion, participated in by a number of leading business men of the city who were present by invitation, the matter was finally referred to the Board of Directors consisting of the executive officers of the Association and Messrs. D. G. Worth, B. F. Hall, J. H. Currie, J. S. Allen, J. H. Chadbourn, Jr., Roger Moore, J. C. Stevenson and W. H. Sprunt.

After the close of the meeting of the Association, the Board of Directors met and appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. J. S. Allen, Roger Moore, Iredell Mearns, Wm. M. Cumming and G. C. Worth to solicit subscription. These gentlemen will canvass the city to-day and tomorrow, and no doubt is entertained that the whole amount of $15,000 will be secured before long. The citizens are showing great enthusiasm. Over $1,000 was secured yesterday, although no systematic effort was made. The committee will report at a meeting of the Association to be held Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

The form of an agreement providing for the manner in which subscriptions may be paid—in eighteen monthly instalments, or quarterly or in cash—was submitted by Mr. J. C. Stevenson and adopted.

The Gilmore Jubilee.

Those who attended the entertainment at the Opera House last night have much to congratulate themselves upon. Those who were not there missed the most musical treat that has probably ever been presented to the citizens of Wilmington. Gilmore's band, both in the artistic individuality of the various soloists introduced and as a unit, fulfilled all the expectations formed concerning it, no matter how high these were pitched, and fully sustained the reputation it has earned on two continents. Mr. Gilmore has abundantly demonstrated that it is possible so to manipulate a military band as to render compositions generally intended for and played by string or mixed orchestras or on pianos, without detracting from the delicacy or beauty of the score. The entire entertainment last night was a dream of musical harmonies, the refrain from which will linger for long in the memories of those who heard it. It was all good, yet, while some parts were better than other parts, and some voices, of course, were superior to other voices, yet it is almost wrong to attempt a criticism. Everything was good, delightful and enjoyable from the overture of Tannhauser to the grand finale, where the entire band appeared in the anvil chorus with the sensational accensions of anvils, balls and cannon. It was a grand, glorious and appropriate terminal to an evening of rare and exquisite harmonies.

For North Carolina, slightly cooler and generally fair weather, and light to fresh winds, generally Northeast, followed on Saturday by rising temperature.

Again this morning it was cold enough for overcoats and fires.

Some warmer weather is promised us for to-morrow.

A Truly Venerable Age.

Mrs. Seney Alderman, who is probably the oldest living white person in this city, celebrated to-day her 96th birthday. She is still in the enjoyment of good health. The day was made quite a festal one by the friends of the venerable lady, at the residence of her grandson, Mr. S. H. Burt, corner of Dock and Eighth streets. May she live to enjoy, in good health, many more just such days.

Where can you buy the best and finest boots and shoes for the money in the city? Why, at Geo. R. French & Sons. They keep the largest stock.

With the subscriptions made this forenoon the fund of the Young Men's Christian Association building now amounts to about $10,000. Fifteen thousand is wanted and the committee hope to get it all here.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Plow is the best made. Sold only at Jacobi's, who is the factory agent.

The Contest.

(Wilson Advance)

The fight for the Democratic nomination for Governor has been the means of bringing out a number of names, but still it is not positively determined who will be the nominee. Maj. Charles M. Stedman has, we believe, grown in popular favor from the very first and it is admitted that he has commanded a larger following than any man whose name has been mentioned. Judge Clark, up to three weeks ago, was his most formidable opponent. Gov. Jarvis was considered as in the race for the nomination, while Capt. Sid Alexander has been vigorously pushed. A few weeks ago the name of Judge D. G. Fowle was brought out and advocated in different sections of the State with a concentration of action and purpose that shows conclusively that his campaign for the nomination is being managed by the shrewdest politicians in the State.

Gov. Jarvis has written a letter stating as clearly as words can state that he is by no means in the race. Judge Clark has written a strong and manly letter withdrawing from the contest. The letters of Jarvis and Clark leave the contest virtually between Stedman and Fowle. One or the other of these gentlemen, we believe, will be nominated as the standard bearer of the Democratic party in the approaching campaign. The question, which shall it be, presents itself to every Democrat. We are for the strongest man, whoever he may be. The man who can and will thoroughly organize North Carolina, it appears to us is the strongest man.

We would not say one word in disparagement of Judge Fowle. He is a good speaker and has a strong hold upon the affections of the people of some sections of the State.

Maj. Stedman, it appears to us, combines as many—if not more—elements of strength as any man whose name has been mentioned. He has labored to gain and maintain Democratic government in North Carolina with a zeal greater than which no Democrat has exhibited. He has unstintingly spent his time and his money whenever the party needed either. He is an aggressive, effective campaigner—possesses an amount of personal magnetism that few men are blessed with. Besides all these elements of strength, he is in the line of promotion. He was nominated Lieutenant Governor and made a vigorous and brilliant canvass of the State. He made a splendid presiding officer and it is but just and right that he should be promoted to the gubernatorial chair—his fitness for which is everywhere conceded.

We do not believe the party can do better than to nominate Major Chas. M. Stedman for Governor.
